NCAA PRINCIPLE OF SPORTING BEHAVIOR AND ETHICAL CONDUCT

For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, student-athletes, coaches, and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifest not only in athletics participation, but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program.

Recent GSU graduates TREY HAMPTON (Ukraine) and OUSMAN KRUBALLY (Slovenia) played in Europe last year, while RYAN HARROW will play in Greece and LANCE PERIQUE will be in Cyprus this year. CURTIS WASHINGTON spent the spring in Hong Kong and fall in Argentina, while ERIC BUCKNER will play in Turkey once again this year after back-to-back appearances in the NBA Summer League.

Also playing professionally in 2014 were Trello Galloway (Bahrain), Sylvester Morgan (Japan) and Leroy Davis (Mexico).

Located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, the Georgia State Sports Arena has been the home of Panther basketball since 1993, offering a modern setting for GSU students, athletes and fans.

Over the last two seasons, the Panthers are 25-1 in the GSU Sports Arena and enter 2015-16 with a [illegible] winning streak at home.

The Sports Arena court is named for legendary head coach Charles "Lefty" Driesell.

The Georgia State Sports Arena was the site of the ESPN Slam Dunk Contest and J-Peter Shannon Jump for NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four in both 2001 and 2002.

The facility also served as the venue for the Paralympic competition at the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta.

The home of Georgia State basketball since 1972, the facility has undergone numerous upgrades in the last two years, including a new 110 x 50 scoreboard, a new floor and air system. New seating and other improvements will be completed in time for the Panthers' 2003-04 season.

GSUCAMPUS

LOCATED IN THE HEART of one of America's great cities, the Georgia State University campus has a profound influence on the changing landscape of downtown Atlanta.

While the building blocks of the university will always be high-achieving students, world-class faculty and ground-breaking research, Georgia State boasts an ever-expanding and improving campus to accommodate that foundation.

In the last decade, the Rialto Theater restoration, Student Center, Student Recreation Center, University Lofts, University Commons, Helen M. Aderhold classroom building, Parker H. Petit Science Teaching and Research Center and many other buildings have transformed the downtown cityscape at Atlanta's core.

The university has a new front door for visitors with Centennial Hall at 100 Auburn Ave, and a new Law School building is nearing completion.

CAMPUSHOUSING

SOME OF THE FINEST HOUSING FACILITIES in the nation are on the Georgia State campus. On-campus housing continues to grow, and more than 4,000 GSU students now live on campus with a variety of options — traditional dorms, apartment-style or loft living.

Georgia State's nationally-recognized and award-winning on-campus housing provides students with opportunities to connect with the university community with educational, cultural, recreational and social programs.

The University Commons, opened in 2007, is a 4.2-acre complex of four buildings surrounding a landscaped courtyard. All units come with fully-equipped kitchens, furnished bedrooms and spacious living areas.

The fall of 2009 saw the opening of Patton Hall, which is suite-style for 325 residents and includes an on-site dining facility.

In 2010, GSU opened its first Greek housing, which consists of nine fraternities and sororities housed in three-story townhomes.

Opened in 2011, the Piedmont North Complex houses approximately 1,100 residents and offers a traditional residence hall lifestyle with all the amenities one would expect from a premier housing program, including a dining facility.

The University Lofts, opened in 2002, contain fully-furnished, loft-style apartments that blend urban style with modern features.

Construction has begun on a new student housing and dining hall complex on Piedmont Avenue that will house 1,100 students and open for the fall of 2016.

All residence halls feature a full range of amenities including study and community lounge areas, laundry facilities, 24/7 security patrols, on-site or nearby parking and more.

UNIVERSITY COMMONS

CITY OF ATLANTA

ATLANTA IS INTEGRAL TO Georgia State's educational experience. Students and faculty are part of a living laboratory where they study and create solutions for the challenges of the 21st century.

The metropolitan Atlanta area is home to more than five million people and the world's busiest airport.

Atlanta is third in the nation and fourth in the world for Fortune 500 company headquarters, and attending school downtown provides students with unparalleled access to internships and jobs. There are approximately 125,000 Georgia State alumni the Atlanta area, giving students ample networking opportunities.

Georgia State students also can take advantage of the university's easy access to Atlanta's rich creative environment, diversity of cultures and lifestyles, and wide variety of indoor and outdoor activities.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME OPENS IN ATLANTA

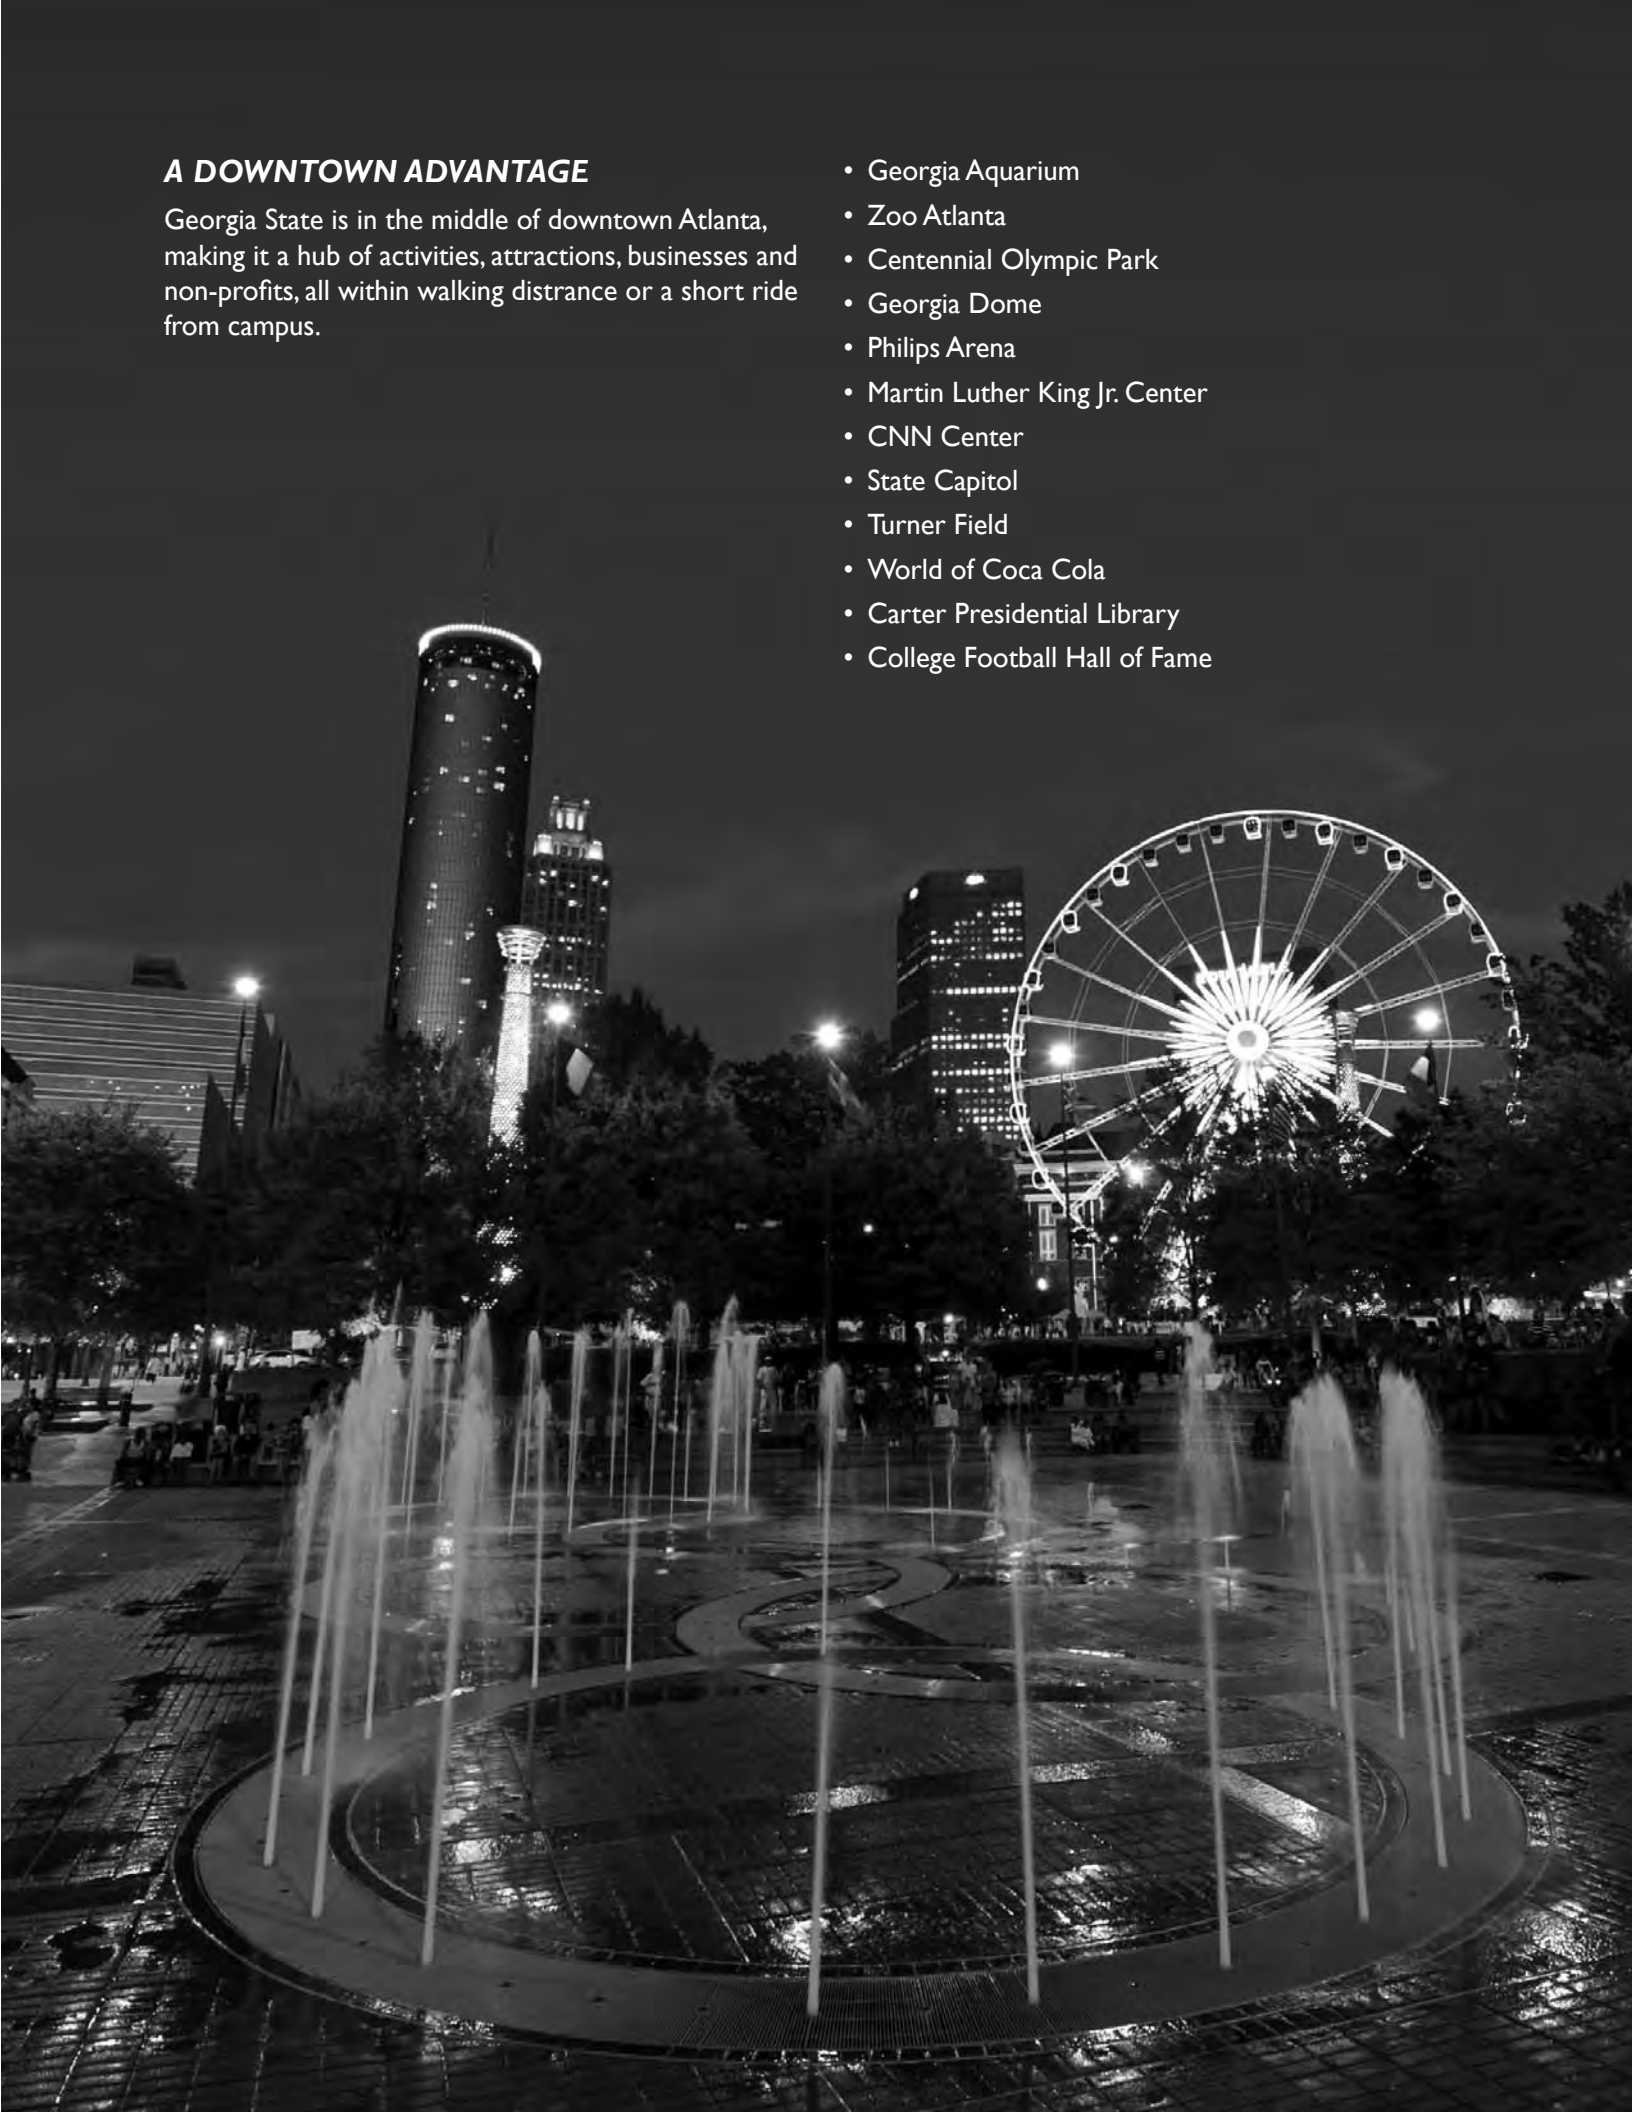

The new College Football Hall of Fame is open in the heart of downtown Atlanta, just minutes from the Georgia State campus.

The $68.5 million facility occupies 94,256 square feet, including 50,000 square feet of exhibit space and a 45-yard indoor football field.

A DOWNTOWN ADVANTAGE

Georgia State is in the middle of downtown Atlanta, making it a hub of activities, attractions, businesses and non-profits, all within walking distrance or a short ride from campus.

SUN BELT™ CONFERENCE

Is the Sun Belt Conference a modern-day fixture among the decision-makers in the ever-changing world of college athletics?

Or is the league a long-time innovator, responsible for advancements in many sports that we now take for granted?

Is the Sun Belt home of an alumni base that includes national and international leaders in the areas of government, business and entertainment as well as athletics?

Or is the conference one that has established itself as a national contender in a variety of sports, and one that continues to evolve in ways that directly benefit its institutions and more importantly its student-athletes?

The answer is yes, yes, yes and yes.

The Sun Belt Conference's "Together We Rise" motto isn't just hyperbole. It's proven fact on many different levels, not the least being its place in the hierarchy of collegiate athletics. As the league prepares to celebrate four decades since its founding in 1976, the Sun Belt occupies a "seat at the table" as a permanent part of the NCAA's 24-member Board of Directors. That alone insures that the conference has a voice in determining the future as college sports continues to change and evolve.

Changing and evolving have been hallmarks of the league since its existence. College basketball might be a shadow of its current self had the Sun Belt not led the way in the establishment of the shot clock. The conference also wrote history at the start of the century when it inaugurated football as a league sport – becoming the first already-existing Division I conference to take such action.

The Sun Belt was originally founded to give home to some of the nation's premier mid-major basketball teams, and the league's history is dotted with success in many different men's and women's sports through its history. But when the desire for a higher national profile and the desire of its membership brought about football sponsorship in 2001, the conference was figuratively reborn, and now stands as one of the 10 premier college football leagues in the country.

And, with the recent debut of the College Football Playoff, the Sun Belt is guaranteed universal access based strictly on performance. A worthy football team in the Sun Belt can be in the national championship picture, and the league is a permanent part of the "Group of Five" conferences (joining the American Athletic Conference, the Mountain West Conference, the Mid-American Conference and Conference USA) that will send its highest-rated champion to a premier Jan. 1 bowl game.

In only 15 years of football, the Sun Belt has earned ties to no fewer than seven bowl games. In addition to the potential of the College Football Playoff, the league has guaranteed spots in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, the GoDaddy Bowl, the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl and the new Cure Bowl for bowl-eligible teams each and every season. Beginning in 2016, the Sun Belt will also be part of a conference rotation that will send teams to the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl and the Miami Beach Bowl.

No football conference in history has ever boasted as many bowl relationships in its first two decades of existence, but such breakthroughs have been the rule rather than the exception for a league that continues to exceed expectations. Just in the last three seasons, league members have recorded 52 non-conference wins including a record 21 victories outside the league in 2013. The Sun Belt also has a winning record over its fellow "Group of Five" conferences over the past two seasons, and has claimed three bowl victories in those two years.

Gridiron success has grown in the league for several years, but success can also happen overnight. New league member Georgia Southern claimed the Sun Belt football title in its first year in the conference last fall. Appalachian State, another league newbie, rattled off six consecutive wins to close the 2014 football season and finish with a winning 7-5 record. Texas State has finished its two football seasons in in the conference as a bowl eligible team, going 6-6 in its inaugural Sun Belt campaign and then 7-5 this past season.

Football, though, is by no means the only hallmark of success for the league. Just this past season, Georgia State knocked off third-seeded Baylor in the NCAA men's basketball tournament and Little Rock defeated sixth-seeded Texas A&M in the women's NCAA tournament . With the league's postseason tournaments headed back to the conference's home city, the "Big Easy" of New Orleans, and a plethora of standouts returning for this season, the league is poised for another successful hoops season.

Baseball and softball continue to put the league in the national spotlight during the spring season, with deep runs into postseason play and high visibility in the national polls becoming a tradition. UL Lafayette's baseball team was the nation's No. 1 team in the final third of the 2014 season and has reached the NCAA Super Regional round each of the past two years, while the UL Lafayette softball team has advanced to the Super Regional three straight years including a trip to the 2014 College World Series.

Many league sports have made statements on the national level, and that is a tribute to the university and athletic administrators that serve both the league institutions and the student-athletes at each school. That this level of success comes at a time of sweeping change in collegiate athletics adds even more to these accomplishments.

With those changes, opportunities for student-athletes to succeed both on and off the field have never been greater, and the Sun Belt is well positioned in the areas of scholarship, student welfare and academic success. During the 2014-15 academic year alone, Sun Belt member institutions awarded nearly $50 million in scholarship funds to over 3,084 student-athletes while also contributing over $2 million from the Student Assistance Fund (SAF) to over 1,779 student-athletes.

The league and its institutions rewrite the Sun Belt's record book each year in grade-point averages and academic honors, and member schools' success in the NCAA's APR rankings provide even more proof of the league's academic commitment. In 2015, the conference doubled the number of teams that received NCAA Public Recognition Awards, given to teams that post APR scores in the top 10 percent of their sport, as 14 teams were among the national honorees compared to seven in 2014.

"We have never been as strong as we are now academically and financially, and I believe we are getting stronger all the time athletically," said former Sun Belt Conference president and Troy University chancellor Dr. Jack Hawkins, Jr. recently. "I truly believe the best is yet to come."

The strength of any league lies in its membership, with the Sun Belt's 11-school football membership including Appalachian State, Arkansas State, Georgia Southern, Georgia State, Idaho, UL Lafayette, UL Monroe, New Mexico State, South Alabama, Texas State and Troy. Little Rock and UT Arlington compete in all sports as non-football members while Idaho and New Mexico State are football-only members. Those members give the Sun Belt a mix of the "old" and the "new", with many long-time Sun Belt institutions continuing to have success and a solid corps of conference newcomers ready to make their marks on the league and national levels.

The varied campuses and locations reflect another league strength – its diversity. The mix of regions and regional cultures provide a rare opportunity for the league's student-athletes to experience many environments. But those same student-athletes can also experience that without leaving their own campuses.

For every All-Pro linebacker DeMacus Ware (Troy) and Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Charles Tillman (UL Lafayette), and for every World Series MVP David Freese (South Alabama) coming from Sun Belt campuses, there are also U.S. presidents (Lyndon Johnson, Texas State), business icons (Chick-fil-a president Daniel Cathy, Georgia Southern), nationally-known entertainers (Tim McGraw, UL Monroe, and Ludacris, Georgia State), and there is royalty (Miss America Debbye Turner, Arkansas State). These proud alumni, as well as the thousands of student-athletes and staff members at all of its institutions, are proof that the Sun Belt Conference continues to gain stature and provide the promise of future success with every sunrise. "Together We Rise" has never been more appropriate.

LOCKER ROOM

The Panthers moved into a new, state-of-the-art locker room in 2013, giving the team all of the comforts of home.

The area, located on the third floor of the GSU Sports Arena, features a full locker room, meeting room, lounge and much more.

Team members will be able to watch video of opposing teams on multiple televisions or relax between classes. They can also use a pair of computers in the lounge area.

There is also a full locker room for coaches and support staff.

"Our new locker room shows the committment that Georgia State has to our basketball program," said head coach Ron Hunter. "We have a state-of-the-art area for our team that is as good as any you will find."

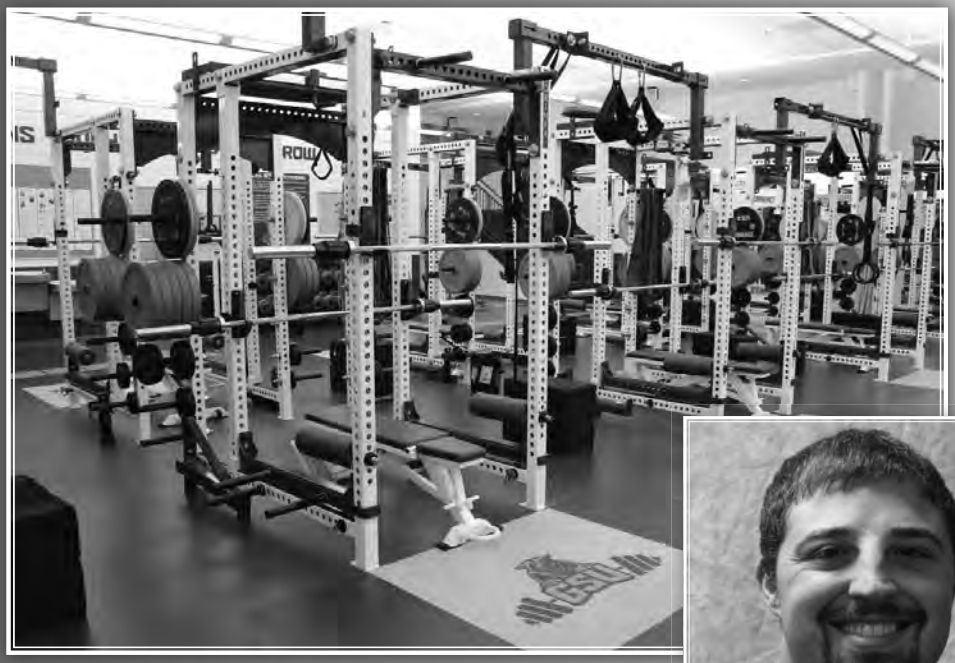

SPEED, STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Georgia State's Speed, Strength and Conditioning's seven-member staff works to help each Panther each and every student-athlete reach their full potential. The staff works year-round to provide necessary programs and training methods for each specific team.

Nate Majnaric, an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach, possesses a wealth of experience and works directly with the men's basketball program. Among his specialties is making sure that the student-athletes are trained properly to get the most out of their games.

SPORTS MEDICINE AND NUTRITION

GSU carries a 14-member Sports Medicine and Nutrition staff of certified athletic trainers to provide outstanding care to Georgia State student-athletes in the prevention or treatment of injuries.

Georgia State student-athletes benefit from outstanding sports medicine facilities at all venues and care is provided year-round and seven-days-a-week in season.

Dinika Johnson, Head Athletic Trainer, works with the Georgia State men's basketball student-athletes in the prevention and treatment of injuries. Among her goals is to make sure team team is properly stretching and eating healthy to allow them to be in peak condition when competing on the court.

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Ten inductees formed the inaugural class for the Georgia State Athletics Hall of Fame. The class was announced on Sept. 28, 2015 and will be inducted in April 2016 at the annual Student-Athlete Banquet on campus. They were introduced at the Homecoming football game on Oct. 3. The inaugural class includes three coaches, three male student-athletes, three female student-athletes and a husband-wife duo who contributed greatly to the success and growth of Georgia State athletics.

Coach Charles "Lefty" Driesell is an NABC Hall of Famer and the court at GSU is named in his honor. He had a school record 29-5 season in 2000-01, beating No. 6 seed Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament. He won 103 games in a little over five years, winning three coference championships.

Coach Robert "Bob" Heck was the "Founding Father" of Georgia State softball in 1984 (slow pitch) and 1985 (fast pitch). He rang up more than 700 wins in 24 years, advancing to the NCAA Regional as a top 25 team in 1994. He was CAA Coach of the Year and an inductee in the Ga. Dugout Club Hall of Fame.

Coach Bruce LaBudde has been involved for nearly 50 years since being a star distance runner in the 1960s (NCAA qualifier and Olympic Trials qualifier). He turned to coaching from 1973-91 and even won the school's first Sun Belt Conference championship back in the 1970s.

Bill and Susan Reeves have supported GSU since Bill graduated in 1959 after playing baseball. They built the Reeves Fieldhouse for baseball (2003). Susan is an honorary alum who supports the Spirit Squads and their awards. Bill has been chairman of the Athletic Board of Trustees.

Terese Allen had an All-America career with a school record 2,074 points from 1977-81. The 1980-81 team went 28-5 and advanced to national postseason play.

Kevin Morris was a three-time all-conference guard with 1,212 points in just three seasons. He was the PG on the 2000-01 29-5 team that beat Wisconsin as he was that game's MVP.

Rodney Hamilton set a school record with 1,515 points and was a two-time all-conference star. He set the school record for assists with 535 and for steals with 212.

Sarah-Jane Mungo was a three-time all-conference star and two-time league MVP. She set the school record for kills, attacks, points and blocks over a 492-game career.

Sheryl Martin scored 1,435 points and had 933 rebounds. She set a school record with 52, 45 and 39-point games in a row (45.3 in that amazing span).

Don Floyd entered GSU in 1939 and became the school's first superstar. In tennis, he led an undefeated team that beat Alabama and Clemson in 1940.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

COMMUNITY OUTREACH is an essential component of the Georgia State program.

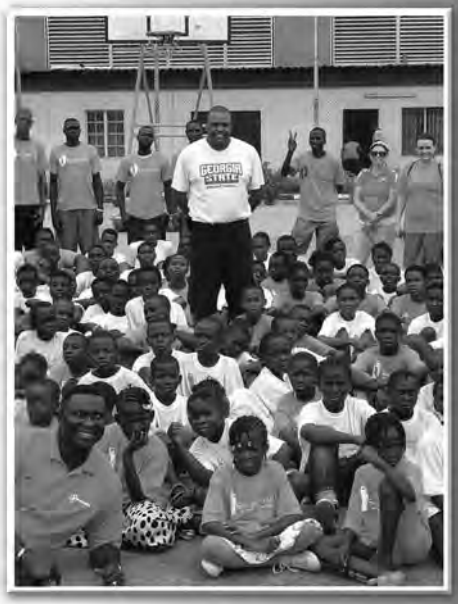

Panther student-athletes volunteer for a wide range of programs and organizations, including Samaritan's Feet, Make-A-Wish, Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Club, the Salvation Army, local elementary schools, reading with students and many other activities.

Samaritan's Feet

Head coach Ron Hunter has coached a game barefoot each of the last eight years to raise awareness for Samaritan's Feet. The Panthers wore special orange jerseys in January 2012 to raise awareness and then auctioned the jerseys with the proceeds going to Samaritan's Feet. Hunter traveled to Nigeria in 2011 and took the team to South Africa in 2012 to help distribute shoes. The Panthers traveled to Costa Rica in 2014 to once again distribute shoes with Samaritan's Feet.

MEDIA EXPOSURE

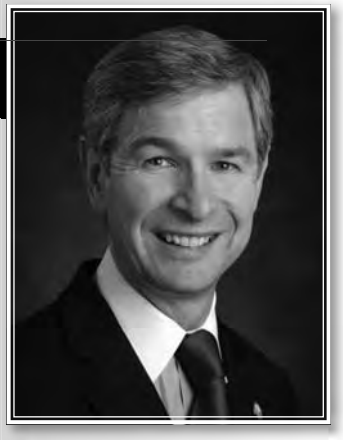

Georgia State played multiple games on national television during the 2014-15 season, including two on ESPN2 and one on ESPNU. As a part of the NCAA tournament run, Georgia State appeared on TNT and TBS. The Panthers have had more than 30 televised games since coach Hunter's arrival. Located in one of the nation's largest media markets, exposure comes to the program on a daily basis.

GSUPRESIDENT

MARK P. BECKER

SINCE BEGINNING HIS TENURE as Georgia State University's seventh president in January 2009, President Mark P. Becker has provided a vision for the future of Georgia State University and led the institution into a period of marked growth and advancement.

Reflecting his vision of the urban public research university for the 21st century, the university adopted a dynamic 10-year strategic plan that has Georgia State well on its way to becoming one of the nation's premier urban research universities.

As a first generation college student who began his educational career at a community college, Becker is personally and professionally committed to ensuring that students of all economic backgrounds succeed and are given opportunities to compete on a level playing field. Under his leadership, Georgia State's graduation rate has already increased by 10 percent, and the university is becoming a national model for undergraduate education. It leads the nation in eliminating disparities in graduation rates based on race or ethnicity, and, as one of the most diverse universities in America, is first in the nation among non-profit institutions in graduating African-American students.

By promoting the achievements of the university, making it more visible locally and nationally, and demonstrating the value of a Georgia State degree, the university under Becker's leadership has set a series of university records for enrollment, graduation rates and total graduates. Becker has also placed high priority on ensuring financial support for students, and as a result need- and merit-based scholarship funds distributed by the university have tripled since his arrival.

Becker's passion for student success has been matched by his commitment to increasing multidisciplinary research and economic development as facilitated by the creation of new research centers, the Second Century Initiative—an ambitious program to hire one-hundred senior faculty members to serve in interdisciplinary research clusters, and an enhanced emphasis on the translation of faculty research into products and companies. This commitment has brought the university to new heights of research accomplishment, as reflected, for example, in new university records for sponsored research funding and federal research funding.

Being globally connected and engaged is another important component of Becker's vision for the modern research university. Seeking to position Georgia State faculty and students to thrive in an increasingly complex and global landscape, Becker has worked with faculty leaders and international partners to enhance Georgia State's global profile. In 2010 the university partnered with Beijing Language and Culture University to establish a Confucius Institute with an emphasis on business and commerce. In 2012 the institute was named a "2012 Confucius Institute of the Year."

Becker is particularly committed to developing strong partnerships with universities in rapidly growing economies. As a result, the university is working to strengthen relationships with counterparts in Brazil, China, South Africa, South Korea and Turkey. These partners are the basis for the development of new student and faculty exchanges, study abroad programs, research collaborations, executive training initiatives, government and private sector networks, and dual-degree programs.

Becker has aggressively advanced the campus' physical development and revitalization of downtown Atlanta. This has included major additions to campus housing and dining, research and academic facilities, as well as intramural and athletics facilities. In 2010 the university added football to its athletics program, and in 2013 added sand volleyball and moved to the Sun Belt Conference to advance into the Division I – FBS level of NCAA competition.

Throughout his career Becker has served on boards and committees of civic, government and professional bodies. He serves, for example, on the boards of the Coalition of Urban Serving Universities, World Affairs Council of Atlanta, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Aquarium, Georgia Research Alliance, Woodruff Arts Center, and the Atlanta Committee for Progress. He also serves on the executive committees of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education (Chair) and Central Atlanta Progress.

Trained as a statistician, Becker has had a distinguished career in biostatistics and public health sciences. For most of his professorial career he was a member of the faculty in the Department of Biostatistics at the University of Michigan, where he also held appointments in the Institute for Social Research, and the Department of Statistics. He was made a Fellow of the American Statistical Association, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Becker has been principal investigator on research grants from the National Institutes of Health and the National Science Foundation. He has published extensively in leading journals, and his doctoral students have gone on to successful careers in leading higher education institutions and with multinational companies. Becker served on multiple editorial boards, was co-editor of Sociological Methodology, and was a guest editor for Sociological Methods and Research and for the Journal of the American Statistical Association.

Prior to his appointment as president of Georgia State, Becker was executive vice president for academic affairs and provost at the University of South Carolina and dean of the School of Public Health and assistant vice president of Public Health Preparedness and Emergency Response at the University of Minnesota. From 1989 to 2000, Becker was a professor in the University of Michigan's School of Public Health, where he also was associate dean for academic affairs. He has held academic appointments at the University of Washington, the University of Florida and Cornell University.

Becker attended Harford (Md.) Community College, earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Towson State University in 1980 and his Ph.D. degree in statistics from the Pennsylvania State University in 1985. Becker grew up in Havre de Grace, Md., near Baltimore. He and his wife, Laura Voisinet, have two adult children, Matthew and Julia.

ATHLETICDIRECTOR

CHARLIE COBB

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY President Mark P. Becker ushered in a new era of Panther Athletics when he named veteran athletic administrator and "proven program builder" Charlie Cobb as Director of Athletics on Aug. 15, 2014.

At Cobb's introductory press conference, Becker noted the need for Georgia State to find a proven winner, someone who has built a winning program "the right way." Becker said Cobb even took it a step further.

"In fact, we got a bonus in this package. Not only is he a proven builder and proven winner with a track record of doing it in the right way, but he also has tremendous Atlanta roots," Becker said. "He knows this community well, has worked in this city, knows what we are doing and the potential we have in this program."

Cobb returned to Atlanta at the perfect time with several significant athletic building projects in the works. Already being constructed is a weight room at the football practice facility, while a new basketball and volleyball practice facility are scheduled for this fall. Also on the list is a dedicated academic performance center; and the University's concept for redeveloping Turner Field into a mixed-use area inclusive of sporting venues.

Before returning to Atlanta, Cobb spent nine years as the Director of Athletics at Appalachian State.

Previously he worked for six years honing his business acumen with the Atlanta Sports Council, the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl and the Georgia Dome, before his first venture into college athletics as an administrator at his alma mater NC State.

Cobb has led successful programs by focusing on four pillars of his leadership philosophy:

1) relationships matter
2) achieve success
3) be innovative
4) create traditions

Those ideals helped him build and maintain a high-performing program at App State. The Mountaineers: won three consecutive Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) national championships, the first three-peat in FCS history. They also brought home eight consecutive Commissioner's Cup championships (top men's sports program in the Southern Conference) and four Germann Cup championships (top women's program). Together, they earned the men's and women's awards in the same academic year four times.

At App State, Cobb helped create $50 million in facilities improvements as the Mountaineers' fundraising efforts that reached all-time highs, including surpassing the $3 million mark. The jewel of the construction projects was the seven-story Appalachian Athletics Center and the campaign also produced new homes for Mountaineer baseball, softball and soccer, as well as a new indoor practice facility.

The 47-year-old Cobb was a four-year letterwinner as a football player at NC State. He graduated with honors with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1990 and earned a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio in 1992. As a senior center, he was named to the All-ACC second team and was an All-ACC academic selection.

Cobb and his wife, Lindsay, have a son and daughter, 17-year-old Harrison and 14-year-old Branan. Lindsay Cobb was an All-ACC goalkeeper for the NC State women's soccer team from 1988-90.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

GEORGIA STATE ATHLETICS IS COMMITTED to providing educational, personal and community development that will enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience.

Georgia State's commitment to academic support and student-athlete development is paying dividends as the Panthers are enjoying unprecedented success in the classroom.

Georgia State's Student-Athlete Development department became just the second in the nation to be certified at the highest level by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

The Georgia State program is headed by Associate Director of Athletics Brad Horton. Working directly with the men's basketball program is Travis Ballard.

SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM:

- Panther athletic teams have combined for a 3.0 grade-point average or higher (semester or cumulative) for 14 consecutive semesters.
- The athletic department achieved a 3.16 semester GPA and a 3.15 cumulative GPA for the spring 2015, the highest figures on record.
- In the most recent release, Georgia State led all Sun Belt schools in Graduation Success Rate at 86 percent, above the national average of 81 percent.
- A total of 15 student-athletes across nine sports have earned Academic All-America honors since 1989.

TWO-TIME DEFENDING CHAMPS!

Georgia State has dominated the Sun Belt Conference since returning two years ago. The Panthers have won back-to-back conference regular season championships and earned the Sun Belt tournament title in New Orleans last year. During that span, the Panthers have gone 32-6 in league play.

The Panthers have also taken home a ton of individual hardware as R.J. Hunter won back-to-back Sun Belt Player of the Year honors and he, along with Ryan Harrow, Devonta White and Manny Atkins all earned all-conference honors in the last two years.

ELITE COMPANY

Georgia State has won 25 games in each of the last two seasons, the second-best totals in school history. Only 20 programs in the country have won at least 25 games in each of the last two years.

That elite group includes: Kentucky, Duke, Michigan State, Arizona, Gonzaga, Louisville, Wichita State, Kansas, Wisconsin, Iowa State, Virginia, Villanova, VCU, Stephen F. Austin, San Diego State, N.C. Central, Louisiana Tech, SMU and Dayton.

HOME SWEET HOME

When coach Ron Hunter took over the Panthers, one of the first things he proclaimed was that the GSU Sports Arena would become one of the toughest places in the country. So far, he has been correct. The Panthers are 47-11 in the comfy confines of the Sports Arena since his arrival.

The Panthers have gone 25-1 at home the last two seasons, with the only loss coming in double overtime. During that span, Georgia State has put together an 18-game winning streak which ranks second-longest in school history and now enter the 2015-16 season with a seven-game home court winning streak.

ON TO THE PROS

Georgia State lost three players to graduation last year and another to the NBA Draft. Three of the four individuals that left are now playing professionally.

R.J. Hunter was selected with the 28th pick in the first round of the NBA Draft by the Boston Celtics, while Ryan Harrow is playing overseas in Greece. Curtis Washington already played professionally in Hong Kong before going to Agentina in the fall.

Although not playing professionally, Ryann Green is doing just fine as he stayed at Georgia State to earn his Masters.

615 AND COUNTING

Georgia State has made at least one 3-point field goal in 615 straight games, dating back to the 1994-95 season. The last team to hold the Panthers without a trey was Stetson on Feb. 18, 1995.

RECORD AT GEORGIA STATE:

87-47 (5th Season)

CAREER RECORD:

361-266* (22nd Season)

In four seasons, Ron Hunter has changed the national perception of Georgia State; winning 87 games and advancing to the postseason three teams. It was highlighed this past year by winning 25 games for a second year in a row and advancing to the third round of the NCAA tournament following the shocking upset of No. 3-seed Baylor.

The 87 wins are the most in any four-year stretch in program history. Georgia State has entered elite status by winning 25 or more games in each of the last two years, an accomplishment only reached by 20 programs in the entire country.

Hunter is now responsible for three of the four winningest seasons in program history and half of the school's postseason appearances.

After winning the Sun Belt regular season title for the second straight season in 2014-15, the Panthers claimed the tournament title, just the third for the program to advance to the NCAA tournament. In the postgame celebration, Hunter tore his Achillies, a clip that went viral across the nation.

Coaching in the NCAA tournament from a stool, the Panthers trailed by 12 with 2:53 to play, before mounting a furious 13-0 run, capped by a 30-foot 3-pointer from son R.J. that sent Hunter off his stool and became one of the most watched clips of the tournament and a part of 'One Shining Moment.'

Although successful in his first two seasons at the helm, the Panthers started to pile up the wins during the 2013-14 season. Winning 25 games, second most in school history, Georgia State earned a Sun Belt regular season championship and an appearance in the Postseason NIT. During the season, the Panthers won a school-record 14-straight games, including a stretch of 22 of 23, as Hunter was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year and NABC Region 24 Coach of the Year.

During his first season (2011-12), Georgia State won 22 games, the fourth most in school history, advancing to the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Hunter has won 361 games in 21 seasons, but the accomplishments made by the 2011-12 team will always be special for him. After being named head coach on March 21, 2011, he built a squad that finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring defense, defensive shooting percentage, steals and blocked shots, as six seniors finished their careers triumpently.

The Panthers opened the CIT at home, another first, hosting a postseason contest and earning an impressive 74-43 victory against Tennessee Tech.

Earlier in the year, Hunter's squad won 11 straight games, earning impressive victories over CAA preseason favorite Drexel and at VCU.

The Panthers winning ways continued in the CAA tournament with a record-setting 35-point victory against Hofstra in the first round, the largest margin of victory in CAA Championship history.

One of Hunter's six seniors, Eric Buckner, became one of the top shot blockers in the country and in just his second season as a Panther, set the school record for career blocked shots. Buckner later earned Georgia Men's College Player-of-the-Year honors by the Atlanta Tip-off Club.

Following the record-setting season, Hunter was named Atlanta Tip-off Club Georgia Coach of the Year, while his players earned a record number of conference and national awards.

In his second year, Hunter led a squad of nine newcomers to 15 wins and saw his son, R.J., earn Kyle Macy Freshman All-America honors, along with a slew of CAA awards. His squad won at some of the toughest places in the CAA, including George Mason and Old Dominion, while knocking off an undefeated Northeastern squad in Boston.

The 2013-14 season was a special one for the Hunter family as Ron watched R.J. be named Sun Belt Player of the Year, earn AP All-America Honorable Mention honors and then receive the conference's top honor as male athlete of the year. Georgia State saw four Panthers earn all-conference recognition as the Panthers took the regular-season title with an impressive 17-1 confererence mark. R.J. repeated on all of those awards following the 2014-15 season and announced he would leave Georgia State early for the NBA Draft.

National notoriety is nothing new for Hunter. While at IUPUI, he was lauded for his humanitarian efforts, partnering with Samaritan's Feet, an organization that collects shoes for underprivileged children around the world.

He continued that work in Atlanta, coaching the Panthers while barefoot in one game during his first four seasons at GSU.

While leading IUPUI to 25 or more wins in two of his final four seasons, Hunter began to partner with Samaritan's Feet. On Jan. 24, 2008, he coached IUPUI against Oakland in his bare feet to help raise awareness for the cause. By tipoff, Hunter's efforts had garnered more than 100,000 pairs of shoes, and to date, that number has climbed well into the millions.

Hunter's resume includes numerous national honors including an NABC Guardians of the Game Pillar Award for Service, the 2009 Giant Steps Award from the National Consortium for Academics and Sport (NCAS), and a Minority Achievement Award from the Center for Leadership Development (CLD).

He was one of seven head coaches who served on the Division I Basketball Academic Enhancement Group, as appointed by late NCAA President Myles Brand, and he is a member of the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC) Board of Directors.

He was honored by the American Diabeties Association this past May as its Father of the Year and a week later earned the Positive Collegiate Coach of the Year at the Georgia Positive Athlete Awards.

In his 17 seasons at IUPUI, Hunter guided the program through its transition from the NAIA and Division II level into NCAA Division I and the Summit League. He is the school's winningest coach, both in number of victories and winning percentage, and he led IUPUI to its only appearance in the NCAA tournament in 2003 in just the school's third season as a Division I program.

His program produced George Hill, the 2008 Summit League Player of the Year who was drafted in the first round of the 2008 NBA Draft (26th selection) by the San Antonio Spurs.

Hill was the standout for Hunter's 2007-08 IUPUI squad that won a school-record 26 games. The Jaguars led the nation in 3-point field goal percentage that year while also ranking in the top five in both field goal percentage and free throw percentage.

In 2009-10, Hunter's Jaguars won 25 games, including the first postseason victory in school history. IUPUI, the Summit League runner-up, earned a berth in the College Basketball Invitational, where the Jaguars defeated Hofstra in the first round before falling to Princeton in double overtime. IUPUI ranked second in the nation in field-goal percentage in 2009-10.

Named Summit League Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2006, Hunter led IUPUI to the conference championship game five times from 2002-10, including the 2003 title game victory over top-seeded Valparaiso. Between 2005 and 2010, the Jaguars never finished lower than fourth in the league standings under Hunter, including runnerup finishes in 2003, 2004, 2006, 2008 and 2010.

Sixteen of Hunter's Jaguars received first- or second-team all-conference accolades, including two player-of-the-year honorees in Hill (2008) and Odell Bradley (2004) as well as defensive player of the year Matt Crenshaw (2004). Another 10 IUPUI players were recognized on the league's all-newcomer team, including Newcomer-of-the-Year winners Austin Montgomery (2007) and Robert Glenn (2009).

Hunter's teams have shown the ability to knock off top competition on the road, recording victories at Georgia Tech (2001-02), at Northwestern (2002-03) and at Seton Hall (2008-09).

Hunter arrived at IUPUI as head coach in 1994-95 and led the then-NAIA program to a winning record at 16-13 in his first season. His second IUPUI squad posted a 22-7 mark in NCAA Division II, at the time the highest single-season winning percentage in school history.

Winning records followed the next two seasons, and Carlos Knox became a three-time All-American at the Division II level. The program began its transition to Division I and the Summit League in 1998-99.

Hunter's coaching career began in 1987, when he served as an assistant at Wisconsin-Milwaukee. During his six seasons at Milwaukee, the school moved from NAIA to NCAA Division II status and eventually to Division I. During Hunter's stint, Wisconsin-Milwaukee amassed an overall record of 111-59, including a 23-4 mark in 1992-93.

Prior to his arrival at IUPUI, Hunter spent one year as the top assistant coach at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio), under current Arizona State head coach Herb Sendek. During that season, the Redhawks were 19-10, finishing second in the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and making an appearance in the postseason National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

Hunter, 50, earned his bachelor's degree in education at Miami (Ohio) in 1986 and added a master's in 1987. He was a standout player on strong Miami (Ohio) teams of the mid-1980s, along with high school and college teammate Ron Harper, who went on to a long NBA career. The Redhawks were 81-30 during Hunter's four-year career and earned three consecutive NCAA tournament berths while winning two MAC championships.

Hunter and his wife, Amy, have two children, Jasmine (26) and R.J. (21), who was selected by the Boston Celtics with the 28th pick in the first round of the NBA Draft following the 2015-16 season.

Following the then-second most successful season in school history, RON HUNTER was named 2012 Georgia College Coach of the Year by the Atlanta Tip-off Club.

Darryl LaBarrie
Associate Head Coach
Georgia Tech, 2001
5th Year at Georgia State

Darryl LaBarrie, a former Georgia Tech assistant coach with deep Atlanta roots, enters his fifth season at Georgia State in 2015-16. Prior to his arrival at GSU four years ago, LaBarrie spent the previous two seasons on the staff at Georgia Tech under Paul Hewitt, where his primary responsibilities were recruiting and developing the perimeter players.

In each of the last two seasons, LaBarrie has helped guide the Panthers to 25 wins, one of just 20 programs in the country to accomplish the feat. It was capped this past season by a win over No. 3-seed Baylor in the NCAA tournament as the Panthers advanced to the third round for just the second time in school history. Georgia State won both the Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles on the way to the postseason.

The 2013-14 season saw the Panthers win 25 games, win the Sun Belt regular season title and advance to the Postseason NIT for just the second time in school history.

In 2012-13, he oversaw the recruitment and signing of R.J. Hunter, who went on to be a two-time Sun Belt Player of the Year and receive AP All-America honorable mention recognition in each of the last two seasons.

He also recruited Ryan Harrow, a Parade First Team All-American and Georgia Gatorade Player of the Year to play at Georgia State and Manny Atkins, a top-60 recruit out of high school. Harrow was a two-time All-Sun Belt First-Team member.

In his first season with the Panthers, LaBarrie helped the squad to 22 wins, and the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament. GSU finished among the top 20 in the NCAA in scoring defense, defensive field-goal percentage, blocked shots and steals.

In his first season with the Yellow Jackets (2009-10), LaBarrie helped Tech a 23-13 record and the second round of the NCAA tournament. Tech nearly won the ACC tournament, falling to Duke 65-61 in the championship.

During his second season, LaBarrie continued to oversee the development of Iman Shumpert, who led the Yellow Jackets in scoring, rebounds and assists and was named All-ACC Second Team as well as the conference's all-defensive team.

Prior to his stint with the Yellow Jackets, LaBarrie spent two seasons as an assistant coach at East Carolina. LaBarrie helped the Pirates produce the top two 3-point shooting seasons in school history and ranked first or second in Conference USA in that category in his two seasons. During the 2008-09 season, ECU made a school-record 261 treys, breaking the mark established the previous year.

A 2001 graduate of Georgia Tech, LaBarrie spent the 2006-07 season as an assistant coach at Campbell. Prior to joining the Camels' staff, he served as a coach with the highly regarded Atlanta Celtics AAU program. He also worked as a regional NBA scout for Marty Blake's Court Report while serving as an assistant coach at Stone Mountain (Ga.) High School.

LaBarrie is no stranger to Georgia State as he earned his master's degree in sports administration on campus in 2005 while serving as a graduate assistant at Tech. He worked one year in general athletics administration (2003-04), then the following year with the men's basketball program (2004-05).

LaBarrie earned three letters at Georgia Tech, playing two years under Bobby Cremins and one season for Hewitt. He helped lead the Yellow Jackets to the 2001 NCAA tournament and received his B.S. in management that year.

He began his collegiate career at Florida A&M, where he earned Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference All-Rookie Team honors as a freshman before transferring to Tech.

A native of Decatur, Ga., LaBarrie was named first-team all-state and Dekalb County Player of the Year as a senior when he led Tucker High School to a state title. He played with former Panther great Shernard Long, forming one of the most formidable tandems in Georgia.

LaBarrie and his wife, Aisha, are the parents of three daughters, Sydney, Kai and Diarra.

Everick Sullivan, a former associate head coach at Eastern Kentucky with 12 years of experience as a collegiate basketball coach, has spent the previous four seasons with the Georgia State Panthers under head coach Ron Hunter.

In his four seasons, Sullivan's impact with the Panthers has been immense, guiding Georgia State to 87 wins, the most in any four-year stretch in program history.

His tenure was highlighted this past year by a 25-win season, Sun Belt regular season and tournament title, along with a win over No. 3-seed Baylor in the NCAA tournament as the Panthers advanced to the third round for just the second time in school history.

The Panthers have won 25 games in each of the last two seasons, one of just 20 programs to accomplish the feat. Georgia State has won back-to-back Sun Belt regular season championships, go go along with a tournament title in 2015 and a Postseason NIT appearance in 2014.

Before joining the Panthers in 2011, Sullivan spent three seasons with Eastern Kentucky and helped the Colonels to 53 wins, when he spent two seasons as an assistant before being promoted to associate head coach in his final season.

In his last two seasons with Eastern Kentucky, the Colonels were among the top 10 in the NCAA in 3-point shooting percentage, ranked second nationally in 3-pointers made (10), assist-to-turnover ratio (+1.63) and third in fewest turnovers per game (9.6).

Prior to his three-year stint with Eastern Kentucky, Sullivan spent the four years as a head coach while compiling an impressive overall record of 107-26 (.804). From 2005-08, Sullivan was in charge of the Vincennes (Ind.) University program and helped the Trailblazers advance to two National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) tournament appearances.

In 2005-06, his team was ranked the ninth best defense in the nation. He recruited and graduated 92 percent of all his student-athletes with 22 of his 24 players moving on to four-year institutions. In 2004-05, Sullivan served as the head coach at Lincoln Trial (Ill.) College, where he finished with a 28-5 record. He was named region and district coach of the year multiple times during his head coaching career.

He began his coaching career at Wabash Valley (Ill.) College, spending both the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons with the program.

The native of Simpsonville, S.C., played collegiate basketball at Louisville under Hall of Fame head coach Denny Crum from 1988-92. Sullivan played in three NCAA tournaments and is among the Cardinals' all-time leaders in scoring (15th), assists (ninth), 3-point percentage (10th) and dunks (10th).

Sullivan earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Louisville. He play eight years of professional basketball in Finland, Portugal, Slovenia, Poland, Puerto Rico, Cyprus and Lebanon. In 1998, his team won the Cyprus league championship and he was voted MVP.

Claude Pardue

Assistant Coach
Emory, 2008
5th Year at Georgia State

Claude Pardue, a former Georgia State basketball graduate assistant, returned to GSU prior to the start of the 2011-12 season and enters his fifth year in 2015-16. Before his return to GSU, he spent the 2010-11 season as a program coordinator for Tim Floyd at UTEP. A graduate of Emory University, Pardue earned his master's degree at Georgia State while working as a graduate assistant with the men's basketball team.

Although seeing success in his first two years back, the last two have been the most rewarding, guiding the program to back-to-back 25 win seasons. The Panthers are one of just 20 programs in the country to accomplish the feat.

This past season, Georgia State won its second-straight Sun Belt regular season title and then added a tournament title before upsetting No. 3-seed Baylor in the NCAA tournament.

In 2013-14, the Panthers won 25 games, the second most in school history, a Sun Belt regular-season title and advanced to the Postseason NIT.

Pardue has overseen workouts with the guards and wings and helped develop three all-conference guards: Ryan Harrow, Devonta White and two-time Sun Belt Player of the Year R.J. Hunter.

In 2012-13, Pardue guided nine newcomers, including freshman Hunter who earned Kyle Macy Freshman All-America honors. As a sophomore and junior, Hunter earned AP All-America Honorable Mention recognition.

In his first season back with the Panthers (2011-12), Pardue helped GSU to 22 wins, the third most in school history, and an appearance in the CollegieInsider.com Postseason Tournament. GSU finished among the top 20 in the NCAA in scoring defense, defensive field-goal percentage, blocked shots and steals.

He oversees the successful Ron Hunter Basketball Camps each summer at Georgia State that have seen a significant increase in attendance since he took over.

While at UTEP, Pardue was responsible for planning, coordinating and executing all team travel. He acted as the liaison between the men's basketball team and the compliance department while managing student managers and recruiting operations. Pardue was also responsible for all team gear and the team's Fastbreak Luncheons.

Pardue was responsible for recruiting operations, including the planning and coordination of official visits and the recruiting database. He also assisted with all aspects of the team's video editing, including postgame film breakdown, opponent scouting and player development. Pardue also helped track student-athlete academic progress and was responsible for planning and directing team camps.

Pardue was the founder and head coach of Grand Strand's Finest AAU Basketball Program in Myrtle Beach, S.C. Working with players 17 and under, Pardue directed the squad to the semifinals of the South Carolina State Championships during summer 2006 and 2007.

He has also served as a counselor at several colleges' summer camps, including NC State, Davidson, Northwestern, Texas, South Carolina, Florida, Florida State, VCU and 5-Star.

A native of Myrtle Beach, S.C., Pardue attended Carolina Forest High School before spending his junior and senior years at The Lawrenceville School in Lawrenceville, N.J. Playing for coach Ron Kane, he helped Lawrenceville to the Prep-A state championship as well as the Mid-Atlantic Prep League regular season and tournament title.

He continued his playing career at Emory in Atlanta, Ga. A four-year letterman for coach Jason Zimmerman, Pardue served as team captain his senior year and was an academic all-conference honoree. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in Economics in 2008 and added a Master of Science in Sports Administration from Georgia State in 2010.

He also traveled to China as a member of the Athletes in Action squad in 2008 playing for Todd Howard.

Nate Summers
Director of Operations
IUPUI, 2009
5th Year at Georgia State

Nate Summers enters his fourth year as director of operations and fifth year at Georgia State, spending his first-year as a graduate assisant. He took over the operations position before the start of the 2012-13 season.

Summers, who previously worked with head coach Ron Hunter at IUPUI, worked closely with the team in all facets during his one year as a graduate assistant before assuming his current role.

The last two seasons have been among the most successful in program history. Summers has overseen a program win 25 games during both season, a feat accomplished by just 20 teams in the country.

After defending its Sun Belt regular season title this past season, Georgia State won the conference tournament title and advanced to the NCAA tournament, shocking No. 3-seed Baylor to advance to the third round for just the second time in school history.

The 2013-14 squad won 25 games, the second most in school history, a Sun Belt regular-season championship and earned a Postseason NIT bid.

In his first season as director of operations, Summers was in charge of all aspects of team travel, equipment and day-to-day operations of the program. He also helped oversee coach Hunter's efforts with Samaritan's Feet, collecting shoes for the millions of children throughout the world who cannot afford a pair.

In his first season at Georgia State, Summers assisted in team travel, player personnel, the program's recruiting database, team equipment and the day-to-day operations of a program that won 22 games, the third most in program history.

Summers graduated from IUPUI in 2009 with a degree in sports management. He was a three-year manager for Hunter while being in charge of filming games, player equipment and assisting in team travel.

He was part of an IUPUI team that went 26-7 during the 2007-08 year and featured George Hill, who was drafted into the NBA by the San Antonio Spurs and is currently a member of the Indiana Pacers.

After graduating from IUPUI, Summers spent the 2009-10 season as a varsity assistant at Monrovia High School. In his second year with the program, his continued his role as varsity assistant while serving as the freshman coach. The varsity squad went 14-9 and won the West Central Conference with a 6-1 record.

Joby Wright

Special Assistant to the Head Coach
Indiana, 1972
2nd Year at Georgia State

Joby Wright enters his second season at Georgia State as a special assistant to the head coach.

This past year, Wright assisted on one of the most successful seasons in program history as Georgia State won 25 games, second-most in school history, won both the Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the third round of the NCAA tournament following an upset win over No. 3-seed Baylor.

Wright's coaching career began in 1978 at Indiana under Bobby Knight where he spent nine seasons as an assistant coach. During those seasons he was a part of NCAA championship teams in 1981 and 1987, nine NCAA tournament appearances and four Big Ten titles.

In 1990, Wright was named the head coach at Miami (Ohio), leading the RedHawks to a 16-12 record in his first season. In his second year, Miami (Ohio) went 23-8, won the Mid-American Conference (MAC) championship with a 13-3 record and advanced to the NCAA tournament, falling in the first round to North Carolina, 68-63.

His third season was equally successful as Miami (Ohio) went 22-9 and earned a MAC co-championship with Wright being named MAC Coach of the Year. The RedHawks went to the Postseason NIT and earned wins over Ohio State and Old Dominion.

In 1993, Wright was named the head coach at Wyoming where he finished his head coaching career in 1997 with an overall record of 114-89.

Wright played collegiately at Indiana where he scored 1,272 points. In 1971-72 he was a team captain and earned All-Big Ten honors, averaging 19.9 points per game.

He was selected in the second round (18th overall) of the 1972 NBA Draft by the Seattle SuperSonics.

Game 1: Nov. 14, 2014, 7 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 115, TENNESSEE TEMPLE 55

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Ryan Harrow scored 25 points and R.J. Hunter finished with 24 to lead Georgia State to a 115-55 win over Tennessee Temple in the regular season opener on Friday night at the GSU Sports Arena. The 60-point margin of victory set a school-record as 11 Panthers scored.

The 115 points scored represent the fourth most scored in school history and the most since scoring 109 against UC Irvine in 1988. The previous largest margin of victory was 45 set against Piedmont on Dec. 30, 1986. The 61 points scored in the second half tied for the seventh-most in school history and the first time eclipsing the 60-point mark since 1998.

Georgia State made 40 field goals on a school-record 27 assists and won its 14th-straight home game dating back to last season. The Panthers are now 36-10 at home since Ron Hunter's arrival in 2011 and 4-0 in home openers.

The Panthers shot 40-of-64 from the field, 62.5 percent, the ninth-best mark in school history, while knocking down 13-of-21 (61.9 percent) from 3-point range which also ranks in the top 10 in school history.

Hunter finished the first half with 19 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including four 3-pointers, the final of which was at the buzzer. He finished the game with a career-high eight assists in just 28 minutes of action.

Harrow score 16 of his points in the first half and finished the game going 9-of-15 from the floor. He added six assists, playing just 25 minutes.

Junior T.J. Shipes added a career-high 10 points and tied a career-high with eight rebounds off the bench, going 5-of-7 from the floor. Shipes only took 16 shots as a junior, making 11.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware played his first significant regular season minutes since sustaining a leg injury in the 2013 NCAA regional final while at Louisville. He finished the game 12 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals in 28 minutes. Last season, he played in just nine games and 53 minutes off the bench for the Cardinals before taking a medical redshirt.

Tennessee Temple was led by Bryan Jones who scored 17 points.

NO. 14 IOWA STATE 81, GEORGIA STATE 58

Hilton Coliseum • Ames, Iowa

Despite 21 points from junior R.J. Hunter, Georgia State fell to No. 14 Iowa State on Monday night 81-58 at Hilton Coliseum in the Panthers first game of the CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

The Cyclones held the Panthers to just 39.1 percent shooting and 5-of-19 from 3-point range, forcing the Panthers into an uncharacteristic 15 turnovers.

After earlier in the day being named to the John R. Wooden Watch List as one of the top 50 players in the country, Hunter managed to hit just 8-of-20 from the floor and 4-of-11 from 3-point range with most of his shots being contested by one if not two Cyclone defenders.

Georgia State dropped to 1-1 on the young season, while Iowa State, whom many have predicted could reach the Final Four, improved to 2-0.

Senior Ryan Harrow added 12 points and five assists for the Panthers, while junior Markus Crider scored 10 points and pulled down eight rebounds.

All five Iowa State starters scored in double figures, led by Monte Morris who finished with 19 points, nine assists and five rebounds, knocking down 7-of-9 field goals.

Georges Niang, who was also named to the Wooden Watch List earlier in the day, added 10 points and 11 rebounds.

After trailing by as many as six early, Hunter knocked down this second 3-pointer of the game followed by a Crider dunk to give Georgia State a 21-20 lead with 7:42 to play in the opening half. Unfortunately, that was the Panthers only lead of the game.

Iowa State recaptured the lead and went into the half with a 35-29 lead. The six point difference was seen at the free throw line where the Cyclones were 7-of-11, while Georgia State was just 1-of-3. The Panthers finished the game just 3-of-5 from the line.

The Cyclones opened the second half with a 7-0 run to build a 42-29 lead with 18:00 to play.

A Hunter 3-pointer with 14:35 to play cut the lead to 49-40, but Iowa State responded with a 19-4 run to take a 68-44 lead with 8:17 to play and basically put the game out of reach.

Georgia State dropped to 3-7 against ranked opponents in the last 15 years and lost just its third road game over the last 15 contests dating back to last season.

Junior T.J. Shipes came off the bench to score six points and pull down seven rebounds before being poked in the eye before the half and being limited in the second half.

COLORADO STATE 80, GEORGIA STATE 70

Moby Arena • Fort Collins, Colo.

Despite a combined 45 points from Ryan Harrow and R.J. Hunter, a late Colorado State run led the Rams to an 80-70 victory over Georgia State at Moby Arena.

Leading 62-60 with 5:25 to play, the Rams used a 14-0 run following a technical foul on Harrow to take a 76-60 lead with 1:42 to play, holding the Panthers scoreless for more than three minutes.

Harrow led all scorers with 26 points, shooting 11-of-22 from the floor while dishing out five assists.

Hunter added 19 points, knocking down three of the Panthers eight 3-pointers, swiping five steals. The junior moved into 11th on Georgia State's all-time scoring list with 1,195 points and is now just 320 points from the school record of 1,515.

Georgia State fell to 1-2 with the loss while Colorado State improved to 2-0.

"I didn't necessarily agree with the technical foul, but it is what it is," head coach Ron Hunter said. "You have to play better when you are on the road and you have to stay composed. We were not able to do that tonight.

"We have to give Colorado State credit. They got down early but stayed composed and slowly worked their way back into the game and took advantage of the situation during the final five minutes."

The last five minutes of the game was the reverse of the first half where the Panthers had controlled the game.

After Colorado State hit a 3-pointer to open the game, Georgia State responded with a 7-0 run to take an early 7-3 lead.

Leading 10-9, the Panthers went on a 10-0 run that included a pair of Hunter 3-pointers to take a 20-9 lead with 10:46 to play and lead by as many as 12 with 7:58 to play in the opening period.

Georgia State led 34-29 at halftime as Hunter and Harrow combined for 27 points. The Panthers held the Rams to just 31 percent shooting the first half. Trailing 40-33, Colorado State responded with an 8-0 run to take a 41-40 lead with 15:54 to play.

It was one of seven second half lead changes. The game was also tied seven times during the second half.

Colorado State finished with five players in double figures, including Stanton Kidd's double-double of 16 points and 12 rebounds. Daniel Berjarano added 16 points, while J.J. Avila scored 13 points, dished out eight assists and pulled down six rebounds.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware added nine points for the Panthers while junior T.J. Shipes came off the bench to score six points and pull down six rebounds.

The Rams finished the game 21-of-27 from the free throw line, while the Panthers managed to go just 8-of-17.

GEORGIA STATE 69, CHICAGO STATE 46

Athletics Center O'rena • Rochester, Mich.
CBE Hall of Fame Classic

Led by 23 points from Ryan Harrow, Georgia State cruised to a 69-46 win over Chicago State at the Athletics Center O'rena to open the CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

Georgia State (2-2) forced 23 turnovers and held Chicago State (2-3) to just 29.2 percent shooting to snap a two-game losing streak.

Harrow finished 8-of-11 from the floor and 6-of-7 from the free throw line with three assists and a pair of rebounds.

After struggling from the free throw line in the first three games, the Panthers finished 24-of-32, shooting 75 percent. Georgia State swiped 13 steals and dished out 13 assists on 20 made field goals.

Senior Curtis Washington finished with 11 points, going 7-of-7 from the free throw line in 14 minutes. He added a pair of blocked shots to move into a tie for seventh with Sylvester Morgan with 84 for his career.

Junior R.J. Hunter added 13 points in 29 minutes as head coach Ron Hunter played all 12 players on the trip, with 10 playing double-figure minutes.

Georgia State allowed just 13 points in the first half which was the fewest the Panthers had allowed since giving up 13 to William & Mary on Dec. 4, 2011. Harrow outscored Chicago State in the first half 16-13. The senior was 6-of-8 from the floor with a 3-pointer in the opening half.

Georgia State forced 17 first half turnovers which led to 16 points as the Panthers went into the break with a 36-13 lead.

The Panthers built the lead to as many as 29 with 12:05 to play and led for all but 18 seconds of the game, never trailing in the win. Georgia State built that lead by holding Chicago State without a field goal for the first 8:12 of the second half. Freshman Jordan Session came off the bench to score a career-high seven points including thunderous dunk in the final minutes of the game. He added three rebounds and two blocked shots in just 11 minutes of action.

Anthony Glover came off the bench to lead Chicago State with 16 points on 6-of-11 shooting. Clarke Rosenburg added 14 points as he and Glover knocked down all five of the Cougars 3-pointers.

GEORGIA STATE 85, WESTERN CAROLINA 70

Athletics Center O'rena • Rochester, Mich.

CBE Hall of Fame Classic

Led by 27 points from R.J. Hunter, Georgia State earned an 85-70 win over Western Carolina at the Athletics Center O'rena in CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

Tied 64-64 with 6:19 to play, Georgia State finished the game on a 21-6 run to secure the victory, leading by as many as 16 with 1:43 to play.

Hunter moved ahead of Kevin Morris, Zavian Smith and Nate Williams into eighth-place on Georgia State's all-time scoring list and now has 1,235 points in two-plus seasons, just three points behind Leonard Mendez for seventh.

Junior Markus Crider just missed a double-double with a career-high 15 points and nine rebounds, while senior Ryan Harrow added 21 points and seven assists. Junior T.J. Shipes came off the bench to add eight points and tie a career-high with eight rebounds as the Panthers' big men combined for 27 points and 19 boards.

Georgia State (3-2) won for the second straight night by outrebounding the Catamounts, 36-27, pulling down 18 rebounds on the offensive glass.

Western Carolina dropped to 2-3 despite going 18-of-25 from the free throw line, making the first 10 attempted.

After Ware made the opening basket for Georgia State, Panther big men score the next 14 points as GSU took a 16-12 win seven minutes into the game.

Trailing 23-16 with 9:05 to play in the first half, Western Carolina responded with a 9-0 run to take a 25-23 lead before a Shipes' putback tied the game at 25-25. Georgia State held the Catamounts without a field goal for the final five minutes of the first half to go into the break with a 39-35 lead.

The second half was much of the same as the teams traded leads four times with another three ties.

Neither team led by more than four points for the first eight minutes of the second half.

Following a dunk by Crider put the Panthers ahead 58-52, the Catamounts responded with a 12-4 run to tie the game at 64 before the Panthers final run.

Rhett Harrelson led Western Carolina with 21 points, while Torrion Brummitt added 15 points and eight rebounds. James Sinclair (14 points) and Mike Brown (11 points) also scored in double figures for WCU.

Georgia State finished the game with nine steals and forced 13 turnovers which the Panthers turned into 22 points. GSU outscored Western Carolina 42-20 in the paint and finished with 22 second chance points.

GEORGIA STATE 83, OAKLAND 78

Athletics Center O'rena • Rochester, Mich.

CBE Hall of Fame Classic

R.J. Hunter scored 29 points and Georgia State shot 63 percent to earn an 83-78 victory over Oakland in the final game of the CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

Georgia State's shooting performance was tied for the eighth-best mark in school history. The Panthesr also shot 11-of-17 from 3-point range (64.7 percent), tied for the fourth-best mark in school history.

Hunter finished 9-of-14 from the floor and 6-of-9 from 3-point range, going a perfect 5-of-5 from the free throw line. He added five rebounds, three assists and three steals in the win.

Georgia State (4-2) won for the third straight time as junior Markus Crider added a career-high 17 points and pulled down six rebounds. It was the second straight night Crider scored a career high.

Senior Ryan Harrow recorded a double-double with 14 points and 11 assists, but it was Kevin Ware who came off the bench for the first time this season who might have had the most impressive performance.

Ware finished with 15 points on 5-of-7 shooting, knocking down 3-of-4 3-pointers and grabbing six rebounds. He added two steals, both of which game in the final four minutes to help the Panthers secure the victory.

Hunter opened the game by knocking down a quick pair of 3-pointers to give Georgia State an early 6-0 lead as the junior moved ahead of Leonard Mendez into seventh on the Panthers' all-time scoring list. His 3-pointer with 2:37 to play in the first half tied him with Phillip Luckydo for sixth before moving ahead of him early in the second half.

He is now just 15 points shy of moving into the Panthers top-5 in scoring. He finished the first half 7-of-9 from the floor and 5-of-6 from 3-point range.

Tied at 15-15 with 11:53 to play in the first half, Georgia State went on a 9-0 run to build a 24-15 lead with just under 10 minutes to play as Harrow scored five points during the run.

The Panthers, who never trailed in the game, led by as many as 11 with 2:05 to play in the opening half.

Georgia State built its lead to as many as 13 with 14:19 to play in the game as the Panthers shot 57.1 percent from the floor after the break.

The Panthers opened the game shooting an impressive 68 percent from the floor in the first half and were 6-of-8 from 3-point range.

Oakland (1-5) was led by Max Hooper's 21 points. Hooper hit seven 3-pointers as Oakland knocked down 13 from beyond the arc.

Kahlil Felder added 18 points for the Golden Grizzlies, while Corey Petros recorded a double-double of 14 points and 10 rebounds.

GEORGIA STATE 66, IUPUI 63

Fairgrounds Coliseum • Indianapolis, Ind.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored 27 points, including 21 in the second half as Georgia State overcame a six-point deficit late to secure a 66-63 win over IUPUI at Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The game marked the return of head coach Ron Hunter to IUPUI where he coached for 17 years before taking over at Georgia State in March 2011. It was also R.J.'s first game in Indianapolis where he starred for Pike High School.

Georgia State (5-2) trailed by as many as seven with less than 10 minutes to play and by one, 60-59, following a P.J. Boutte 3-pointer with 1:06 to play.

However, Hunter's lone 3-pointer gave the Panthers a two-point lead with 44 seconds to play and after a Markus Crider steal and pair of free throws by Ryann Green, Georgia State led by four with 17 seconds remaining.

IUPUI (2-4) returned to the other end of the court as Boutte made another 3-pointer to cut the deficit to one with 14 seconds remaining. Boutte finished with 12 points and eight assists.

Hunter was immediately fouled and made both free throws and a Leo Svete 3-point attempt fell short for the Panthers to secure the win.

Hunter finished 8-18 from the floor and 10-of-11 from the free throw line as the Panthers finished 18-of-24 from the charity line. He added three assists and three steals in the win. The junior moved ahead of James Andrews and into fifth on Georgia State's all-time scoring list and now has 1,291 points in two-plus seasons.

Senior Ryan Harrow added 21 points on 9-of-16 shooting. Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware came off the bench to score six points, grab six rebounds and swipe four of the Panthers 13 steals.

IUPUI took an early 10-3 lead five minutes into the game as Georgia State picked up six fouls before the first media timeout. However, the Panthers responded with a 10-1 run to take a 13-11 lead with 11:49 to play in the first half and went into the break leading 27-26.

Georgia State held IUPUI to just 21.7 percent shooting in the first half, but the Jaguars made up the difference by making 15-of-17 free throws as the Panthers picked up 12 fouls in the opening 20 minutes.

The Panthers committed just six fouls in the second half and IUPUI never made it to the free throw line again.

Marcellus Barksdale led IUPUI with 22 points on 8-of-9 shooting, including 4-of-4 from 3-point range. DavRon Williams came off the bench to added 10 points and eight rebounds for the Jaguars.

GEORGIA STATE 72, GREEN BAY 48

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by hot first half shooting and 26 points from R.J. Hunter, Georgia State cruised to a 72-48 win over Green Bay in a match-up of two of the top mid-major teams on Thursday night at the GSU Sports Arena.

Hunter finished the game with four 3-pointers and is now just one shy of becoming just the second Panther to make 200 in a career. After being named Sun Belt Player of the Week on Monday, he added five rebounds and made 10-of-12 from the free throw line. He also became just the fifth Panther in program history to score at least 1,300 points and now has 1,317 for his career.

Junior T.J. Shipes made his second career start and finished with a double-double of 11 points and 11 rebounds, to go along with a pair of blocked shots. He made 5-of-6 from the floor.

Georgia State shot 62 percent in the first half and finished the game shooting 53.1 percent from the floor. The Panthers came into the night shooting 50.6 percent for the season, ranked No. 19 in the NCAA.

Georgia State (6-2) won for the fifth-straight time and for the 15th-straight time at home dating back to the start of last season. The streak is tied for the 11th longest in the country.

Green Bay (5-2) entered the night ranked No. 1 in the country in the first NCAA RPI which had come out on Wednesday.

The game featured a match-up of a pair of Naismith Trophy Top 50 watch list members in Hunter and Green Bay's Keifer Sykes. The Panthers held Sykes to 16 points, the only member of the Phoenix to score in double figures.

Georgia State used hot shooting early to take a 16-6 lead just six and half minutes into the game, causing Green Bay to call its first time out. The Panthers made 7-of-10 from the floor during that time.

The Panthers led 31-18 before going on an 11-0 run to take a 42-18 into the half, their biggest lead of the first 20 minutes.

Georgia State held the Phoenix to just 27.6 percent shooting in the first half.

OLD DOMINION 58, GEORGIA STATE 54 OT

Ted Constant Center • Norfolk, Va.

Old Dominion overcame an eight-point deficit with under six minutes to play, holding Georgia State scoreless to send the game into overtime before earning a 58-54 win over the Panthers.

Old Dominion had a chance to win it in regulation, but Denzell Taylor missed a pair of free throws with 0.4 seconds to play and despite Georgia State taking a 54-52 lead with 2:14 to play in extra time, the Monarchs finished the game on a 6-0 run to earn the win.

Georgia State (6-3) saw its five-game winning streak snapped, while Old Dominion, which is receiving votes in both the AP and ESPN/Coaches Top 25 polls improved to 8-1.

Junior R.J. Hunter finished with a double-double of 13 points and 10 rebounds, but managed to go just 1-of-8 from 3-point range as the Panthers were held to 13.3 percent shooting from beyond the arc.

Hunter had a 3-point attempt with four seconds remaining bounce off the rim before ODU added one final lay-up at the end of the game.

After trailing 42-39 with 11:45 to play, Georgia State responded with an 11-0 run holding Old Dominion scoreless for more than eight minutes to build a 50-42 lead with 5:55 to play on a free throw by Ryan Harrow.

Harrow finished the game with 16 points and six assists, but the Panthers were held scoreless until 2:57 to play in overtime, a stretch of nearly nine minutes.

Old Dominion was led by Trey Freeman who scored 21 points, including 19 in the second half and overtime. Aaron Bacote added 14 points and seven rebounds, while Richard Ross pulled down 11 rebounds.

The Monarchs outrebounded the Panthers 53-35, including 20-10 on the offensive glass.

Senior Curtis Washington came off the bench to score five points and grab six rebounds for the Panthers. Junior Markus Crider added 11 points and six rebounds.

Georgia State took an early 20-9 lead with 8:30 to play in the first half as the Panthers made nine of their first 12 shots. Over the same span, the Panther defense held the Monarchs to just 4-of-17 shooting from the floor.

Old Dominion responded with a 7-0 run to cut Georgia State's lead to 22-19 before a dunk and free throw by Washington with 3:27 to play in the first half built the Panthers lead back to six.

The Panthers led 27-23 at the half despite not making a field goal the final 3:27 of the opening period.

Old Dominion took its first lead of the game, 37-35, on a Jonathan Arledge jumper with 15:10 to play in the game.

GEORGIA STATE 68, SOUTHERN MISS 55

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Senior Ryan Harrow scored a season-high 27 points to lead Georgia State to a 68-55 win over Southern Miss on Sunday afternoon at the GSU Sports Arena.

Harrow knocked down a career-high five 3-pointers, including four in the first nine minutes of the game. He finished 11-of-21 from the floor and 5-of-8 from 3-point range, dishing out three assists and swiping three of the Panthers 12 steals. Georgia State (7-3) won its 16th-straight home game which is now tied for the ninth-longest streak in the country with North Dakota State. Southern Miss lost its second straight game to fall to 5-5.

The Panthers have now won 29 of their last 35 games dating back to last season.

Junior R.J. Hunter battled flu-like symptoms before the game and missed the start of the second half getting extra fluids. He finished with 13 points, seven assists and five rebounds in 31 minutes of action.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware chipped in with eight points and three steals, while senior Ryan Green added four points and set a career-high with six rebounds in the win.

Southern Miss took an early 15-14 lead before Georgia State scored eight-straight points to take a 22-15 lead with under 10 minutes to play in the first half.

Harrow keyed the Panthers' offense scoring 14 of Georgia State's first 22 points of the game during that stretch and finished the first half with 19.

The Panthers pushed the run to 20-3 to take 34-18 lead with just under four minutes remaining in the half. It was GSU's biggest lead in the first 20 minutes. Georgia State went into the locker room with 38-29 lead as Southern Miss closed strong with an 11-4 run.

Southern Miss got as close as five, 38-33, early in the second half before a Harrow lay-up with 15:40 to play pushed the lead back to seven.

The Panthers ran off six-straight points to push the lead to 44-33 with under 14 minutes to play. After a Southern Miss basket, Georgia State went on another 10-0 run to push the lead to 54-35 with 9:26 to play.

Georgia State led by as many as 21, 61-40 with 2:16 to play.

Southern Miss was led by Chip Armelin who scored 16 points, while Rasham Suarez added 12. Matt Bingaya, the Golden Eagles leading scorer was held to 10 points and six rebounds.

Senior Curtis Washington came off the bench to tie for the team lead with six boards.

Georgia State, which had been struggling from the free throw line, finished the game 12-of-13, including 10-of-11 in the second half.

GREEN BAY 78, GEORGIA STATE 61

Resch Center • Green Bay, Wis.

Leading 62-60 with 4:32 to play, Green Bay finished the game on a 16-1 run to earn a 78-61 win over Georgia State on Saturday afternoon at the Resch Center. Junior R.J. Hunter led the Panthers with 19 points on 7-of-18 shooting, but went just 1-of-8 from 3-point range. He added three assists in 38 minutes.

Senior Ryan Harrow added 14 points, all in the first half, finishing the game with six rebounds, three assists and two steals.

Harrow and Hunter, the No. 2 scoring duo in the country, averaging 41.4 points, were held to 33 points on 14-of-37 shooting.

Georgia State finished non-conference play 7-4 and will open defense of its Sun Belt Conference championship on Tuesday hosting UL Monroe in the Sports Arena at approx. 7 p.m. It was just Georgia State's seventh loss in the last 36 games dating back to last season.

Green Bay (10-3) earned revenge over the Panthers for a Dec. 4, 72-48 loss to Georgia State in Atlanta. Carrington Love led all scorers with 28 points. Both teams entered the game ranked in the top 12 in CollegeInsider.com's Mid-Major Top 25 and top 40 in the NCAA RPI.

"When you come on the road, you know that you have to play to a certain level and unfortunately we did not do that today," head coach Ron Hunter said. "We played okay in spurts, but you have to do better than that over the course of 40 minutes. That has been our struggle in our four losses on the road this year."

Green Bay took an early 18-14 lead with 11:33 to play in the first half before Georgia State responded with a 15-0 run over six and half minutes to lead 29-18 with 4:51 to play in the opening half.

The Phoenix responded with a 17-6 run to tie the game at 35-35 before a Hunter jumper before the half sent the Panthers into the locker room with a 37-35 lead.

Georgia State shot 57.1 percent from the floor in the first 20 minutes, but were held to just 32.1 percent in the second half and 15.4 percent from 3-point range for the game.

With the score tied 42-42 early in the second half, Green Bay went on a 7-0 run to take a 49-42 lead with 12:59 to play.

Georgia State responded and tied the game 51-51 before taking a 58-57 lead with 5:59 to play. It was the Panthers last lead of the game. The two teams combined for nine lead changes and seven ties.

Junior T.J. Shipes added seven points and six rebounds for the Panthers, while junior Markus Crider scored six and pulled down six boards.

Naismith Top 50 Award Watch List member Keifer Sykes was held to 13 points on 3-of-10 shooting for Green Bay. Jordan Fouse added 14 points and seven assists for the home team.

GEORGIA STATE 65, UL MONROE 45

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Junior Markus Crider recorded his first career double-double and Georgia State used a late second half run to score a 65-45 victory over UL Monroe in the Sun Belt opener for both schools.

Crider, who barely missed a pair of double-doubles earlier in the year, finished with 13 points and tied a career-high with 10 rebounds. After missing his first three shots of the game, he made his last five and went 3-of-4 from the free throw line.

With the score tied at 36-36 with 13:27 to play, Georgia State (8-4, 1-0 Sun Belt) responded with a 16-0 run to take a 52-36 lead with 6:35 to play and never looked back.

R.J. Hunter and Ryan Harrow, the No. 3 scoring duo in the country, were held to just 25 points, but 57.7 percent shooting by the Panthers in the second half allowed GSU to overcome a six-point second half deficit and earn the win.

Hunter finished with 18 points and moved ahead of Chavelo Holmes and into fourth on Georgia State's all-time scoring list. He now has 1,380 career points and is just 13 shy of Devonta White for third.

Harrow who scored seven points and was held in single digits for the first time this year dished out eight of the Panthers' 18 assists.

Georgia State has now won 18 of its first 19 games in the Sun Belt since returning to the league and 30 of 37 games overall dating back to last season. The Panthers have also won 17-straight home games, just eight shy of the school record of 25 set between 2000 and 2002.

UL Monroe took an early 15-7 with a little more than eight minutes to go in the first half as Georgia State missed 14 of its first 17 shots. Georgia State's defensive kept them in the game, as the Warhawks shot just 25 percent over that same stretch.

Georgia State responded with three 3-pointers, including two from Hunter, one from Jalen Brown and a reverse lay-up from Harrow to go on a 11-0 run and take a 20-17 lead with 4:53 to play in the first half.

Despite shooting 32 percent in the first half and 3-of-11 from 3-point range, the Panthers went into the locker room trailing just 26-23.

Following a 3-pointer by ULM's Nick Coppola gave the Warhawks a 29-23 lead early in the second half, the Panthers responded took a 36-35 lead with 14:25 to play as Crider scored eight-straight Panther points.

UL Monroe (6-6, 0-1 Sun Belt) was had no players score in double figures as Jamaal Samuel led the Warhawks with nine points and five rebounds.

Preseason all-conference honoree Tylor Ongwae was held both scoreless and without a rebound. Last season, Ongwae scored a career-high 27 points and grabbed 10 rebounds against the Panthers in Monroe, La.

Senior captain Ryann Green added a career-high seven points and pulled down five rebounds in a career-high 21 minutes for Georgia State.

GEORGIA STATE 82, UALR 69

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Senior Ryan Harrow led the Panthers with 22 points and redshirt-junior Kevin Ware scored a career-high 21 points on his 22nd birthday to lead Georgia State to an 82-69 win over UALR on Saturday afternoon at the GSU Sports Arena.

For the second straight game, Georgia State used a late run to secure the win. Leading 61-55 with six minutes to play, Georgia State went on a 15-0 run to take a 76-55 lead with under two minutes to play and never looked back.

Harrow finished 8-of-13 from the floor and knocked down three 3-pointers, dishing out a pair of assists.

Ware shot 8-of-14 from the floor, knocking down 4-of-4 from the free throw line and adding six rebounds and five assists. The Panthers finished the game 22-of-30 from the charity stripe. Ware came off the bench just a minute into the game when senior Ryann Green took an accidental elbow to the mouth and had a tooth displaced.

Georgia State (9-4, 2-0 Sun Belt) extended its home court winning streak to 18 games and have now won 31 of its last 38 games dating back to last season. The 9-4 start is tied for the third-best 13-game start in program history.

The Panthers have also won 19 of their first 20 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt last season.

UALR (5-7, 0-2 Sun Belt) lost its second-straight Sun Belt game, having opened league play facing the two teams predicted to finish 1-2 in conference play.

Junior R.J. Hunter, who was held to just a 3-pointer in the first half, finished with 14 and moved ahead of Devonta White into third-place on Georgia State's all-time scoring list with 1,394 points. He finished 9-of-10 from the free throw line and grabbed three boards.

UALR took an early 17-12 lead, its biggest of the game, with 12:45 to play as the two teams shared six ties and four lead changes in the first 20 minutes.

Tied at 27-27, Georgia State used a 7-0 run capped by a 3-pointer by Harrow to build its biggest lead of the first half, seven points, with 3:13 to play. The Panthers went into the half leading 37-32 after shooting 58.3 percent from the floor and 57.1 percent from 3-point range.

Harrow finished with 15 points in the opening 20 minutes, while Ware added 10.

Leading 54-51 with 9:14 to play, UALR's Josh Hagins picked up a technical foul on a Harrow lay-up. R.J. Hunter made the two technical free throws, followed by two makes by Harrow to extend the lead to seven. On the next possession, Hunter made one more free throw to push the lead to 59-51 with 8:02 remaining.

Juniors T.J. Shipes and Markus Crider each scored seven points and added three steals. The Panthers finished with 13 steals and forced 17 UALR turnovers.

TEXAS STATE 77, GEORGIA STATE 74 2OT

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite 29 points from senior Ryan Harrow, Georgia State fell to Texas State 77-74 in double overtime on Monday night at the GSU Sports Arena. The loss snapped the Panthers 18-game home-court winning streak which was tied for the ninth-best mark in the nation entering the night.

The game featured 18 ties, 20 lead changes and a buzzer-beater 3-pointer by Texas State's Emani Gant at the end of the first overtime to send it to the second. It was Gant's first career 3-pointer as he finished with 17 points.

Georgia State (9-5, 2-1 Sun Belt) dropped just its eighth game over the course of the last 39 games dating back to last season. It was only the Panthers second loss in conference play since rejoining the Sun Belt and dropped the Panthers to 5-5 all-time in double-overtime games.

Texas State (8-4, 2-1 Sun Belt) came into the night allowing just 53.6 points per game, tops in the Sun Belt and fifth in the nation and held the Panthers to just 19 first half points and 57 in regulation.

Harrow finished 11-of-22 from the floor and with the Panthers trailing by two with 16.2 seconds to play in regulation, took the ball the length of the court for a lay-up to tie the game 57-57 with six seconds remaining.

Despite shooting 45.5 percent from the floor, the Panthers finished the game just 2-of-16 from 3-point range, including 1-of-6 in overtime.

Junior R.J. Hunter was held scoreless in the first half and finished with 10 points and five rebounds, but was held to 0-of-10 from 3-point range. It marked the first time this season the Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year was held without a 3-pointer. He did became just the third player in program history to score at least 1,400 points.

Junior Markus Crider just missed his second double-double of the season with nine points and 10 rebounds. Kevin Ware came off the bench with his second-straight double-figure scoring effort, finishing with 14 points and a career-high five steals.

Trailing 34-30 with just under 10 minutes to play in the game, Georgia State responded with a 7-2 run to take a 38-36 lead on a layup by Ware with 7:57 to play.

Texas State regained the lead, 43-42, before Georgia State responded with a 7-0 run that included a 3-pointer from Harrow and jumper in the lane by Hunter to give the Panthers a 49-43 with 4:05 to play.

The Bobcats responded scoring the next five points to cut the deficit to one with 3:22 remaining and on back-to-back 3-pointers in the final minute of regulation led 57-55 before Harrow's lay-up sent it to overtime.

UL LAFAYETTE 84, GEORGIA STATE 80

Cajun Dome • Lafayette, La.

Ryan Harrow and R.J. Hunter combined for 52 points, but UL Lafayette overcame an early 17-point first-half deficit to defeat Georgia State 84-80 on Thursday night at the Cajun Dome.

Hunter finished with a team-high 27 points on 8-of-17 shooting, knocking down five 3-pointers, while Harrow added 25, including 16 in the second half.

Georgia State (9-6, 2-2 Sun Belt) opened a commanding 31-14 lead with 6:10 to play in the first half and still led 37-21 with 4:06 to play before ULL responded with a 10-0 run to cut the lead to 37-31 with 2:22 to play and finish the first half on a 19-4 run to trail by just one at the break.

UL Lafayette (10-6, 4-0 Sun Belt) saw all five starters score in double figures, but it was at the free throw line that the game was decided.

The Ragin' Cajuns finished the game 31-of-38 from the free throw line, while Georgia State managed to go just 10-of-17. The Panthers made seven more field goals than ULL in the opening half, but the Ragin' Cajuns made up the difference by making 13 more free throws.

Brian Williams led ULL with 20 points, while preseason all-conference first-team member Shawn Long finished with a double-double of 16 points and 13 rebounds.

Georgia State opened the game on a 9-0 run before UL Lafayette scored its first basket after nearly four minutes.

Hunter knocked down his first three 3-point attempts and five of his first seven shots as Georgia State built its lead to 29-12 with 7:41 to play in the opening half. ULL continued its run to open the second half, building a 50-44 lead with 16:46 to play before Georgia State responded with a 9-0 run to take a 53-50 lead with 14:41 remaining.

Georgia State pushed the lead to 59-54 with 11:42 to play as Harrow scored 12 points in a little more than eight minutes to start the half.

ULL held Georgia State scoreless for nearly three minutes to build a 73-68 lead with 5:30 remaining, before Hunter knocked down another 3-pointer to cut the deficit to two. Harrow followed with a fast break lay-up to tie the game 73-73 with just over four minutes remaining.

The Panthers took their final lead of the game, 77-76, with 1:21 to play following a jumper by Hunter.

ULL made its final eight free throws during the final 52 seconds of the game to secure the victory.

Junior T.J. Shipes finished with 10 points for the Panthers, while Kevin Ware recorded six points, four rebounds and three assists.

Devonta Walker added 15 points and six rebounds for UL Lafayette, while Jay Wright added 13 and Kasey Shepherd chipped in with 10.

GEORGIA STATE 77, TROY 72

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored a season-high 37 points, including 23 in the second half to lead Georgia State to a 77-72 win over Troy on Saturday afternoon at the GSU Sports Arena. Hunter made six free throws in the final 26 seconds to secure the victory.

The junior from Indianapolis finished the game 9-of-20 from the floor, including four 3-pointers and an impressive 15-of-17 from the free throw line, both career-highs, while dishing out five assists. He is now just 11 points shy of Terrence Brandon's 1,479 points for second on Georgia State's all-time scoring list.

Hunter was nearly matched by Troy's Musa Abdul-Aleem who finished with 33 points and made seven of Troy's 13 3-pointers. Abdul-Aleem finishing 9-of-16 from the floor and a perfect 8-of-8 from the free throw line.

Georgia State (10-6, 3-2 Sun Belt) won for the 19th time in his last 20 home games and played without the services of senior Ryan Harrow who was nursing a toe injury. It was the first game Harrow has missed in a Georgia State uniform. The Panthers are off to their third-best start in program history and have now won 32 of their last 41 games dating back to last season.

Troy (6-7, 1-3 Sun Belt) lost despite shooting 48.1 percent from 3-point range and missing just one of 14 free throw attempts.

Sophomore Isaiah Dennis stepped up in Harrow's absence scoring a career-high nine points in 18 minutes. Entering play, Dennis has scored just 12 points in his career, including nine this season.

Trailing 12-11 early in the game, junior Kevin Ware knocked down 3-pointers on back-to-back possessions to give the Panthers a 17-12 lead with 13:09 to play in the first half. After a Troy 3-pointer by Wesley Person, Hunter knocked down his second 3-pointer of the game to push the Panthers lead back to five.

Ware finished with 13 points and four assists for the Panthers.

Georgia State made eight-straight field goals and hit nine of its first 10 shots, finishing the first half shooting 60 percent from the floor and 5-of-10 from 3-point range.

Troy used a 9-0 run to take 24-22 with 6:29 to play in the first half, before Georgia State responded with a dunk by Curtis Washington and another 3-pointer by Hunter to retake the lead, 27-24.

The Trojans finished the half knocking down six 3-pointers to lead Georgia State 34-32 at the break.

Trailing 44-39 early in the second half, Hunter knocked down a jumper and subsequent free throw, followed by a 3-pointer from Jalen Brown to take a 45-44 lead with just over 12 minutes to play.

The two teams combined for 20 lead changes and 10 ties, with 13 of those lead changes coming in the season half.

A Dennis lay-up with 1:32 to play gave GSU a 71-68 lead, the Panthers biggest lead of the second half to that point and one the team would not relinquish.

GEORGIA STATE 83, UT ARLINGTON 62

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by 27 points from senior Ryan Harrow, Georgia State scored an impressive 83-62 over UT Arlington at the GSU Sports Arena as head coach Ron Hunter coached barefoot to raise awareness for Samaritan's Feet in the annual 'Barefoot for Bare Feet' Game.

Harrow finished 10-of-17 from the floor with four 3-pointers in his return to the court after missing a game due to an injury.

The Panthers forced a season-high 26 turnovers which led to 35 points. In contrast, Georgia State turned it over only eight times, which led to just two UT Arlington points.

Georgia State (11-6, 4-2 Sun Belt) won for the second-straight game and have now won 33 of their last 42 games dating back to last season.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware added 11 points, scoring in double figures for the fourth time in the last five games, while junior Markus Crider added 10 points and six rebounds.

UT Arlington (9-7, 3-3 Sun Belt) was held to 40.4 percent shooting, including just 7-of-22 from 3-point range.

Hunter improved to 4-0 at Georgia State when coaching without shoes or socks to help Samaritan's Feet, an organization that's goal is to help the 300 million children around the world that wake up each day without shoes.

Trailing 6-2 early, Georgia State held the Mavericks scoreless for five minutes and went on a 13-0 run to take an 15-6 lead with 13:19 to play and never trail again the rest of the game.

UT Arlington used a late 7-0 run to cut Georgia State's lead to 31-30 with under a minute to play before a 3-pointer and fast break lay-up by Harrow put the Panthers back up 36-30 with under 30 seconds remaining.

Georgia State led by as many as nine in the first half, shooting 45 percent from the floor, while holding UT Arlington to just 39 percent shooting. The Panthers scored 15 points off 10 Maverick turnovers in the first 20 minutes.

The Panthers built their first double-digit lead, 51-40, with just under 14 minutes to go in the second half, making five-straight field goals. Georgia State continued to push and led by as many as 21 with 7:08 to play.

Greg Gainey came off the bench to lead the Mavericks with 11 points and four rebounds. Lonnie McClanahan just missed a double-double with nine points and 10 rebounds, while Kevin Hervey added nine points and seven boards.

APPALACHIAN STATE 74, GEORGIA STATE 69

Holmes Convocation Center • Boone, N.C.

Appalachian State overcame a double-digit second-half deficit to earn a 74-69 win over Georgia State on Saturday afternoon at the Holmes Convocation Center. Senior Ryan Harrow led the Panthers with 21 points, but Georgia State hit just 14-of-23 from the free throw line which proved too much to overcome.

Appalachian State (5-10, 2-4 Sun Belt) snapped a four-game losing streak as Frank Eaves scored 27 points, knocking down 8-of-14 from 3-point range.

Georgia State (11-7, 4-3 Sun Belt) saw its two-game winning streak come to an end. Junior Markus Crider recorded his second double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Georgia State led by one, 69-68, with 49 seconds to play, but never scored again as the Mountaineers went 4-of-4 from the free throw line in the final four seconds.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored the first seven points of the game for Georgia State and with his second field goal moved head of Terrence Brandon into second-place in GSU's all-time scoring list. He will enter Monday night's game just 23 points shy of Rodney Hamilton's school-record 1,515.

Tied 17-17 halfway through the first half, the Panthers responded with a 12-2 run to take a 29-19 lead with 5:31 to play. Harrow scored six points during the stretch and finished the first half with 15.

Georgia State shot 78.3 percent in the first half to take a 40-30 lead into the locker room. The Panthers finished with 26 points in the paint, but Appalachian State staying in the game with nine second chance points off seven offensive rebounds.

The Mountaineers opened the second half on an 8-0 run to cut the deficit to just two before Georgia State responded and pushed the lead back up to as many as 11 with just under 11 minutes to play.

Eaves 3-pointer with 6:15 to play tied the game 62-62, the first time Appalachian State did not trail since under 10 minutes to go in the first half. After a lay-up by Ryann Green gave the Panthers a one point lead, Eaves responded with another 3-pointer to give Appalachian State its first lead of the second half.

Following a free throw by Green with 4:48 to play, the Panthers went three and half minutes without scoring before a pair of free throws by Harrow gave Georgia State its last lead, 69-68, with 49 seconds remaining.

Green finished with seven points, tying a career-high for the second game in a row.

Georgia State shot 57.8 percent for the game and held Appalachian State to just 36.7 percent shooting, but the Panthers gave up 17 offensive rebounds that led to 15 second chance points. The Mountaineers finished 12-of-29 from 3-point range and made 18-of-24 free throws.

Tommy Spagnolo added 22 points and six rebounds for the Mountaineers, while Chris Burgess chipped in with 14 points and five assists.

GEORGIA STATE 60, ARKANSAS STATE 54

Convocation Center • Jonesboro, Ark.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored 14 of the Panthers' final 15 points to lead Georgia State to a 60-54 win over Arkansas State on Monday night at the Convocation Center. With his final free throw make, Hunter tied Rodney Hamilton's all-time Georgia State scoring mark of 1,515 points.

Hunter finished with 23 points, going a perfect 12-of-12 from the free throw line, including six in the final 47 seconds to secure the win. He added eight rebounds in his 82nd career start which is tied for the sixth-most in program history.

Georgia State (12-7, 5-3 Sun Belt) shot just 35.8 percent from the floor as the Panthers were playing their third game in five days. However, the road team made up for it by turning the ball over just nine times and outrebounding the Red Wolves 41-32, including 13-10 on the offensive glass.

Arkansas State (8-9, 3-5 Sun Belt) got a double-double from Anthony Livingston who scored 20 points and pulled down 13 rebounds, but shot just 28.6 percent from the floor.

Playing without the services of senior Ryan Harrow who was suspended for the game due to an accumulation of technical fouls, redshirt-junior Kevin Ware stepped up with 10 first half points and junior Markus Crider just missed a double-double with seven points and 10 rebounds.

Georgia State opened the game scoring the first seven points as Ware made a 3-pointer and jumper. After Arkansas State tied the game at 7-7, Georgia State continued to push the first half tempo, building a 22-14 lead with 7:32 to play.

Following a free throw by Ware with 3:45 to play gave Georgia State a 29-19 lead, its biggest of the half, the Red Wolves held the Panthers scoreless the remainder of the half and went on an 8-0 run to trail by just two, 29-27 going into the locker room.

Arkansas State took its first lead of the game, 34-33, with 14:30 to play, before Georgia State responded with an 8-0 run to build a 41-34 lead with 11:07 to play. The Panthers held Arkansas State without a field goal for more than nine minutes to build a 47-41 lead with 5:28 to play following a jumper by Hunter. Arkansas State was held to just free throws during that time.

As time started to run down, Hunter scored eight straight Panther points, including a floater in the lane which gave Georgia State a 53-50 lead with 2:21 to play. He added two more free throws with 47 seconds to play to put the Panthers ahead 55-52.

Senior Ryann Green scored a career-high seven points for the third game in a row, playing a career-high 32 minutes on Monday night.

Isaiah Dennis added seven points in just 14 minutes as the Panthers finished 19-of-25 from the free throw line.

Sean Gardner added 19 points for Arkansas State, while Cameron Golden chipped in with 10.

GEORGIA STATE 75, UL LAFAYETTE 64

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State's R.J. Hunter set the school's all-time scoring record and the Panthers defeated UL Lafayette 75-64 at the GSU Sports Arena. Senior Ryan Harrow finished with 19 to lead the Panthers who moved within a half-game of first-place.

Hunter entered the game tied with Rodney Hamilton (1994-98) with 1,515 career points, but his jumper with 9:44 to play in the opening half gave him the record. Hunter broke the record in just 84 games and finished with the afternoon with 13 points, seven rebounds and seven assists.

Georgia State (13-7, 6-3 Sun Belt) won for the 35th time in the last 45 games dating back to last year and are 23-4 in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The Panthers have won 21 of their last 22 games at home.

UL Lafayette (11-9, 5-4 Sun Belt) got a double-double of 21 points and 16 rebounds from senior Shawn Long, but shot just 33.9 percent from the game and were held to 5-of-19 shooting from 3-point range.

Harrow finished 8-of-17 from the floor and added five rebounds for the Panthers, while Kevin Ware and Markus Crider each scored in double figures, adding 11 and 10 points respectively.

Leading 13-10 with 11:03 to play in the first half, Georgia State went on a 9-0 run capped by a fast break lay-up by Harrow to build a 22-10 lead with 6:34 to play. Hunter's record-breaking jumper came as part of the run.

Georgia State pushed the lead to as many as 14 and went into the break leading 32-18 as UL Lafayette never got closer than nine. The Panthers held the Ragin' Cajuns to just 25 percent shooting in the half and forced 13 turnovers which led to 10 points.

Harrow's 3-pointer with 18:35 to play in the first half gave the Panthers a 3-pointer in 600-straight games dating back to Feb. 18, 1995.

The Panthers pushed the lead to as many as 22 in the second half with 15:45 to play, before the Ragin' Cajuns made one last run, cutting Georgia State's lead to nine with 2:13 to play.

Jay Wright added 14 points to ULL, while Brian Williams finished with nine points and five rebounds.

Georgia State finished the game shooting 51.9 percent and made 17-of-23 free throws. Hunter finished 7-of-8 from the line and with his fourth make, became the all-time leading free throw shooter in GSU history. He entered the day second in school history in free throw percentage, only behind Hamilton.

Curtis Washington added a blocked shot in the second half to give him 100 for his career, just the seventh Panther in program history to accomplish the feat.

GEORGIA STATE 88, UT ARLINGTON 74

College Park Center • Arlington, Texas

Georgia State overcame an 11-point second-half deficit as R.J. Hunter scored 32 points and Ryan Harrow added 25 to lead the Panthers an 88-74 win over UT Arlington on Thursday night at the College Park Center.

Trailing 62-51 with a little more than 11 minutes to play, Georgia State responded with a 29-4 run to take an 80-69 lead with 3:02 to play and never look back.

Hunter got hot in the second half, knocking down six of his seven 3-pointers and finished 9-of-16 from the floor, 7-of-11 from 3-point range and 7-of-7 from the free throw line. He added five rebounds, five assists, three blocked shots and a pair of steals.

Harrow was equally impressive going 9-of-19 from the floor and 6-of-6 from the free throw line, dishing out four assists and swiping four of the Panthers eight steals. He is now just five points shy of becoming just the fifth Panther to score 1,000 points in a GSU uniform.

Georgia State (14-7, 7-3 Sun Belt) won its third-straight game to remaining a half-game out of first-place in the league. The Panthers are 36-10 in the last 46 games dating back to last season and have also won 24 of their first 28 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The squad is off to the fourth-best start in school history.

The Panthers finished 25-of-27 from the free throw line, the 11th-best mark in program history, and shot 50.9 percent for the game, including 16-of-29 in the second half.

UT Arlington (12-8, 6-4 Sun Belt) saw its three-game win streak come to an end and was swept in the season series by the Panthers for the second year in a row. Kevin Hervey led the Mavericks with 21 points and eight rebounds.

As the two teams were tied five times in the first half with neither squad leading by more than six, UT Arlington led 30-24 with 5:43 to play benefiting from 51.7 percent first half shooting.

The Panthers responded with a 10-4 run, capped by a jumper in the lane and free throw by Hunter to tie the score 34-34. The Mavericks went into the half leading 38-34.

The Mavericks took their biggest lead of the game, 62-51, with 11:10 to play before Georgia State's run and took its first lead of the second half on a pair of free throws by Ryann Green to go ahead 69-67 with 5:57 to play.

Lonnie McClanahan scored 14 points for the Mavericks and Jorge Bilbao added 11 points and five rebounds.

GEORGIA STATE 74, ARKANSAS STATE 43

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Senior Ryan Harrow scored his 1,000th point in a Georgia State uniform and finished with a team-high 21 to lead the Panthers to a 74-43 win over Arkansas State at the GSU Sports Arena. Junior Markus Crider picked up his third double-double of the season as four Panthers finished in double figures.

Harrow became the 19th Panther to reach the 1,000-point plateau and did so in just 54 games, the second quickest in program history. He also became just the fifth Panther to accomplish the feat in two seasons.

Georgia State (15-7, 8-3 Sun Belt) won its fourth-straight game and for the sixth time in its last seven games. The Panthers are 37-10 in the last 47 games dating back to last season and have also won 25 of their first 29 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The squad is off to the third-best start in school history.

Arkansas State (9-12, 4-8 Sun Belt) were held to just 20.4 percent shooting, going 10-of-49 from the floor. It marked the Red Wolves fifth-straight loss to the Panthers over the last two seasons.

Crider finished with 14 points, a career-high 11 rebounds and dished out five assists. It was his third double-double in conference play as he went 7-of-8 from the floor. Crider entered playing leading the Sun Belt in field goal percentage.

Senior Curtis Washington came off the bench to score 12 points and pulled down five rebounds, going 6-of-6 from the free throw. Junior R.J. Hunter added 11 points, also going 6-of-6 from the line.

Georgia State held the Red Wolves scoreless the first seven minutes of the game to build a 10-0 lead before a 3-pointer by Cameron Golden. Golden finished with nine points for Arkansas State.

The Panthers held the Red Wolves without a 2-point field goal for the first 11:30 of the game, giving up just a pair of 3s.

Harrow reached 1,000 points at Georgia State with a dunk with 5:55 to play in the first half as the Panthers had built a 23-9 lead. He reached the mark in just 54 games, the second-quickest in program history and became the fifth Panther to accomplish the feat in just two seasons.

Georgia State went into the locker room leading 34-18 and pushed the lead to as many as 33 with 7:18 to play in the second half.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 58, GEORGIA STATE 54

Hanner Fieldhouse • Statesboro, Ga.

Georgia State fell to Georgia Southern 58-54 Thursday at Hanner Fieldhouse. Ryan Harrow led the Panthers with 17 points, and Markus Crider added 14 points and seven rebounds.

R.J. Hunter finished with 12 points and eight rebounds for Georgia State (15-8, 8-4 Sun Belt), which now sits one-and-a-half games behind first-place Georgia Southern (16-4, 9-2 Sun Belt) in the Sun Belt Conference standings.

The Panthers lost for just the 11th time in the last 48 games dating back to last season. The loss also snapped Georgia State's four-game winning streak.

Georgia Southern got 15 points from Mike Hughes, including two crucial 3-pointers in the final eight minutes as the Eagles rallied from eight points down. Jelani Hewitt scored nine of his 13 points in the second half.

"We just didn't play well offensively at all," head coach Ron Hunter said. "Our defense once again kept us in the game, but we forced too many shots and didn't do a good job moving the ball inside for easy baskets. We also turned it over too much and that led to the loss."

Georgia State held the Eagles to less than 30 percent shooting from the field, but Georgia Southern won the rebounding battle, 43-38, including 15 offensive rebounds. It marked the second-straight game holding an opponent under 30 percent. Georgia Southern went 19-for-29 at the free throw line, while Georgia State was just 5-for-9.

Georgia State took a 41-33 lead on a layup by Harrow with 10 minutes to play, but the Panthers went nearly five minutes without a score, allowing Georgia Southern to take the lead for the first time since early in the first half. A steal by Hewitt led to Hughes' 3-pointer that tied the game at 41, and then Trent Wiedeman put the Eagles ahead 43-41 with a pair of free throws with 6:26 to play.

The Panthers regained the lead briefly on a jumper by Harrow, but Georgia Southern got back-to-back treys from Hughes and Jake Allsmiller to pull ahead 51-46 with 3:45 left.

Georgia State made a final run, pulling within 51-49 on Hunter's 3-pointer with 1:43 to play, but the Panthers could get no closer.

The Panthers also hurt themselves with an uncharacteristic 15 turnovers.

Georgia State led 25-19 at the half behind Crider, who collected 12 points and five rebounds in the opening period.

After scoring his 1,000th point in a GSU uniform last game, Harrow moved into 17th on Georgia State's all-time scoring list on Thursday night.

GEORGIA STATE 65, SOUTH ALABAMA 54

Mitchell Center • Mobile, Ala.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored 19 points and senior Curtis Washington pulled down 10 rebounds to lead Georgia State to a 65-54 win over South Alabama on Saturday afternoon at the Mitchell Center.

Playing without leading scorer Ryan Harrow who missed the game with concussion-like symptoms, the Panthers held the Jaguars to just 27.8 percent shooting. It marked the third-straight game Georgia State held its opponent under 30 percent shooting.

Georgia State (16-8, 9-4 Sun Belt) topped the Jaguars for the fourth-straight contest and won for 38th time in the last 49 games dating back to last season. The Panthers have won 26 of 31 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt last season.

Hunter filled up the stat line, finishing with five assists, five rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals in 38 minutes. His three steals tie him with Devonta White for third on Georgia State's all-time list with 164.

Washington added six points and four blocks, earning a start and playing 25 minutes. Markus Crider added 14 points on 7-of-12 shooting, while Kevin Ware, who earned the start for Harrow, scored 15 points and pulled down five boards.

South Alabama (7-17, 5-8 Sun Belt) had four players in double figures, led by 17 points from Taishaun Johnson. The freshman guard played alongside R.J. Hunter at Pike High School in Indianapolis.

"We are really rolling on defense right now," head coach Ron Hunter said. "We have been struggling a little on offense, but when you can hold a team under 30 percent shooting, you are going to win a lot of games. I thought it was a great team win and really proud of the way the guys buckled down, especially in the second half."

Georgia State built an early lead, 17-7, with 9:33 to play in the first half, holding the Jaguars scoreless for more than seven minutes midway through the half.

The Panthers led by as many as 12 in the opening 20 minutes before South Alabama used a 12-0 run to tie the game at 24-24 with 13 seconds remaining. Georgia State went into the locker room with a 26-24 lead as Hunter finished the first half with 12 points.

South Alabama took its biggest lead of the game, 34-30, with 16:26 remaining before Georgia State responded with an 11-0 run to build a 41-34 lead with 13:09 to play.

Leading by just three with six minutes to play, Georgia State got a 3-pointer from the corner by Ryann Green followed by a jumper in the lane from Ware to push the lead to 56-48 with 4:20 to play and never look back.

South Alabama made one last run and cut Georgia State's lead to five with 58 seconds to play, but the Panthers went 6-of-6 from the free throw line over the final minute to secure the win while holding the Jaguars scoreless.

GEORGIA STATE 53, TEXAS STATE 41

Strahan Coliseum • San Marcos, Texas

Georgia State held its fourth-straight opponent under 30 percent shooting to earn a 53-41 win over Texas State on Saturday afternoon at Strahan Coliseum. R.J. Hunter led the Panthers with 17 points, while Markus Crider just missed his fourth double-double of the season.

Hunter led the Panthers to their second-straight win and sixth in the last seven games. The junior went 8-of-9 from the free throw line, the miss snapping a streak of 30-straight made early in the first half. It was just eight shy of his school-record of 38-straight made.

Crider finished with 10 points, nine rebounds and four assists. Senior Curtis Washington added nine points, three rebounds and three blocked shots to move into fifth on GSU's all-time blocked shot list with 111.

Georgia State (17-8, 10-4 Sun Belt) held the Bobcats to just 29.3 shooting to never trail during the game. It was the Panthers 39th win in the last 50 games dating back to last season. Georgia State is 27-5 in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt and the squad is off to the third-best start in program history.

Texas State (11-12, 5-9 Sun Belt) lost its third-straight and for the seventh time in the last eight games. The Panthers revenged an earlier season loss to the Bobcats in Atlanta.

Georgia State held Texas State to just 29.2 percent shooting in the first half and built a 28-12 lead with 4:36 remaining. The Bobcats responded with a 9-1 run over the final four minutes to pull within eight, 29-21 at the break.

Hunter's first two 3-point attempts of the half moved him ahead of Shellord Pinkett's school-record 637 as the junior picked up another GSU career-record. In just 89 games, Hunter also owns the career-scoring, free throws made and free throw percentage records. He is just 10 3-point makes shy of Pinkett's 240 made career total.

Texas State cut the Panthers lead to seven, 33-26, with 15:07 to play, before Georgia State held the Bobcats without a field goal for the next eight minutes and built a 44-32 lead with under eight minutes to play.

Emani Gant led Texas State with 13 points and eight rebounds, but the Bobcats shot just 2-of-15 from 3-point range, while the Panthers went 16-of-18 from the free throw line.

Kevin Ware added four points and five rebounds for the Panthers, while senior Ryann Green chipped in with five points and three boards.

Georgia State played without the services of leading scorer Ryan Harrow for the second-straight game as the senior was recovering from concussion-like symptoms.

GEORGIA STATE 79, SOUTH ALABAMA 51

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by 28 points from junior R.J. Hunter, Georgia State cruised to a 79-51 win over South Alabama on Thursday night at the GSU Sports Arena. Junior Markus Crider and freshman Jordan Session each added career highs in points, scoring 21 and 11 points respectively.

Hunter finished the game 9-of-19 from the floor with four 3-pointers and went 6-of-6 from the line. The junior has made 58 of his last 60 free throw attempts. He also tied a career-high with eight assists.

Crider added seven rebounds and three assists, while Session added five boards and a career-high three steals.

Georgia State (18-8, 11-4 Sun Belt) won its third-straight game and for the seventh time in its last eight. The Panthers are 40-11 in their last 51 games dating back to last season and own a 28-5 mark in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The squad is off to the third-best start in school history.

The Panthers held their fifth-straight opponent under 30 percent shooting as the Jaguars went 12 of 41 from the floor, a 29.3 percent total.

South Alabama (9-18, 7-9 Sun Belt) saw its two-game winning streak snapped despite 19 points from Taishaun Johnson who went 14-of-16 from the line. Johnson and Hunter were teammates at Pike High School in Indianapolis.

Georgia State quickly opened a 24-8 lead with just over 10 minutes remaining in the first half, but allowed South Alabama back into the game.

The Jaguars crawled back to trail by just six, 34-28, with 2:00 minutes to play on a pair of free throws by Johnson and trailed by just eight going into the locker room.

Hunter finished the first half with 16 points. With his first two made field goals, he became just the fourth Panther in program history to make 500 field goals.

Leading by nine early in the second half, Georgia State responded with an 8-0 run to build a 49-32 lead with 14:47 to play. South Alabama never got closer than 13 the rest of the game.

Freshman Isaiah Dennis added seven points and four rebounds, while senior Curtis Washington finished with five points and four rebounds for the Panthers. Kevin Ware added four points and five assists for Georgia State which was playing without Ryan Harrow for the third-straight game with concussion-like symptoms.

Reigning Sun Belt Player of the Week Ken Williams was helped to just nine points on 3-of-12 shooting for South Alabama.

GEORGIA STATE 87, APPALACHIAN STATE 43

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by 22 points from R.J. Hunter and 20 from Ryan Harrow, Georgia State cruised to an 87-43 win over Appalachian State at the GSU Sports Arena.

The 44-point margin of victory is the third-largest in school history, only behind the 61-point season-opening victory over Tennessee-Temple and 45-point win over Piedmont in 1986.

Georgia State (19-8, 12-4 Sun Belt) held its sixth-straight opponent under 30 percent shooting to win for the fourth-straight time and eighth time in the last nine games. The Panthers are 41-11 in their last 52 games dating back to last season and own a 29-5 mark in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The squad is off to the third-best start in school history.

Hunter finished 7-of-13 from the floor and knocked down three 3-pointers while going 5-of-5 from the line. He has made 63 of his last 65 free throw attempts. He tied a career-high with eight assists for the second-straight game.

The junior has scored 538 points this season and surpassed his freshman total of 527 to move into tenth on the single-season scoring list.

Harrow, who missed the last three games with concussion-like symptoms, went 7-of-9 from the floor with five assists and four rebounds in just 26 minutes.

Junior Markus Crider just missed his fourth double-double of the season adding 14 points and eight rebounds, while senior Curtis Washington pulled down eight boards and blocked three shots. Washington moved into fourth-place on GSU's all-timed blocked shot list with 114.

Appalachian State (9-16, 6-10 Sun Belt) shot just 29.1 percent from the floor and turned the ball over 18 times which led to 35 Panther points.

Georgia State took an early 6-0 lead and led 9-5 before going on an 8-0 run to take a 17-5 lead with 13:05 to play in the first half. Appalachian State would never get closer than nine again in the first half and were never closer than 26 in the second half.

The 13 first-half points scored by Appalachian State was the fewest in a half given up by the Panthers since allowing 13 in the first half to William & Mary in 2011. The Mountaineers shot just 19 percent in the first half and turned the ball over 10 times.

UALR 92, GEORGIA STATE 83

Despite four starters in double figures, Georgia State fell to UALR 92-83 on Thursday night at the Jack Stephens Center as the Trojans knocked down 14 3-pointers.

Senior Ryan Harrow led the Panthers with 22 points, while junior R.J. Hunter added 21. Markus Crider finished with 18 points and eight rebounds with Curtis Washington scoring 12.

Georgia State (19-9, 12-5 Sun Belt) saw its four-game winning streak snapped. Despite the loss, the Panthers are 41-12 in their last 53 games dating back to last season and own a 29-6 mark in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt.

UALR (13-15, 8-10 Sun Belt) won for the fifth time in the last six games as Mareik Isom and J.T. Thomas each scored 17 points. The Trojans finished 14-of-30 from 3-point range and shot 50 percent from the floor.

The Panthers had held their last six opponents under 30 percent shooting, the longest stretch recorded in the NCAA in the last 18 years.

"We knew coming in that UALR was playing great basketball and they showed it by shooting the ball extremely well tonight," head coach Ron Hunter said. "Despite the disappointing loss, we still control our own destiny to securing one of the top two seeds in the conference tournament. We will quickly regroup and be ready to face Troy on Saturday."

Maurius Hill and James Reid each scored 16 points for UALR which finished with 19 points off 10 Panther turnovers.

Behind 11 early points from Hunter, Georgia State took a 19-15 lead off an Isaiah Dennis lay-up with 11:38 to play in the opening half.

UALR responded and led by as many as eight in the half before going into the locker room with a 41-35 lead. The Trojans knocked down seven 3-pointers in the first 20 minutes which accounted for half of the team's made field goals. Holding a 19-14 rebounding advantage, UALR outscored the Panthers 15-0 oin second chance points going into the break.

The Trojans continued their hot shooting in the second half and led by as many as 14 with 3:57 to play. UALR shot 56.7 percent after the break and knocked down seven more 3-pointers in the second 20 minutes.

Georgia State's lone bright spot was going 21-of-21 from the free throw line, just one shy of the school-record of 22-of-22 set just last season at Western Kentucky.

Hunter's two 3-pointers moved him within one of Shellord Pinkett's career school record of 240.

The Panthers shot just under their season average of 48.4 percent, but went 1-of-8 from 3-point range in the second half.

GEORGIA STATE 75, TROY 64

Trojan Arena • Troy, Ala.

Using a balanced scoring attack and shooting 62 percent from the floor, Georgia State cruised to a 75-64 win over Troy on Saturday at Trojan Arena. The Panthers secured their 20th win for the third time in four seasons under head coach Ron Hunter and for the sixth-time this century.

All nine Panthers who played scored, led by Ryan Harrow who finished with 17 points and four assists. Junior Markus Crider was the only other Panther to score in double figures, finishing with 13 points, six rebounds and four assists.

Georgia State (20-9, 13-5 Sun Belt) will enter the final week of the regular season controlling its own destiny in the Sun Belt standings. If the Panthers win at UL Monroe on Thursday and defeat Georgia Southern in the regular season finale in the GSU Sports Arena next Saturday, Georgia State will repeat as conference champions and be the No. 1 seed in the Sun Belt tournament in New Orleans.

With the win, the Panthers are 42-12 in their last 54 games dating back to last season and own a 30-6 mark in conference games since returning to the league.

Troy (10-18, 5-14 Sun Belt) was officially eliminated from the conference tournament with the loss despite 19 points from senior Musa Abdul-Aleem.

Georgia State's balanced scoring attack included nine points from T.J. Shipes, eight points each from Ryann Green, R.J. Hunter and Kevin Ware, along with six points from Curtis Washington.

"I was proud of the way our team really focused in and came out with the defensive intensity that we need to play with," Hunter said. "To go along with that, to be able to pick up win No. 20 is special. That is a special number in college basketball and to be able to do it for the third time in four years shows the type of program that we are trying to build here at Georgia State."

Georgia State took an early 17-11 lead midway through the first half before going on a 9-0 run to build a 26-11 lead with 7:32 to play. Troy responded with a 7-0 run of its own to cut the lead to eight, but never got closer the remainder of the game.

The Panthers opened the second half on a 7-0 run to lead 46-25 with 17:04 to play. Georgia State pushed the lead to as many as 23 with 9:43 to play before Troy finally closed the gap in the final seconds.

The 62 percent shooting mark ranks just outside the top 10 best marks for a single-game in school history and was the third time this season Georgia State has shot better than 60 percent in a game.

Wesley Person was the only other Trojan to finish in double figures, finishing with 12 points.

Hunter made his 92nd career start, tying him with Zavian Smith for the fourth-most in Georgia State history. He added four rebounds, three assists and three blocked shots in the win.

GEORGIA STATE 58, UL MONROE 50

Fant-Ewing Coliseum • Monroe, La.

Led by a season-high 31 points from Ryan Harrow, Georgia State overcame a nine-point second half deficit to earn a 58-50 win over UL Monroe on Thursday night at the Fant-Ewing Coliseum. With the win, the Panthers secured a double-bye into the semifinals of next week's Sun Belt Conference championship.

Georgia State will enter the regular season finale on Saturday at 2 p.m with Georgia Southern tied with the Eagles for first-place. The winner will earn the league's regular season title, No. 1 seed in the conference tournament and automatic bid to the Postseason NIT tournament.

Harrow finished 11-of-20 from the floor and knocked down a career-high seven 3-pointers.

Junior R.J. Hunter was held to just nine points, but dished out a career-high nine assists and pulled down six rebounds. Senior Curtis Washington was equally impressive, scoring nine points and pulling down seven rebounds.

Georgia State (21-9, 14-5 Sun Belt) won for the sixth time in its last seven games and swept the season-series with UL Monroe which fell to 19-11, 13-6 in the Sun Belt. The Panthers are 43-12 in their last 55 games dating back to last season and own a 31-6 mark in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt.

UL Monroe was led by DeMondre Harvey who finished with 13 points and 15 rebounds as the Warhawks outrebounded the Panthers 44-31.

Georgia State opened the game by scoring the first 13 points of the game and holding the Warhawks without a basketball until 14:55 to play in the opening half. UL Monroe quickly responded with a 14-0 run of its own to take the lead with 10:42 to play, holding the Panthers scoreless for nearly five minutes.

Hunter's first 3-pointer, 20 seconds into the game tied him with Shellord Pinkett for the most 3-pointers in school history with 240.

Holding a 23-9 lead on the boards, UL Monroe went into the locker room leading the Panthers 29-26.

Trailing 39-30 with 14:55 to play, Harrow went on a 10-0 run by himself, which was extended to a 13-0 team run on a Hunter 3-pointer to give the Panthers a 46-41 lead with 8:05 remaining.

Harrow hit another 3-pointer and after a pair of free throws by Shipes, Georgia State pushed its lead to 51-45 with just over six minutes to play.

A Washington dunk with 3:33 to play gave the Panthers an eight-point lead and caused ULM to use its third timeout. ULM never got closer than five points again.

Nick Coppola and Justin Robinson each scored 11 points for the Warhawks.

With the win, Ryann Green was a part of the 83rd win his in career, tied with Donnie Davis and Lamont McIntosh for the most in program history.

GEORGIA STATE 72, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 55

Georgia State Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Before a sold-out Sports Arena, Georgia State earned a 72-55 victory over Georgia Southern to repeat as Sun Belt Champions on Saturday afternoon. Junior R.J. Hunter led the Panthers with 35 points, including 23 in the second half after Ryan Harrow, Georgia State's leading scorer left with an injury.

This marks the second time the Panthers have repeated as conference champions. Georgia State earned three-straight Atlantic Sun Conference titles from 2000-02.

Georgia State (22-9, 15-5 Sun Belt) will enter the Sun Belt tournament as the No. 1 seed and play next Saturday at 2 p.m. ET. Georgia Southern (21-8, 14-6 Sun Belt) will be the No. 2 seed when the tournament gets underway in New Orleans.

Hunter finished the game 8-of-17 from the floor with three 3-pointers, but more importantly, went a school-record 16-of-16 from the free throw line and pulled down six rebounds.

Before the game, Georgia State honored seniors Ryann Green, Ryan Harrow and Curtis Washington. Washington stepped up with 12 points and five rebounds on 6-of-11 shooting, while Harrow scored five points in 14 minutes before leaving the game.

Green, who went from a walk-on as a freshman to on scholarship for his senior year and a team captain, scored four points and grabbed five rebounds. It marked the 84th win of his career, establishing a new four-year record for the most wins in program history.

The Panthers improved to 44-12 in their last 56 games dating back to last season and own a 32-6 mark in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The squad is off to the third-best start in school history.

Jelani Hewitt led Georgia Southern with 17 points, including five 3-pointers, but the Eagles went just 10-of-19 from the free throw line and were outrebounded by the Panthers 39-23.

Leading 8-7 just minutes into the game, Georgia State went on a 10-0 run to take an 18-7 lead with just over 10 minutes to play. The Panthers went into the half leading 32-21, outscoring the Eagles 20-8 in the paint, forcing 10 Georgia Southern turnovers which led to 13 points.

Trailing 38-26 two minutes into the second half, Georgia Southern went on an 8-0 run that included back-to-back 3-pointers by Hewitt and Curtis Diamond to cut the Panthers lead to 38-34 with 15:26 to play, causing Hunter to call his first timeout of the half.

Georgia State immediately responded with a 10-0 run to take a 48-34 lead on back-to-back 3-pointers from Hunter with 12:22 to play. Georgia Southern would never get closer than 10 points again as the Panthers pushed the lead to as many as 17 with just over two minutes to play.

GEORGIA STATE 83, UL LAFAYETTE 79

Lakefront Arena • New Orleans, La.

Sun Belt Tournament

Led by 32 points from Sun Belt Player of the Year R.J. Hunter, Georgia State earned an 83-79 win over UL Lafayette in the first of two semifinal games at the Sun Belt tournament at Lakefront Arena on Saturday afternoon. The Panthers will advance to the championship game for the second year in a row on Sunday afternoon to play the winner of UL Monroe and Georgia Southern at 1 p.m. ET.

With leading scorer Ryan Harrow playing limited minutes due to a hamstring injury, Hunter went 11-of-22 from the floor and 7-of-8 from the free throw line. He added eight steals which established a new Sun Belt tournament record and tied the Georgia State school record which last occurred in 2000.

Hunter also surpassed Thomas Terrell's single-season school-record of 635 points (2001-02) and now has scored 643 points this season.

Junior Markus Crider just missed his fourth double-double of the season with 15 points and nine rebounds, while freshman Isaiah Dennis came off the bench to score a career-high 10 points, tying a career-high with 18 minutes played.

Georgia State (23-9) won its fourth-straight and eighth of its last nine games. The Panthers are 45-12 in their last 57 games dating back to last season and improved to 7-2 in conference tournaments as the No. 1 seed. The 23 wins are the third-most in school history.

Despite four players in double figures, UL Lafayette (20-13) saw its seven-game winning streak snapped. Devonta Walker came off the bench to lead the Ragin' Cajuns with 17 points and nine rebounds. The Panthers held All-Sun Belt First-Team member Shawn Long to 10 points and eight rebounds.

Trailing 10-6 just over five minutes into the game, the Panthers responded with a 13-0 run to take a 19-10 lead with 10:52 to play.

The Ragin' Cajuns came right back with a 7-0 run to cut the Panthers lead to 25-21 with 6:36 to play, before Georgia State responded with six-straight points to take a 10-point lead with just under four minutes to play in the first half.

Georgia State went into the locker room leading 44-27, forcing 13 ULL turnovers.

The Panthers continued to push the pace in the second half, leading by as many as 24 with 15:52 to play. Georgia State still led by 13, 81-68, with 32 seconds to play after a free throw by Hunter, before ULL finished the game on an 11-3 run that included two 3-pointers in the final 10 seconds.

Seniors Ryann Green and Curtis Washington each scored eight points in the win, while redshirt-junior Kevin Ware, in his first season with the Panthers, added nine points and six assists.

Georgia State finished the game with a season-high 17 steals, tied for the sixth-most in program history.

GEORGIA STATE 38, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 36

Lakefront Arena • New Orleans, La.

Sun Belt Tournament

Behind a game high 18 points by tournament MVP Kevin Ware, Georgia State earned a 38-36 win over Georgia Southern in a defensive slug-fest at Lakefront Arena to earn the school's third ever bid to the NCAA tournament.

Georgia State (24-9) won its fifth-straight and ninth of its last 10 games to advance to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2001. GSU shot 32.6 percent from the floor while Georgia Southern was held to 22.9 percent shooting by GSU's stifling defense.

The Panthers led for nearly 30 minutes compared to just 34 seconds in front for the Eagles. Although the score was even only three times the teams were tied for more than nine minutes of play.

Behind Ware, Sun Belt Player of the Year R.J. Hunter was the second highest scorer in the game with nine, but was just 3-of-15 from the floor, including 1-for-7 from behind the arch. Markus Crider chipped in eight points and grabbed seven boards.

Georgia State took an early 6-1 lead, holding Georgia Southern with a field goal for the first 6:02 of the game. The Panthers pushed the lead to a game-high seven, 13-6, 13 minutes into the game as both teams struggled from the floor early.

The struggles continued for both teams as Georgia State went into the locker room leading 19-16 while holding Georgia Southern to just 24.0 percent shooting the first half. Ware scored 11 points in the first half as the Panthers were held to just 34.8 percent shooting.

Georgia Southern took its only lead of the game 30-29 with 9:28 to play in the second half on a layup by Kyle Doyle. Ware responded immediately with a 3-pointer from the corner to put the Panthers back ahead by two just over 30 seconds later.

Two free throws by Jelani Hewitt tied it at 32 with 8:11 to play. The scored remained tied for nearly three minutes as neither team was able to score until Hunter hit a layup at the 5:29 mark to put the Panthers up by two.

Hunter's layup proved to be the final field goal of the game as neither team made a bucket over the last five minutes of play. The last eight points for both teams came from the free throw line starting when Eric Ferguson hit a pair at the line to knot the score again at 34 with just over five minutes to play.

Georgia Southern had two final shots to win the game but Mike Hughes and Ferguson both missed deep threes as the Panthers defense held to clinch the win.

The 38-36 final score between Georgia State and Georgia Southern was the lowest scoring total in the history of the Sun Belt Conference championship game. The score beat the previous record set in 1997 when South Alabama defeated Louisiana Tech 44-43.

The two-point margin of victory marks the third consecutive year the Sun Belt Conference championship game has been decided by two points or less. (2013: WKU 65, FIU 63; 2014: UL Lafayette 82, Georgia State 81 OT).

GEORGIA STATE 57, BAYLOR 56

Veterans Memorial Arena • Jacksonville, Fla.

NCAA Tournament

R.J. Hunter's 3-pointer with 2.7 seconds left capped a 13-0 run that lifted No. 14 seed Georgia State to a 57-56 victory over No. 3 Baylor in the NCAA West Regional second round at Veteran's Memorial Arena in Jacksonville, Fla. The Panthers (25-9) earned the second NCAA tournament victory in school history and first since 2001.

Held to just one field goal in the first 37 minutes, Hunter scored 12 of the game's final 13 points. Georgia State trailed 56-44 when Hunter hit a pair of free throws with 2:39 to play to begin their comeback.

Baylor (24-10) still led 56-54 with 15 seconds left and Kenny Cherry at the free line. Cherry missed the front end of a one-and-one. T.J. Shipes grabbed the rebound for GSU, and it was Shipes who passed the ball to Hunter for the winning trey, which came from the top of the key about eight feet beyond the 3-point arc.

Hunter finished with 16 points for the Panthers, who played without second-leading scorer Ryan Harrow and his 18.7 points per game. Senior Ryann Green scored 11 points -- the first double-figure scoring effort of his career -- and handed out four assists, and Markus Crider added 10 points.

Georgia State forced 21 Baylor turnovers while committing just six, helping the Panthers compensate for a huge rebounding disparity against the much taller and bigger Bears, who won the rebounding battle 40-23.

Baylor took an early 16-6 lead, scoring on each of its first seven possessions, but GSU cut the deficit to 17-14 with a 7-1 run, capped by a Hunter steal under the basket and easy lay-up with 9:27 to play in the first half. Less than two minutes later, a 3-pointer by Green tied the game at 19-19 with 7:33 to play, causing Baylor to call its second timeout.

Following another 3-pointer by Green with 5:10 remaining to tie it again, Kevin Ware's jumper gave Georgia State its first lead of the game, 26-24, with 4:20 to play. Green scored eight-straight points for the Panthers before the Ware jumper.

The Bears took 38-32 lead just over four minutes into the second half before another 3-pointer by Green cut the deficit to three, 38-35, with 15:55 to play. The Panthers used a 6-0 run to take a 41-40 lead with 13:15 to play on back-to-back jumpers by Crider. But the Bears held GSU without a field goal for more than four minutes and scored 10 straight points, moving ahead 52-42 on Royce O'Neale's 3-pointer with 6:25 left.

After Hunter started the comeback with his two free throws, he made his first 3-pointer of the game with 1:36 left, pulling the Panthers within 56-49.

Then Crider tied up Royce O'Neale for a steal, leading to Hunter's jumper that made it 56-51 with 1:28 to play. After a GSU timeout, Hunter stole the ball in the backcourt and converted the layup to bring GSU within three points, 56-53, with 1:20 still to play.

Both teams were scoreless for the next minute until Isaiah Dennis stole the ball from Prince, who fouled Dennis. The GSU guard made his first free throw for a two-point deficit but missed the second. Georgia State was forced to foul and sent Cherry to the line to set up the dramatic final sequence.

XAVIER 75, GEORGIA STATE 67

Veterans Memorial Arena • Jacksonville, Fla.

NCAA Tournament

Underdog Georgia State's heroic run ended, but it wasn't without a memorable performance in a 75-67 loss to Xavier. The two teams combined to make 49 of 80 baskets (61.25%), the highest in an NCAA Tournament game in more than 20 years.

The Panthers actually made more field goals (26) than the Musketeers (23), but GSU shot a solid 56.5 percent on 26 of 46, while Xavier was an eye-popping 23 of 34 (67.6%), missing only 11 shots all evening. Xavier hit 7 of 13 clutch 3-point baskets and added 22 of 25 free throws at 88 percent for a decided advantage over GSU's 9 of 13 free throws. Credit goes to Xavier for putting up those numbers on a defense that held 11 teams under 30 percent in a game this season.

GSU (25-10) was led again by junior R.J. Hunter with 20 points and five assists, while Markus Crider added 10 points. Senior Ryan Harrow tried valiantly to play in his final college game and made two 3-point baskets in the first half, but was unable to go in the second half. GSU's defense was still a factor as the Panthers forced 14 turnovers and made eight steals, but the hot-shooting Musketeers overcame those turnovers.

Xavier (23-13) literally was having a career night, from its bench no less. Six-foot-nine Jalen Reynolds came off the bench to have a career-best 21-point game on 8 of 9 field goals and 5 of 5 free throws. Sophomore guard Myles Davis came off the bench to make a career-best 5 of 8 3-point baskets for 17 points. Davis had made only 3 of his previous 17 3-point attempts before this game.

Tonight's game started in a familiar NCAA fashion for GSU (fall behind in double digits). Xavier raced out to an early 17-6 lead, making 5 of its first 7, including a pair of 3-point baskets just over seven minutes into the game.

Georgia State used a 7-0 run midway thru the half to cut the deficit to 19-17 with 7:49 to play before Xavier immediately responded with a 7-0 run of its owns to go back up by nine with 5:58 to play.

The Panthers fought back with 3-pointers from Harrow and Hunter on back-to-back possessions to cut the deficit to three with 4:40 to play and another 3-pointer by Hunter with 2:21 to play cut the lead to 30-28.

Despite being outrebounded 17-5 in the first half, Georgia State went into the locker room trailing just 32-28, forcing nine Xavier turnovers which led to 10 GSU points.

The second half saw Georgia State come out aggressively. The Panthers quickly tied the game at 34 at 17:56. It was tied again at 36, then yet again at 38 with 15 minutes to play. But, Xavier's net-scorching shooting put them back up 45-38.

It looked like Xavier might pull away at 54-44 with 8 minutes to go, but Georgia State closed to 54-48 with 7:00 and down to four points at 55-51 with 5:46 and 57-53 with just five minutes to play.

SHERNARD LONG

ALL-AMERICA, 2001

ASSOCIATED PRESS, HONORABLE MENTION

A two-time all-conference selection, Shernard Long was the 2001 player of the year in the conference. He averaged 18.0 points, 4.7 rebounds and 2.5 steals per game to lead Georgia State to the conference title, a berth in the NCAA Tournament and the first NCAA win in school history. He was later named to the A-Sun 25th Anniversary Team.

THOMAS TERRELL

ALL-AMERICA, 2002

ASSOCIATED PRESS, HONORABLE MENTION

Thomas Terrell became the second straight Panther to be named Atlantic Sun Player of the Year and earn honorable-mention All-America recognition. He led the team and the league in scoring at 20.5 points per game, along with 7.3 rebounds. He helped Georgia State to back-to-back postseason berths in the NCAA and NIT.

R.J. HUNTER

ALL-AMERICA, 2014 & 15

ASSOCIATED PRESS, HONORABLE MENTION

R.J. Hunter became the first two-time All-America honorable mention honoree after repeating as Sun Belt Player of the Year in 2014-15. In his final two seasons, he led Georgia State to an NIT appearance, followed by an appearance in the third round of the NCAA tournament in 2015.

R.J. HUNTER

FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA, 2013

KYLE MACY FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA

R.J. Hunter rewrote the record books in his first year, scoring a GSU freshman-record 527 points to earn Kyle Macy Freshman All-America honors.

2015 NCAA TOURNAMENT

GEORGIA STATE 57, BAYLOR 56

2015 NCAA West Second Round • Jacksonville, Fla. • March 19, 2015

R.J. Hunter's 3-pointer with 2.7 seconds left capped a 13-0 run that lifted No. 14 seed Georgia State to a 57-57 victory over No. 3 Baylor in the NCAA West Regional second round at Veteran's Memorial Arena in Jacksonville, Fla.

Held to just one field goal in the first 37 minutes, Hunter scored 12 of the game's final 13 points. Georgia State trailed 56-44 when Hunter hit a pair of free throws with 2:39 to play to begin the comeback.

Baylor led 56-54 with 15 seconds left and Kenny Cherry at the free throw line. Cherry missed the front end of a one-and-one. T.J. Shipes grabbed the rebound for GSU, and it was Shipes who passed the ball to Hunter for the winning 30-foot trey from the top of the key.

Hunter finished with 16 points for the Panthers, who played without second-leading scorer Ryan Harrow and his 18.7 points per game. Senior Ryann Green scored 11 points -- The first double-figure scorign effort of his career -- and handed out four assists, and Markus Crider added 10 points.

The victory sent head coach Ron Hunter falling off his chair, literally. The elder Hunter was coaching from a rolling stool after injuring his Achilles tendon as the Panthers' celebrated their Sun Belt Conference Championship just four days earlier.

Georgia State forced 21 Baylor turnovers while committing just six, helping the Panthers compensate for a huge rebounding disparity against the much taller and bigger Bears, who won the rebounding battle 40-23.

XAVIER 75, GEORGIA STATE 67

2015 NCAA West Third Round • Jacksonville, Fla. • March 21, 2015

Georgia State's heroic underdog run ended, but it wasn't without a memorable performance in a 75-67 loss to Xavier. The two teams combined to make 49 of 80 baskets (61.25%), the highest in an NCAA tournament game in more than 20 years.

The Panthers made more field goals (26) than the Musketeers (23), but GSU shot a solid 56.5 percent on 26 of 46, while Xavier was an eye-popping 23 of 34 (67.6%). Xavier hit 7 of 13 clutch 3-point baskets and added 22 of 25 free throws at 88 percent for a decided advantage over GSU's 9 of 13. Credit goes to Xavier for putting up those numbers on a defense that held 11 teams under 30 percent in a game this season.

GSU (25-10) was led by R. J. Hunter who scored 20 points and added five assists, while Markus Crider scored 10. Senior Ryan Harrow tried valiantly to play in his final college game and made two 3-point baskets in the first half, but was unable to go in the second half. GSU's defense was still a factor as the Panthers forced 14 turnovers and made eight steals, but the hot-shooting Musketeers overcame those turnovers.

2001 NCAA TOURNAMENT

GEORGIA STATE 50, WISCONSIN 49

2001 NCAA West First Round • Boise, Idaho • March 15, 2001

Shernard Long's basket with 12 seconds left lifted underdog Georgia State to a 50-49 victory over No. 6 seed Wisconsin in the first round of the NCAA West Regional, giving the Panthers their eighth straight victory and the first NCAA tournament win in school history.

Georgia State, seeded 11th, fell behind by as many as 16 points in the first half and still trailed by five, 49-44, with a minute to play. Darryl Cooper hit a 3-pointer with 48 seconds left and was fouled, and the sophomore made the free throw to complete the four-point play and bring the Panthers within one. Cooper then made a steal on the defensive end to set up Long's winning shot. Wisconsin had a chance to tie or the lead as the Badgers got the ball down low to 6-9 center Mark Vershaw, who was fouled and went to the line for two free throws. But Vershaw missed both and Long grabbed the rebound. The Panthers had to survive a desperation shot by Wisconsin after Long missed the front end of a one-and-one with one second left.

Senior guard Kevin Morris led the Panthers with 18 points, including a 3-pointer just before the first-half buzzer. Long, the Panthers' leading scorer, was held scoreless in the first half before scoring 13 in the second, while Cooper added 11 points. Bam Campbell grabbed 11 boards as the Panthers outrebounded Wisconsin 33-32.

MARYLAND 79, GEORGIA STATE 60

2001 NCAA West Second Round • Boise, Idaho • March 17, 2001

Georgia State's most successful season ever ended with a 79-60 defeat by third-seeded and 11th-ranked Maryland, which would go on to reach the Final Four. Lefty Driesell's Panthers were even with his former school into the second half, tying the game at 47-47 with 14 minutes to play before Maryland pulled ahead for good.

With Georgia State trailing 41-37 at the intermission, Driesell unveiled a diamond-and-one defense to the start the second half. A steal and layup by Lydell Gunsby tied the game at 41-41 with 18:14 left. Two free throws by Donnie Davis gave State a 43-42 lead at the 17:44 mark. Davis then stepped to line at 14:29 and tied the game for the seventh time at 47-47, but missed his second attempt that would have put the Panthers ahead. Back-to-back steals by All-American Juan Dixon put the Terps ahead to stay, and Maryland was able to open a double-digit lead by the 10-minute mark. The final 19-point lead was Maryland's largest advantage as the Panthers were scoreless for the last four minutes.

Shernard Long led Georgia State with 20 points, but he was the only Panther in double figures. The rebounding was even with both teams grabbing 42, but the much taller Terrapins managed to score 50 points in the paint.

1991 NCAA TOURNAMENT

ARKANSAS 117, GEORGIA STATE 76

1991 NCAA Southeast First Round • Atlanta, Ga. • March 15, 1991

Georgia State's first trip to the NCAA tournament was a giant step for the Panthers' basketball program but just a short trip across town. The 16th-seeded Panthers, upset winners of the TAAC Tournament, were placed in the Southeast Regional, earning a date with No. 1 seed and third-ranked Arkansas at The Omni in Atlanta, just moments from Georgia State's downtown campus.

The talented Razorbacks defeated Georgia State 117-76. However, the Panthers played a strong first half, leading by as many as nine points and trailing by only two late in the half. Eventually, Arkansas' depth and vaunted fullcourt press wore down the underdogs.

Chris Collier led the Panthers with 22 points and 13 rebounds, while Zavian Smith added 14 points, nine rebounds and six blocked shots.

2014 POSTSEASON NIT

CLEMSON 78, GEORGIA STATE 66

2014 Postseason NIT First Round • Clemson, S.C. • March 18, 2014

Georgia State's second trip to the National Invitation Tournament ended with a 78-66 loss at Clemson at Littlejohn Coliseum. All five Georgia State starters finished in double figures led by Sun Belt Player of the Year R.J. Hunter's 15 points.

Making its fifth postseason appearance ever but its second in three seasons under head coach Ron Hunter, Georgia State finished the season with a record of 25-9, the second-highest victory total in school history.

K.J. McDaniels, the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year, led the Tigers with 30 points, 14 rebounds and five blocked shots for Clemson (21-12).

Georgia State uncharacteristically shot just 34.3 percent from the floor, but continued to do what it did well all year – make free throws (13 of 14) and not turn the ball over (5).

Ryan Harrow and Devonta White scored 13 points each for GSU, Manny Atkins had 12, and Curtis Washington contributed 11 points, eight rebounds and three blocks.

Georgia State led briefly in the second half, and the Panthers were within one with under 10 minutes to play before the Tigers pulled away.

GEORGIA STATE returned to the Postseason NIT in 2014 and led Clemson midway through the second half.*

Georgia State took its first lead at 19-18 on pair of free throws by Devonta White with 6:21 left in the first half. The Panthers led 23-20 when Clemson scored 11 straight points to regain control, leading 31-20 with under three minutes to go. Atkins 3-pointer in the waning seconds pulled GSU within 35-32 at the intermission.

In the second half, Hunter's steal and layup gave the Panthers their only lead of the second half at 40-39 with 16:27 to play, but the Tigers answered with buckets by Damarcus Harrison and Jaron Blossomgame.

Hunter knocked down two 3-pointers against the Tigers and finished the season with 100 made from beyond the arc, the first player in program history to accomplish the feat.

Atkins also made a pair of 3-pointers in his final game to finish his career among the top 10 in program history with 129 and with a 3-point shooting percentage of 42.4, No. 2 all-time at GSU.

2002 NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT

TENNESSEE TECH 64, GEORGIA STATE 62

Eblen Center • Cookeville, Tenn. • March 13, 2002

Georgia State earned an invitation to the National Invitation Tournament for the first time in school history, but the Panthers fell at Tennessee Tech 64-62 on Cameron Crisp's basket with 4.8 seconds left.

The Panthers won the Atlantic Sun regular season for the second straight year but dropped a heart-breaking 76-75 decision to Florida Atlantic in the tournament final. Tennessee Tech, regular-season champion of the Ohio Valley Conference, also lost its conference title game by one point but entered the NIT with a 28-game homecourt winning streak.

Georgia State trailed by five with under four minutes left before Lamont McIntosh's jumper tied the game at 60-60 with 1:19 to play. Tech regained the lead on a layup by Damien Kinloch with 1:09 left. State answered as Bam Campbell got an offensive rebound and scored to knot the score again with just 34 seconds on the clock. He was fouled on the play but his free throw rimmed out. Tech got the rebound and played for the final shot, which Crisp hit on a pull-jumper that banked in.

Nate Williams led Georgia State with 17 points and seven rebounds, and Campbell had a double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds, but leading scorer Thomas Terrell was held to seven points.

2012 COLLEGEINSIDER.COM POSTSEASON TOURNAMENT

GEORGIA STATE 74, TENNESSEE TECH 43

2012 CIT First Round • Atlanta, Ga. • March 13, 2012

Making its first postseason appearance since 2002, Georgia State opened play in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament in impressive fashion, defeating Tennessee Tech 74-43. It was the first postseason game played in the GSU Sports Arena and came on the 10-year anniversary of facing the Golden Eagles in the NIT.

Devonta White, a sophomore from Alpharetta, Ga., led the Panthers with a then career-high 24 points and connected on 9-of-13 attempts from the field. Senior James Fields added 17 points on 7-for-10 shooting, plus seven rebounds and five steals.

Georgia State dominated at both ends, shooting 52.7 percent from the field, including 9-for-15 from beyond the arc, while holding the Golden Eagles to just 28.3 percent. Tennessee Tech (19-14) managed just two 3-pointers on 22 attempts.

Redshirt-senior Jihad Ali, playing in his school-record 125th game, added seven points and eight rebounds. Senior Eric Buckner finished with five points and five rebounds, while adding to his school-record blocked shot total. Buckner recorded three blocks to give him 112 on the season, among the top five in the NCAA.

Tennessee Tech's Kevin Murphy entered the game as the 10th leading scorer in Division I at 21.1 points per game, but the Panthers limited the Atlanta native to seven points.

The Panthers shot 55.6 percent from the field in the first half with five treys while holding Tennessee Tech to just 8-for-26 (31 percent), including 1-for-13 from beyond the arc.

MERCER 64, GEORGIA STATE 59

2012 CIT Second Round • Macon, Ga. • March 17, 2012

Georgia State rallied from a 14-point deficit in the second half before falling at Mercer 64-59 in the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Georgia State, which earned its first postseason berth since 2002, ended its season with a record of 22-12, the second most wins in school history.

After trailing 45-31 with 9:37 left, Georgia State rallied to tie the game at 49-49 on James Fields' 3-pointer with 4:53 to play. The game was tied at 51-51 when Mercer's Justin Cecil completed a three-point play to give the Bears the lead with 2:53 left. After two free throws by GSU's Devonta White, Cecil then nailed a 3-pointer to put Mercer ahead 57-53 with 2:19 to go.

Mercer pushed its lead to 61-56 on two free throws by Jakob Gallon with 43 seconds left, but Jihad Ali answered for Georgia State with a 3-pointer, pulling the Panthers within 61-59 with 37 seconds left.

After Langston Hall made one of two free throws for the Bears, Georgia State had a shot to tie the game, but Ali, White and Brandon McGee all missed potential game-tying 3-pointers.

The Panthers endured one of their worst offensive performances of the season, shooting just 32.8 percent from the field, including a frigid 21.4 percent in the first half. Meanwhile, Mercer nailed six first-half 3-pointers to build a 28-18 lead at the intermission and then held off Georgia State in the second half.

White led the Panthers with 18 points. Fields added 14 points, while another senior playing his final game, Ali, contributed 13 points and 10 rebounds.

Ali finished his career with a school-record 126 games played, while Fields went down in the history books second with 124.

Eric Buckner added nine points, eight rebounds and six blocked shots. The 6-10 forward finished his impressive two-year career with 167 blocks, most in school history. He set a school record with 117 blocked shots, which also ranks as the fifth most in a season in CAA history.

Cecil led Mercer with 19 points, while Langston Hall chipped in with 12 and Jakob Gollon added 10.

2015 SUN BELT CHAMPIONS

Following its second-straight regular season title, top-seeded Georgia State received a double-bye into the semifinals and earned two wins in two days to receive an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. The Panthers opened the tournament revenging a loss to UL Lafayette in the finals of the 2014 conference tournament final, then topped in-state rival Georgia Southern in the final. It was the second time in a week defeating the Eagles as the Panthers also clinched the regular season title against Georgia Southern in the season finale. Kevin Ware earned Tournament MVP honors, while R.J. Hunter and Markus Crider also earned all-tournament recognition.

GEORGIA STATE 83, UL LAFAYETTE 79

Sun Belt Semifinal • Lakefront Arena • March 14, 2015

Led by 32 points from Sun Belt Player of the Year R.J. Hunter, Georgia State earned an 83-79 win over UL Lafayette at Lakefront Arena.

Hunter went 11-of-22 from the floor and 7-of-8 from the free throw line. He added eight steals which established a new Sun Belt tournament record and tied the Georgia State school record which last occurred in 2000.

Junior Markus Crider just missed his fourth double-double of the season with 15 points and nine rebounds, while freshman Isaiah Dennis came off the bench to score a career-high 10 points, tying a career-high with 18 minutes played.

Despite four players in double figures, UL Lafayette saw its seven-game winning streak snapped. Devonta Walker came off the bench to lead the Ragin' Cajuns with 17 points and nine rebounds. The Panthers held All-Sun Belt First-Team member Shawn Long to 10 points and eight rebounds.

Georgia State went into the locker room leading 44-27, forcing 13 ULL turnovers which led to 22 GSU points.

The Panthers continued to push the pace in the second half, leading by as many as 24 with 15:52 to play. Georgia State still led by 13, 81-68, with 32 seconds to play after a free throw by Hunter, before ULL finished the game on an 11-3 run that included two 3-pointers in the final 10 seconds.

Seniors Ryann Green and Curtis Washington each scored eight points in the win, while redshirt-junior Kevin Ware, in his first season with the Panthers, added nine points and six assists.

Kevin Ware scored 18 points and earned tournament MVP honors leading GEORGIA STATE to a 38-36 win over Georgia Southern in the Sun Belt Championship Game.

GEORGIA STATE 38, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 36

Sun Belt Championship • Lakefront Arena • March 15, 2015

Behind a game high 18 points by tournament MVP Kevin Ware, Georgia State earned a 38-36 win over Georgia Southern in a defensive slug-fest at Lakefront Arena to earn the school's third ever bid to the NCAA tournament.

Georgia State won its fifth-straight and ninth of its last 10 games to advance to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2001. GSU shot 32.6 percent from the floor while Georgia Southern was held to 22.9 percent shooting by GSU's stifling defense.

The Panthers led for nearly 30 minutes compared to just 34 seconds in front for the Eagles. Although the score was even only three times the teams were tied for more than nine minutes of play.

Behind Ware, Sun Belt Player of the Year R.J. Hunter was the second highest scorer in the game with nine, but was just 3-of-15 from the floor, including 1-for-7 from behind the arch. Markus Crider chipped in eight points and grabbed seven boards.

The struggles continued for both teams as Georgia State went into the locker room leading 19-16 while holding Georgia Southern to just 24.0 percent shooting the first half. Ware scored 11 points in the first half as the Panthers were held to just 34.8 percent shooting.

Georgia Southern took its only lead of the game 30-29 with 9:28 to play in the second half on a layup by Kyle Doyle. Ware responded immediately with a 3-pointer from the corner to put the Panthers back ahead by two just over 30 seconds later.

Two free throws by Jelani Hewitt tied it at 32 with 8:11 to play. The scored remained tied for nearly three minutes as neither team was able to score until Hunter hit a layup at the 5:29 mark to put the Panthers up by two.

Hunter's layup proved to be the final field goal of the game as neither team made a bucket over the last five minutes of play. The last eight points for both teams came from the free throw line starting when Eric Ferguson hit a pair at the line to knot the score again at 34 with just over five minutes to play.

Georgia State jumped back in front by two when Crider hit two free throws at the 3:24 mark. Trent Wiedeman then tied it with two from the charity stripe with 1:55 remaining, before Hunter gave GSU its final lead, 38-36, with two free throws with 21 seconds remaining.

Georgia Southern had two final shots to win the game but Mike Hughes and Ferguson both missed deep threes as the Panthers defense held to clinch the win.

2001 TAAC CHAMPIONS

Top-seeded Georgia State used home-court advantage and strong defense to sweep through the TAAC Tournament, winning the second conference title in school history and earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Panthers held their three opponents to an average of just 56 points while outscoring them by more than 24 points a game to extend their home-winning streak to 19 games. MVP Thomas Terrell averaged 15.3 points and 8.7 rebounds in the three games, while Shernard Long and Kevin Morris also earned all-tournament honors.

GEORGIA STATE 96, FLORIDA ATLANTIC 57

TAAC Quarterfinals • Georgia State Sports Arena • March 1, 2001

Top-seeded Georgia State had no trouble defending its homecourt, romping past Florida Atlantic 96-57 in the quarterfinals of the TAAC Tournament before 2,318 fans at the Georgia State Sports Arena.

The Panthers' defense set a TAAC Tournament record by limiting the Owls to just 29 percent shooting from the field while forcing 21 turnovers, grabbing 14 steals and blocking four shots.

Four players scored in double figures, led by Shernard Long with 18. Thomas Terrell had 15 points and nine rebounds, while Darryl Cooper scored 12 points and Donnie Davis added 11. State broke the game open with a 16-0 scoring run in the first half.

GEORGIA STATE 66, SAMFORD 56

TAAC Semifinals • Georgia State Sports Arena • March 2, 2001

Darryl Cooper scored 19 points as top-seeded Georgia State advanced to the TAAC championship game with a 66-56 victory over Samford.

Samford's slowdown style kept the score close for much of the game, and the Bulldogs took a 53-51 lead on a dunk by Marc Salyers with 4:51 to play. From there, the Panthers outscored Samford 15-3.

Cooper led a quartet of double-figure scorers for the Panthers. Shernard Long and Thomas Terrell scored 14 points each and Kevin Morris added 12. State collected 13 steals and forced 21 turnovers.

Salyers led Samford with 25 points as the Bulldogs shots 59 percent for the game but took just 34 shots.

GEORGIA STATE 79, TROY 55

TAAC Championship • Georgia State Sports Arena • March 3, 2001

Before a tournament record crowd of over 4,000 fans, top-seeded Georgia State earned an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament for the second time in school history with a convincing 79-55 victory over No. 2 seed Troy in the TAAC Championship game, played on the Panthers' home court at the Georgia State Sports Arena.

Senior guard Kevin Morris led the Panthers with 18 points and seven assists, while tournament MVP Thomas Terrell had 17 points and 10 rebounds. Terrell hit five 3-pointers as Georgia State set a then-school-record with 16 treys in the game while controlling the boards with a 44-28 rebounding advantage. Morris and Shernard Long (12 points, 14 rebounds) joined Terrell on the all-tournament team.

Troy, which reached the title game after winning eight in a row and 13 of its last 15, jumped to an 11-5 lead in the first five minutes, but Georgia State responded with a 14-2 burst and never trailed again. Lemayn Wilson led the Trojans with 15 points and nine rebounds.

1991 TAAC CHAMPIONS

Cinderella earned a trip to the Big Dance as fifth-seeded Georgia State swept through the TAAC Tournament, knocking off host Stetson, top-seeded Texas San Antonio and two-time defending champion Arkansas-Little Rock. The one-two punch of Chris Collier and Phillip Luckydo combined for 129 points in the three games as coach Bob Reinhart's Panthers earned the first postseason berth in school history. Collier averaged 20.7 points and 9.7 rebounds to earn MVP honors, and Luckydo averaged 22.3 points.

GEORGIA STATE 70, STETSON 64

TAAC Quarterfinals • Edmunds Center, DeLand, Fla. • March 5, 1991

Not only did Georgia State win its first TAAC Tournament game ever, but it did so by knocking off host Stetson on its home floor, earning a 70-64 victory behind 26 points from Phillip Luckydo.

Chris Collier had 18 points and seven rebounds, and Zavian Smith added 13 points for the fifth-seeded Panthers, who had lost their previous TAAC Tournament games by an average of 28 points.

Trailing 45-42 with 13:30 remaining, Georgia State scored six straight points to take the lead for good. Stetson scored to make the score 48-47, but from there, the Panthers' defense took over, holding Stetson to no field goals and just one free throw over the next nine minutes. By the time the Hatters managed a bucket with 2:35 on the clock, Georgia State had built a 63-50 lead.

Stetson dominated the boards 46-29 but Georgia State spread the floor and got 42 points in the paint despite the Hatters' size advantage.

GEORGIA STATE 94, TEXAS-SAN ANTONIO 84

TAAC Semifinals • Edmunds Center, DeLand, Fla. • March 6, 1991

Chris Collier scored 25 points and pulled down 13 rebounds as Georgia State scored its second straight upset, knocking off top-seeded Texas-San Antonio 94-84 to advance to the TAAC championship game.

Phillip Luckydo contributed 20 points and seven rebounds, and Zavian Smith added 11 points and 11 rebounds for the Panthers.

Georgia State took its first lead less than one minute into the game and never looked back, leading 38-27 at the intermission and building a 19-point advantage in the second half. UTSA tried to mount a comeback in the second half, but the Panthers sealed the win by hitting 12 of 16 free throws in the final five minutes.

The Panthers shot 61 percent (33-54) from the field, including 85 percent in the second half, and outrebounded UTSA 44-32.

GEORGIA STATE 80, ARKANSAS-LITTLE ROCK 60

TAAC Championship • Edmunds Center, DeLand, Fla. • March 7, 1991

Chris Collier and Phillip Luckydo combined for 40 points as Georgia State completed an improbable run to the NCAA tournament with an 80-60 victory over Arkansas-Little Rock in the TAAC title game, earning the Panthers' first postseason berth.

Georgia State, seeded fifth, handed the sixth-seeded but two-time defending champions their first TAAC Tournament loss in nine games and snapped a 19-game losing streak against UALR. Luckydo, a native of Little Rock, Ark., finished with a game-high 21 points while helping hold James Scott, UALR's leading scorer, to 12 points. Collier added 19 points and nine rebounds to earn MVP honors.

FIRST NCAA BID: Head coach Bob Reinhart led Georgia State to its first NCAA Tournament in 1991. The Panthers, led by Chris Collier and Phillip Luckydo, won the TAAC Tournament as the No. 5 seed. That earned State a date with Arkansas in the NCAA Southeast Regional, played at The Omni in Atlanta, just blocks from the Georgia State campus.

Interviews

Georgia State student-athletes and coaches are available to the media throughout the season, but all interviews should be arranged through the Sports Communications Office and Associate Athletic Director Mike Holmes.

Covering Practice

Georgia State practices are generally open, but media are asked to contact Associate Athletic Director Mike Holmes before attending. Photography and video are permitted, subject to the discretion of the coaching staff. Practices are held in the Georgia State Sports Arena, and times vary.

Media Credentials

Media credentials are issued to accredited members of the working media and professional scouts on assignment. Requests should be made in writing or email, to Associate Athletic Director Mike Holmes.

Media Will Call

Media will call is located on the first floor of the Georgia State Sports Arena, accessible via Decatur Street. Will call opens 90 minutes before tipoff.

Media Work Room

Media Parking

Media parking at the Georgia State Sports Arena is extremely limited. Please submit requests for parking well in advance, and every effort will be made to accommodate your request. Media will park either on Collins Street, or in G Deck, directly across from the Sports Arena.

Photographers

Admission to courtside photography areas is by credential only. Courtside photo positions, for both still photography and videographers, are at the discretion of the basketball game officials and the sports communications staff.

Postgame Interviews

Postgame interviews will be conducted in the media work room on the second floor of the Georgia State Sports Arena. Following the game, Georgia State head coach Ron Hunter, selected players and the visiting head coach (if needed) will be brought to the interview room.

SUN BELT MEDIA SERVICES

The Sun Belt Conference Media Relations Office produces a weekly men's basketball release. Each release will include the most updated standings, results, notes and stats. The releases will be made available on the conference website (www.sunbeltsports.org) and distributed to local, regional and national media. The conference will also e-mail the release to each league school's sports information department. To be on the list, please contact either Mike Holmes or John McElwain (mcelwain@sunbeltsports.org) at the conference office.

EVERY GAME ON 1340 THE FAN 3 AND ESPN3

All Georgia State basketball games are broadcast on 1340 The Fan 3, with select games on WRAS-FM 88.5 and 1230 The Fan 2. All games can also be heard on the Internet at GeorgiaStateSports.com and via the Panthers' mobile apps.

Now in his 33rd season, Dave Cohen is the Voice of the Georgia State Panthers. He has broadcast more than 1,000 Panther basketball, football and baseball games.

680 The Fan's Brandon Leak returns for his third season along with former Georgia State player Rodney Turner, who joined the broadcast in 2007-08 as color analyst. Turner played for the Panthers from 1986-89. Courtside engineers include Rick Shaw and Brian Giffin.

Each broadcast begins 30 minutes before tipoff with The Panther Pregame Show, including the coach Ron Hunter Pregame Report just prior to tip.

In addition to calling the play-by-play for every men's basketball game, Cohen is also in his 17th year as Georgia State's Broadcast Co-ordinator, overseeing the radio broadcasts for women's basketball, baseball and other events. He also works in the Georgia State University Department of Alumni Relations.

A native of Lowell, Mass., and a graduate of Georgia State, Dave is married to Carol Cohen, a former Georgia State associate athletic director who now works as the Director of the University Advisement Center. The couple has two sons.

Beginning this season, all home games can also be seen on ESPN3 with Sam Crenshaw and Jihad Ali calling the action.

GEORGIA STATE LIVE RADIO SHOW

Georgia State head coach Ron Hunter will be featured on a weekly radio call-in show on 1340 The Fan 3.

Co-hosted by Panther play-by-play voice Dave Cohen, the weekly show will air most Mondays during the season.

ESPN3

For the first time in program history, all home games will air live on ESPN3. The Panthers have aired on the ESPN family of networks multiple times in the last few years.

GSU ON TV

The Georgia State basketball team has appeared on television more than 50 times over the last nine seasons, including nine times last year. During the 2014-15 season, the Panthers appeared on ESPN2 twice, ESPNU, ESPN3 twice, along with TBS, TNT, the MW Network and American Sports Network.

Georgia State is included in the Sun Belt Network, giving GSU additional coverage during basketball season.

Prior to the start of the season, Georgia State's game with Ole Miss was already scheduled to air on the SEC Network, with games against UAB and Southern Miss set for ASN.
