SPRING PREVIEW

After a highly successful debut, the Georgia State football program will take the field again for spring practice, which begins March 21 and continues through the April 14 Blue-White Spring Scrimmage, slated for 6:30 p.m. at the Georgia Dome.

The inaugural season of GSU football was positive in every area as the fledgling Panthers of head coach Bill Curry posted a winning record at 6-5 while exceeding all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and exposure.

“For the fourth time, we go on the field with an entirely different dynamic,” said Curry, whose program experienced a season of practice in 2009, its first spring practice in 2010 and then last fall’s inaugural season.

“Now we come onto the practice field as a veteran team, having played a season,” he continued. “We’ve had come-from-behind wins, we’ve had huge disappointments. We’ve had blow-out wins and we’ve been blown out. So we have sampled most of the emotions.”

With 56 returning letterwinners, the Panthers welcome back 20 of 22 starters on offense and defense.

The focus will be on the very fundamentals of football.

“Very simply, we have to take the resources that we have and improve at running the football and stopping the run,” said Curry. “Those two things have to happen.”

A position-by-position look at the Panthers:

QUARTERBACKS

Multi-talented sophomore Kelton Hill enters spring practice as the number one signal caller. He was actually the Panthers’ leading rusher for the inaugural season, netting 416 yards with three touchdowns and an impressive average of 6.9 yards per carry. The 6-0, 183-pounder from Douglasville, Ga., has a strong arm and will look to become more consistent in his passing after completing just five of 15 passes for 64 yards.

Sophomore Bo Schlechter, who doubles as the Panthers’ punter, returns to the quarterback position this spring. One of the best all-around athletes on the team, Schlechter competed for the starting job last summer but elected to move to wide receiver, where he had eight catches for 118 yards.

Last year’s starter, Drew Little, returns after a strong debut in which he passed for 2,102 yards and 18 touchdowns, but the rising sophomore will sit out spring practice and the first four games of 2011 due to violation of team rules.

The Panthers also have one quarterback in this year’s recruiting class in Ben McLane of Brookwood High School in Snellville, Ga., the Class AAAAA state champion.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Wide receiver was one of the Panthers’ most productive positions in 2010 as the top two performers, Danny Williams and Sidney Haynes, combined for 90 receptions, 947 yards and nine touchdowns.

Williams, a 6-4, 190-pound sophomore, led the way with 54 catches, averaging 12.0

yards and scoring five times, while Haynes, a 6-3, 212-pound senior, added 26 receptions, an 11.5-yard average and four TDs.

With the Panthers frequently utilizing three- and four-wide receiver sets, versatile speedster Albert Wilson had 19 catches for 294 yards and two touchdowns, and Jordan Giles added eight 17 receptions for 217 yards and two scores. Other contributors include Bo Carter (4-52), Nate Anthony (3-18) and Darren McCray (2-28). Zach Jones, Isaiah Ervin, and Brett Beidel add depth.

RUNNING BACKS

Georgia State spread the work load among four primary backs in 2010, with Travis Evans, Roosevelt Watson, Parris Lee and Sam Burkhalter each earning 30 or more carries.

Evans led the GSU backs with 382 yards on 79 attempts, averaging 4.8 yards per carry and scoring three times. Lee provided a spark with 161 yards and four touchdowns, while Watson, the most consistent blocker in the group, added 170 yards on 46 carries.

With Burkhalter moving to defense this spring, veteran Malcolm Smith and promising redshirt freshman Rendell Wilder could earn playing time.

TIGHT ENDS

Arthur Williams and Emmanuel Ogbuehi combined for 31 catches for 363 yards and four touchdowns from the tight end position during the inaugural season. Both return, along with another veteran in Auburn transfer Bailey Woods.

Ogbuehi was on the receiving end of the first touchdown pass in GSU history with a four-yard scoring play against Shorter, as well as the longest pass in Panther annals with a 55-yard reception at Alabama. Williams also turned in a key play with his touchdown catch against Lamar that capped a fourth-quarter comeback and clinched Georgia State’s winning season.

Redshirt freshman Drew Pearson adds depth, as could sophomore Cole Moon, who played linebacker last fall but will work on offense this spring as either a tight end or running back.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Along with those three veterans, the right side of the line features sophomore Grant King, who started every game at right tackle, along with sophomore Harrison Clotney and senior Ladeven Kirkland, who shared the right guard position last fall.

2011 GEORGIA STATE FOOTBALL

The unit's depth should be bolstered by the return of Michael Davis, a projected starter at right guard last summer before sustaining a season-ending knee injury. His availability for spring practice may be limited, but he should be fully recovered for the fall.

Promising young players such as tackle Ulrick John, guard Jon Marshall Sauls and center Tim Wynn gained valuable experience last fall. Senior Gabriel Hampton is another veteran backup. Adding depth on the line are Kevin Thompson, Nick Nesmith, Cade Yates, Kam Cheatham, Jacob Couch and Ronald Martin.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The top returning defensive lineman for the Panthers is senior tackle Christo Bilukidi, who collected a team-leading five sacks while forcing two fumbles. He totalled 51 tackles, including seven tackles for loss.

The Panthers will look to develop depth, with Demetreious Shorter working behind Bilukidi, along with redshirt freshman C.J. Stephens and sophomore Robert Truitt.

At noseguard, senior Khiry Karriem, who made 24 tackles with 2.5 tackles for loss, and sophomore Terrance Woodard, with 15 tackles, both return. Also in the mix are senior Dion Peary, sophomore Eduardo Curry, junior Deron Jordan and redshirt freshman Marcus Stetzer.

At defensive end is steady senior Kalan Jenkins after a season in which he made 30 tackles. He is backed up by sophomore Austen Wiley and redshirt freshmen Alex Findura and Deron Rhodes.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

The outside linebacker position features Georgia State's top returning defender in Jake Muasau, who plays the hybrid position known as Bandit in the GSU scheme. Lining up all over the field, Muasau led the team with 8.5 tackles for loss, including four sacks. He also contributed four forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, three pass breakups and an interception while totalling 50 tackles.

Adding depth behind Muasau is sophomore Allen McKay, along with Cliff Ibarrodo and Brandon Berry.

Opposite Muasau is sophomore Mark Hogan. The 5-11, 202-pound Hogan is known to Panther fans for becoming Georgia State's first-ever scholarship football player in January 2009, but that should not overshadow a productive season in which he made 54 tackles, with 2.5 tackles for loss, an interception, a pass breakup and a fumble recovery.

Hogan should be pushed by sophomore Robert Ferguson, who began last season as the starter before giving way to Hogan. Ferguson contributed 36 tackles and three pass breakups. Junior Akeen Felder (23 tackles) is another dependable option.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Anchoring the middle of the defense at the "Mike" inside linebacker is Louie Muasau, who was very productive last fall, particularly over the second half of the season. He finished with 61 tackles and an interception.

The Panthers also have Evan Bostic (63 tackles) here, as well as sophomore Sam Burkhalter, who moves from running back. Sophomore Davis Knowles adds depth.

Veteran Mike Hall returns to linebacker after playing safety last fall, where he collected 22 tackles and a forced fumble. He will man the "Stinger" position, along with sophomore Blake Wyatt and redshirt freshman Jarrell Robinson.

Incoming junior college signee Qwontez Mallory figures to make an impact at inside linebacker when he arrives this summer.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Senior free safety Brandon Jones returns after making 65 tackles and six pass breakups. Behind Jones is sophomore Kail Singleton, who contributed 12 tackles and a fumble recovery.

Strong safety Fred Barnes, who led the Panthers with 85 tackles, will be sidelined for spring practice and the first two games of 2011 due to violation of team rules. Senior Jocquez Fears moves into this slot, and Tay Watts, a transfer from Morehouse, should also make an impact.

At cornerback, the Panthers return sophomores Brent McClendon (36 tackles, 1 interception), Demarius Matthews, (8 tackles, 1 interception) and Jamal Ransby (20 tackles, 2 interceptions, 4 pass breakups). Junior college signee D'Mario Gunn of Georgia Military College will participate in spring practice and should challenge for playing time at cornerback.

Other backups in the secondary include Isaiah Howard, Mark Collins, Jamaal May and Mitchell Vinson.

SPECIALISTS

Georgia State returns an outstanding punter in Bo Schlechter, who averaged 44.5 yards per kick, including nine punts of 50 or more yards and eight punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. Even with Schlechter missing two games due to a knee injury, the Panthers compiled a net punt average of 37.34, which would have ranked among the top 10 nationally had GSU been eligible for NCAA statistical rankings.

While the punting job is in good hands, the Panthers must replace productive placekicker Iain Vance, who earned third-team all-America honors for the inaugural season. With signee Christian Benvenuto of Palm Coast, Fla., set to enroll this summer, sophomore Joseph Schneider will handle the kicking chores this spring.

Long-snappers Scott McQueen (PAT-FG) and Bailey Woods (punts) return, but holder Brandon Lupo must be replaced.

The Panthers also return talented return specialists Albert Wilson and Darren McCray, who each had kickoff returns for touchdowns during the inaugural season, as well as Demarius Matthews on punt returns.

President Mark P. Becker has launched a major strategic planning initiative focused on positioning the university, as it sets its sights on its second century, to become one of the world's premier urban universities.

affairs at the University of Michigan's School of Public Health. He also has held academic appointments at the University of Washington, the University of Florida and Cornell University. Becker earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Towson State University and his doctorate in statistics from the Pennsylvania State University.

During his career, Becker has been involved in several professional associations, including the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the International Biometric Society and the American Statistical Association, where he is a fellow. He has been principal investigator on research grants from the National Institutes of Health and the National Science Foundation, and he has published extensively in leading journals of medicine, public health, and statistics. Becker has served on a number of editorial boards, was co-editor of Sociological Methodology, and was a guest editor for Sociological Methods and Research and for the Journal of the American Statistical Association.

Becker and his wife, Laura Voisinet, have two grown children, Matthew and Julia.

Mark P. Becker, the seventh president of Georgia State University, began his tenure on Jan. 1, 2009.

Becker has launched a major strategic planning initiative focused on positioning the university, as it sets its sights on its second century, to become one of the world's premier urban universities. Embracing its commitments to recognized excellence in education and research, as well as its unique location in and commitment to Atlanta, the university is poised to rise to new levels of accomplishment and impact.

Under Becker's leadership, GSU recently launched the Second Century Initiative for faculty excellence, most often referred to as "2CI." This initiative will bring 100 additional faculty members to Georgia State over five years to build internationally recognized scholarly strength and critical mass in areas of priority.

Becker is a member of the Central Atlanta Progress Executive Committee; Atlanta Committee for Progress Board of Directors; Georgia Aquarium Board; Woodruff Arts Center Board of Trustees;

Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors; Georgia Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors; Georgia Research Alliance Board of Trustees; 191 Club Board of Governors; ARCHE (Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education) Board; and the World Affairs Council of Atlanta Board of Directors.

A biostatistician, public health researcher and academic leader, Becker served as executive vice president for academic affairs and provost at the University of South Carolina before assuming Georgia State's presidency.

Prior to that appointment, Becker spent three years at the University of Minnesota as a biostatistics professor, dean of the School of Public Health and assistant vice president of Public Health, Preparedness and Emergency Response.

From 1989 to 2000, Becker was a professor and associate dean for academic President Mark Becker, Director of Athletics Cheryl L. Levick and head coach Bill Curry began the Countdown to Touchdown on Sept. 2, 2009.

CHERYL L. LEVICK

Cheryl L. Levick carries a resume of experience and success from prestigious athletics programs across the nation in her position as Director of Athletics at Georgia State University.

Charged with leading GSU athletics in an era of unprecedented opportunity, Cheryl Levick has quickly put her stamp on the Panther program with the kickoff of Georgia State football and the continued growth of the overall program. In addition to the highly successful inaugural football season, other highlights of Levick's first two years on the job include historic increases in fundraising, numerous facilities upgrades—most notably the GSU Football Practice Complex—and the rebranding of the school's mascot and athletic logos.

Under Levick's leadership, Georgia State student-athletes have excelled in the classroom, posting a grade point average over 3.0 while completing more than 4,000 hours of community service in 2009-10.

Levick came to Georgia State in March 2009 from the University of Maryland, where she served as chief of staff/executive senior athletic director, overseeing daily management of the 27-sport program. Her impressive career includes a total of seven years as director of athletics at Santa Clara University and Saint Louis University as well as nearly two decades in senior administrative positions at Maryland and Stanford University and stints with the Pacific 10 Conference and the NCAA headquarters.

Levick was named the 2001 Division I Athletic Administrator of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (NACWAA). In 2005-06, she received the General Sports TURF Systems Athletic Director of the Year Award for the NCAA Division I Central Region, and she was recognized in both 1998 and 1999 as one of the nation's Top 25 Female Sports Executives by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal. She is a past president of the NCAA Division I-AAA Athletic Directors Association.

Before going to Maryland in 2007, she served three years (2004-07) as director of athletics at Saint Louis, where she led the transition from Conference USA to the Atlantic 10 Conference and served as the lead fundraiser for a new $80 million on-campus arena and practice complex. In 2006, she received the Carl O. Bauer Award as the top amateur sports figure in the St. Louis area.

Levick also spent four years (2003-07) as director of athletics and recreation at Santa Clara University. She oversaw a major renovation of the Broncos' basketball arena while securing approval for a $42.75 million commitment within the University's capital campaign.

Prior to Santa Clara, Levick worked 12 years at Stanford as senior associate athletic director and senior woman administrator. She served as the primary administrator for 33 varsity programs that won 44 national championships and six straight Sears Cup titles during her tenure.

Levick previously served as assistant commissioner of the Pac-10 Conference, assistant director of communications and women's programs at the NCAA, women's gymnastics coach and associate athletic director at Slippery Rock University, and assistant gymnastics coach and synchronized swim coach at Indiana University. She began her career at Pattonville Senior High School in St. Louis, Mo., coaching gymnastics and women's track.

Levick is a 1974 graduate of the University of Missouri, and she holds a masters degree in athletic administration from Indiana University. She has two daughters: Heather, who is married to Michael Klass, and Melissa.

BILL CURRY

A person whose name is name synonymous with CLASS AND INTEGRITY in the coaching profession, BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

The Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry spent more than two years developing, directing and promoting the football program in preparation for Georgia State's inaugural season. When his Panthers took the field for the first time in 2010, the city of Atlanta and the football world took notice. Not only did his fledgling squad post a winning record at 6-5, but the program exceeded all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and media exposure. Curry has called his current post at Georgia State the highlight of his storied career.

Curry brought to Georgia State his 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference--including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues--as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

After concluding his 10-year playing career as a center for the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974), Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

By recruiting talents such as all-America defensive end and future NFL star Pat Swilling, all-America offensive lineman John Davis, record-setting tailback Robert Lavette, and all-ACC linebacker Ted Roof, Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

HEAD COACH

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Already a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame, Curry was inducted into the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame in 2010.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

His passion for mentoring young people is also evident in his previous position as the director of Leadership Baylor at the Baylor School in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he served before taking over at Georgia State.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.

GEORGE PUGH

Assistant Head Coach -

Recruiting & Special Projects /

Wide Receivers

Fourth Season at GSU

Veteran coach George Pugh serves as assistant head coach for recruiting and special projects on Georgia State's football staff. Pugh, who also coaches the wide receivers, was one of the first coaches that Bill Curry hired when he assembled his first GSU staff in July 2008.

In addition to more than 25 years in college coaching, Pugh has strong ties to the Atlanta area after serving as the head coach at Columbia High School (1978) and Meadowcreek High School (2003-04). As a college coach, he has recruited the Atlanta area throughout his career.

Pugh also has head coaching experience, directing the Alabama A&M program from 1989-91. In his three seasons, the Bulldogs posted a 19-10 record, winning three Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles and reaching the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1991.

In 2007, Pugh served as receivers coach at the University of Houston, helping the Cougars reach the Texas Bowl and coaching Donnie Avery, who was selected in the second round (33rd overall pick) of the 2008 National Football League draft by the St. Louis Rams.

Prior to that, Pugh served two seasons (2005-06) at UAB. That was his second tour of duty with the Blazers, where he also worked from 1995-2000, both times working under head coach Watson Brown. In his first UAB stint, Pugh helped the Blazers in their transition to NCAA Division I-A.

He worked as an assistant coach at Arkansas in 2001-02.

Pugh began his coaching career in 1976 as an assistant coach at Columbia High School in Decatur, Ga., where he served one season as an assistant coach and one year as head coach. He then moved to the college ranks, serving as receivers coach at UT-Chattanooga (1978-79) and then New Mexico (1980).

He then spent one season at Pittsburgh, helping the Panthers reach the 1982 Sugar Bowl, before a seven-year stint at Texas A&M (1982-88). The Aggies won three Southwest Conference titles and played in three Cotton Bowls during his time there.

Pugh also coached high school football in Alabama at Selma High School (1992-93) and Luverne High School (1994).

A four-year letterwinner as a tight end, Pugh played at Alabama under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. During his four years (1972-75), the Crimson Tide lost just one game, highlighted by a national championship in 1973. He earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Alabama in 1976.

Pugh is married to the former Lelettrice Hines. The couple has three daughters, Stephanie, April and Brittany, and three sons, Marcus, Michael George and Joshua.

JOHN THOMPSON

Assistant Head Coach -

Strategic Planning / Defensive

Coordinator / Inside Linebackers

Fourth Season at GSU

John Thompson, Georgia State's assistant head coach for scheduling and strategic planning and defensive coordinator, possesses 28 years of college coaching experience, including 24 seasons as a coordinator and two years as the head coach at East Carolina.

One of the first coaches hired by Bill Curry when he assembled his first GSU staff, Thompson also coaches the inside linebackers. He previously worked one season with Curry as linebackers coach at Alabama in 1987.

Recognized as a top defensive mind, Thompson has worked as defensive coordinator or co-coordinator at Southeastern Conference schools Mississippi, Florida, Arkansas, South Carolina and LSU, as well as at Memphis, Southern Mississippi, Louisiana Tech and Northwestern State.

As a defensive coordinator, Thompson has seen more than 40 of his defensive players drafted by, or sign with, National Football League teams. Forty of his defenders earned all-conference honors, five were named all-America, and one, former Northwestern State linebacker Gary Reasons, has been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Thompson came to Georgia State in July 2008 after spending the 2007 season as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Ole Miss. That followed a one-year stint as athletics director at his alma mater, the University of Central Arkansas, which he guided in its move to NCAA Division I. He served as co-defensive coordinator at South Carolina in 2005.

As the head coach at East Carolina in 2003-04, he coached three first-team all-conference players and seven all-freshman selections.

Thompson was the defensive coordinator at Florida in 2002, when the Gators' pass defense was ranked seventh in the nation, allowing just 162.4 yards per game. He also spent two years at Arkansas, serving as co-defensive coordinator in 2000 and then defensive coordinator in 2001. In 2000, the Razorbacks were second in the nation in pass defense while leading the SEC in pass defense and total defense. The following year, Thompson helped lead Arkansas to the 2002 Cotton Bowl.

Thompson's first position as a defensive coordinator came at Northwestern State, where he served from 1983-86, and again from 1988-89 after spending the 1987 season at Alabama.

In 1990, he became the defensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech for two seasons before moving to Southern Miss as defensive coordinator in 1992. He was given additional responsibility as assistant head coach in 1993. In Thompson's seven seasons at Southern Miss (1992-98), the Golden Eagles won or shared two Conference USA titles, twice ranked among the top 25 nationally in scoring defense and made two bowl appearances.

COACHING STAFF

In one season at Memphis in 1999, his Tiger defense ranked 11th in the nation in scoring defense and 23rd in total defense.

A native of Forrest City, Ark., Thompson began as a high school coach in 1977 while pursuing his bachelor's degree at UCA. He continued to coach prep football until moving to the college ranks in 1982 as a graduate assistant at Arkansas, where he worked under Lou Holtz.

A high school quarterback, Thompson was inducted into the Forrest City High School Hall of Fame in 2006. His playing career also includes two seasons as a defensive back at Central Arkansas. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from UCA in 1978.

Thompson and his wife, Charleen, have two sons, Cabe and Hays.

JOHN BOND

Offensive Coordinator /
Quarterbacks
Fourth Season at GSU

Georgia State's first offensive coordinator, John Bond is a 26-year veteran of college coaching who previously spent 11 seasons as an offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, Northern Illinois, Army and Illinois State.

In the Panthers' inaugural season of 2010, Bond molded a young and inexperienced group into a productive offensive unit that averaged nearly 28 points per game. The Panthers completed 60 percent of their passes for more than 2,200 yards with 19 touchdown passes.

Before joining Bill Curry's first Georgia State staff in July 2008, Bond served the 2007 season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia Tech, where his offense was led by all-Atlantic Coast Conference running back Tashard Choice, the ACC rushing leader who was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys.

He spent the previous three seasons coaching one of the nation's most prolific rushing attacks as offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois (2004-06). All-America Garrett Wolfe led the nation in rushing in 2006 after ranking second as a junior and fifth as a sophomore. The third-round draft pick is now with the Chicago Bears.

Bond helped Northern Illinois to two Mid-American Conference Western Division titles and two bowl games, highlighted by a 9-4 record in 2004, when the Huskies ranked 11th in the nation in rushing, 14th in scoring and 14th in total offense.

Before going to Northern Illinois, Bond served four seasons (2000-03) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Army, where he fashioned a wide-open offense that broke 35 school records.

Bond's first full-time coaching position was at Southwest Missouri State, where he served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 1986-90. The Bears won two conference titles and reached the NCAA I-AA playoffs twice, advancing to the quarterfinals in 1989.

He served as quarterbacks coach at UTEP from 1991-93 and then as quarterback coach and passing game coordinator at Delta State in 1994-95.

From there, Bond moved to a four-year stint at Illinois State, serving as wide receivers coach in 1996 before he was elevated to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for his final three years (1997-99). The Redbirds ranked in the top 10 in the nation in scoring his final two years. In 1999, Illinois State reached the NCAA I-AA national semifinals, and Bond was a finalist for the American Football Coaches Association's Assistant Coach of the Year award.

His coaching background also includes two seasons as a student assistant (1983-84) and one year as a graduate assistant (1985) at his alma mater, Arkansas, where he worked under Lou Holtz and Ken Hatfield.

A native of Rogers, Ark., Bond was an all-state quarterback for his father, Gary Bond, at Rogers High School. The elder Bond is a member of the state's high school federation Hall of Fame, and John was inducted into the Rogers High Hall of Fame.

Bond who played one season at Arkansas before a career-ending injury, earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1985.

He is married to the former Jennifer Wilder, and the couple has two daughters, MacKenzie and Mallory, and one son, Brody.

JASON FRENCH

Outside Linebackers
Third Season at GSU

Jason French, a former professional player in the Canadian Football League, serves as the outside linebackers coach on the Georgia State football staff.

French, who retired from pro football in 2008, played eight years in the CFL as a wide receiver with the Saskatchewan Roughriders (2001-06) and the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (2007-08).

His top seasons were 2004 and 2005 with more than 50 receptions each year. He ranks among the Roughriders' career Top 20 in receptions and receiving yards.

A native of Montreal, Canada, French was selected by Saskatchewan in the second round of the 2001 CFL draft out of Murray State University, where he played two seasons. He also played two seasons at Middle Georgia College.

French and his wife, Amber, have a daughter, Ryan Michelle.

CRAIG HARMON

Tight Ends

Second Season at GSU

Craig Harmon joined the Georgia State staff in January 2010 as tight ends coach.

Harmon came to Georgia State after four years (2006-09) at the University of St. Francis, an NAIA program in Joliet, Ill., where he served as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Before that, he spent two years as a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois, working with current GSU offensive coordinator John Bond. During Harmon's time at NIU, the Huskies shared the Mid-American Conference West Division title both years.

He also spent two seasons (2002-03) as a graduate assistant coach at Quincy (Ill.) University, coaching running backs and defensive backs.

Harmon played collegiately as a quarterback, beginning his career at Northern Illinois (1998-2000) before transferring to Quincy (2001-02). He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and then his master's in education administration, both from Quincy.

The native of Godfrey, Ill., was a standout prep quarterback at Alton High School. He and his wife, the former Megan Anderson, have one son, Cooper.

ANTHONY MIDGET

Special Teams Coordinator /

Defensive Backs

Third Season at GSU

Anthony Midget, a former all-America at Virginia Tech and an Atlanta Falcons draft pick, coaches special teams and defensive backs on the first football staff for Georgia State and head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State's special teams excelled in the 2010 inaugural season. GSU was not eligible for official NCAA statistical rankings, but the Panthers' net punting average (37.34) and kickoff return average (24.20) would have ranked among the top 10 nationally. The GSU specials teams also contributed two kickoff returns for touchdowns and a blocked punt, and placekicker Iain Vance earned third-team all-America recognition.

Midget came to GSU in 2008 after spending the 2007 season as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech, helping the Hokies to the Atlantic Coast Conference title and a berth in the Fed Ex Orange Bowl.

Midget also served five years (2002-07) coaching at Lake Worth High School in Lake Worth, Fla., where his positions included assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, defensive backs coach and running backs coach. He also coached track, weightlifting and basketball and taught physical education.

A four-year letterwinner (1996-99) and three-year starter at cornerback at Virginia Tech, Midget helped the Hokies to four straight bowl games, capped by an appearance in the BCS National Championship game following the 1999 season.

He earned third-team all-America honors from The Sporting News as well as first-team all-Big East accolades in 1999. The Dean's List student also made the Big East All-Academic Team.

Following his senior season, Midget was selected in the fifth round of the 2000 National Football League draft by the Atlanta Falcons. He also spent time with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

A native of Clewiston, Fla., Midget graduated from Virginia Tech in 1999 with a degree in sociology. He has a daughter, Anaiya.

TODD PERRY

Running Backs

Third Season at GSU

Former National Football League player Todd Perry joined the Georgia State football coaching staff as running backs coach in 2009.

Perry played for Georgia State head coach Bill Curry at Kentucky before an 11-year career as an NFL offensive lineman with the Chicago Bears and Miami Dolphins.

Following his retirement from the NFL, Perry spent three seasons coaching on the high school level, working with the junior varsity programs at Alpharetta and Milton High Schools in metro Atlanta.

A native of Elizabethtown, Ky., Perry was an all-Southeastern Conference guard for Kentucky in 1992. He lettered four years for the Wildcats and was named the team's outstanding offensive lineman his junior and senior seasons.

He was selected in the fourth round of the 1993 NFL draft by the Bears, for whom he played eight seasons (1993-2000), including six years as a starter. He received the team's Brian Piccolo Award as an outstanding rookie in 1993.

Perry, who started a total of 144 NFL games, concluded his career with three seasons (2001-03) in Miami, where he was a member of an offensive line that blocked for NFL rushing leader Ricky Williams in 2002.

A three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Perry earned his bachelor's degree in biology from Kentucky in 1993.

He and his wife, Heidi, have three children: Tyler, Alexandra and Kiley.

MIKE RIDDLE

Offensive Line

Fourth Season at GSU

Mike Riddle is the offensive line coach on head coach Bill Curry's Georgia State staff.

In Georgia State's inaugural season of 2010, Riddle's offensive line allowed just 10 quarterback sacks the entire season for an offensive unit that averaged 30 pass attempts per game.

Riddle, who played under Curry at Kentucky, joined the Georgia State staff in 2008 as director of football operations before moving to a full-time coaching position in 2009.

He came to State from Riverside Military Academy in Gainesville, Ga., where he served as line coach in 2007 before being elevated to offensive coordinator.

He previously spent four seasons at Indiana, serving as a graduate assistant and offensive quality control assistant.

Before going to Indiana, Riddle coached three seasons of high school football, working with the offensive line at Colerain High School in Cincinnati, Ohio (2000) and Lexington Catholic High School in Lexington, Ky. (2001-02).

Riddle joined the Kentucky program as a walk-on and lettered four years (1995-98). He was honored as the Wildcats' Scout Team Player of the Year in 1996 and earned a scholarship for his final season (1998).

Riddle earned a bachelor's degree in social studies from Kentucky in 1999 and added a master's in secondary education in 2000 as well as a specialist degree in leadership from Liberty University in 2009.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Riddle has a son, Landon.

CHRIS WARD

Defensive Line

Fourth Season at GSU

Chris Ward, a former all-Southeastern Conference player with coaching experience in NFL Europe, joined the Georgia State football program in 2008 as the defensive line coach on head coach Bill Curry's staff.

An Atlanta native, Ward played at Southwest DeKalb High School under legendary coach Buck Godfrey. He went on to play for Curry at Kentucky, where he lettered four years as a defensive end and earned second-team all-SEC honors in 1996.

Ward, a seventh-round draft pick of the Baltimore Ravens in 1997, spent time on the Ravens' roster as well as that of the Tennessee Titans before playing in NFL Europe with the Scottish Claymores, for whom he served as team captain. Following his playing career, he served internships with the Claymores (2003) and Berlin Thunder (2004). He moved to the Cologne Centurions as a defensive assistant coach in 2005 and then was elevated to defensive line coach in 2006.

In 2007, he joined the startup All-American Football League as Manager of Player Personnel and remained there until the league ceased operations in May 2008.

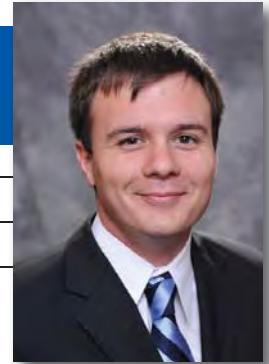

Ward earned his bachelor's degree in social work from Kentucky in 1997.

He and his wife, Erika, are the parents of twins, Evan and Ava, and son Dallas.

RYAN ZIMMERMAN

Specialists / Defensive Assistant

Third Season at GSU

Ryan Zimmerman enters his third season on the Georgia State football staff, coaching the kickers and specialists while serving as a defensive assistant.

Georgia State's specialists performed extremely well in the Panthers' inaugural season of 2010. Placekicker Iain Vance earned third-team all-America recognition after connecting on 15 of 17 field goals. Punter Bo Schlechter averaged 44.5 yards per kick, and the Panthers posted a net punting average of 37.34 yards, which would have ranked among the nation's top 10 in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Zimmerman has previous coaching experience at the high school level, working with the programs at West Hall High School (1999-02), his alma mater, and East Hall High (2005).

Before coming to Georgia State in 2009, Zimmerman worked in the investment field and for his family business.

A native of Gainesville, Ga., Zimmerman attended Piedmont College in Demorest, Ga.

SARAH GIGANTINO

Director of Football Operations
Second Season at GSU

Georgia State's director of football operations is Sarah Gigantino, who joined head coach Bill Curry's staff in January 2010.

Gigantino spent the previous three seasons as director of operations at Northeastern, which discontinued its football program following the 2009 campaign.

Before going to Northeastern, where she served under head coach Rocky Hager, Gigantino worked in the athletics department at Maryland and at the Campus Recreation Center at Georgia Tech. She also served an internship in the New York Jets' college scouting department.

Gigantino received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and sport management from James Madison in 2004 and then earned her master's degree in sports administration from Georgia State in 2006. She worked with the Duke's football program while an undergraduate at JMU.

JAY BAILEY

Equipment Manager
Third Season at GSU

Georgia State's first equipment manager, Jay Bailey has nearly 20 years of experience managing and maintaining football equipment at the collegiate level.

Bailey joined the Georgia State staff in 2009 after three seasons as equipment manager at Illinois State. He previously spent 10 years as the athletic equipment supervisor at Cincinnati.

Before Cincinnati, Bailey worked as the assistant equipment manager at Georgia Tech and as head equipment manager at Southeast Missouri State.

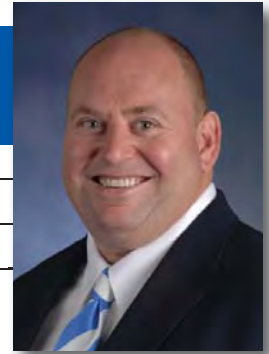

Bailey attended Auburn, where he served as a student manager for the football program. He originally joined the team as a walk-on player before a career-ending injury.

He earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Auburn in 1988.

Bailey and his wife, Melissa, have two children, Justin, 9, and Travis, 7.

KEN COGGINS

Strength & Conditioning Coach
Fourth Season at GSU

Georgia State head strength and conditioning coach Ken Coggins possesses more than two decades of experience developing collegiate and professional athletes.

Coggins joined the Georgia State staff in May 2008 from Charleston Southern, where he was the program's first full-time strength and conditioning coach and worked with all sports in one year there.

He previously worked as head strength and conditioning coach at Jackson State (2003-07), Belhaven College (1999-2003), Southwest Missouri State (1995-99), Arkansas Little Rock (1990-95) and Delta State (1988). He also served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Memphis State (1988-90).

Coggins has worked with high-profile professional athletes, including NBA standout Derek Fisher of the Los Angeles Lakers, with whom Coggins worked at Arkansas Little Rock.

Coggins, 48, earned his B.S. degree in fitness management and exercise physiology from Mississippi State University in 1986.

A member of the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Association, he is certified by the National Association of Speed-Strength & Conditioning and the International Sports Association (Speed-Strength Certification) and is a graduate of the Speed-Strength & Quickness Training Seminar at the Sports Conditioning Institute.

He has traveled extensively to broaden his knowledge, studying at the Lenin Institute for Physical Culture in Moscow, Russia; the German Institute of Physical Culture and Sports Science in Leipzig, Germany; and the Bulgarian Institute of Physical Culture and Sports.

Coggins and his wife, Tina, have a daughter, Lauren.

Assistant Director of Athletics -
Sports Medicine
Fifth Season at GSU

KEISHA JONES

Assistant Director -
Student-Athlete Development
Fifth Season at GSU

Bob Murphy, assistant director of athletics for sports medicine, is entering his fifth year at Georgia State.

He originally came to Georgia State in 2007 as head athletic trainer and was elevated to assistant athletic director in 2008. He previously worked directly with the men's and women's basketball programs.

Murphy joined the GSU staff from the United States Military Academy in West Point, N.Y., where he served as assistant athletic trainer, working with the football, men's basketball and baseball teams.

He previously taught pharmacology to undergraduate athletic training students at Dominican College. He serves as secretary and treasurer for the College Athletic Trainers' Society.

Murphy earned his bachelor of science degree in sports medicine at Marietta College in 1998, and then he completed his master of science degree in exercise science at Syracuse in 2000.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Murphy is married to the former Josephine Lee, and the couple has one son, Benjamin.

Keisha Jones, Georgia State's Assistant Director of Student-Athlete Development and Tutorial Coordinator, serves as the primary academic advisor for the football program.

Jones is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors (N4A) and serves as chair of the Ethics Concerns Committee. She is a graduate of the N4A's Academic Leadership Academy.

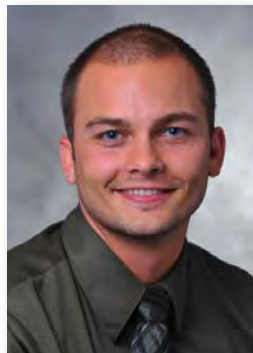

Before coming to Georgia State, Jones was an academic intern and then a temporary employee at North Carolina A&T. She worked as the program assistant for the Student-Athlete Academic Enhancement Program, a HART (Helping Athletes Rise to the Top) counselor, and tutoring coordinator. At the same time, she worked as a career readiness coordinator for the state of North Carolina.

She graduated from North Carolina A&T in 2003 and then added a master's in counseling in 2007.

AT GEORGIA STATE: Tight end who enrolled at Georgia State for the fall of 2010 after two seasons in junior college ... Nicknamed "Bully" for his blocking ability.

2010: Made 16 catches for 164 yards and three touchdowns as he shared the tight end position with Emmanuel Ogbuehi ... Fifth on the team in receptions ... Averaged 10.2 yards per catch ... Voted the team's Outstanding Tight End by his teammates.

Made perhaps the play of Georgia State's season in the 23-17 victory over Lamar, which ensured a winning record for the Panthers in their inaugural campaign. With GSU trailing 20-17 in the fourth quarter, he caught a two-yard touchdown pass, hauling in the ball after it was tipped by a defender for the winning score ... Nearly made a similar catch in the back of the end zone on the Panthers' final play in the overtime loss to Jacksonville State, but he was ruled out of bounds, ending the game.

Season highs of five receptions for 66 yards against Lamar ... Three catches for 43 yards in win at Campbell, including a 24-yard reception down to the CU 30-yard line to help set up the game-winning field goal

Caught two touchdowns in win over Morehead State. Scored on an 11-yard reception on which he caught a short pass in the flat and literally dragged the defender into the end zone. Also caught a two-yard TD pass against MSU.

JUNIOR COLLEGE/HIGH SCHOOL: Played two seasons for coach Joe Early at Palomar J.C. in San Marcos, Calif. ... Had just two catches for 16 yards in 2009 but was a key contributor in helping the team rush for nearly 2,500 yards and average 4.7 yards per rush ... Had three receptions for 19 yards in 2008 ... Helped his team to a 10-3 record in 2009 and an 8-3 mark and Golden Empire Bowl berth in 2008 . . . Played two varsity seasons for coach Walter Frazier at Carol City High ... Selected to play in the North Dade All-Star Game.

2010 SEASON REVIEW

GEORGIA STATE 41, SHORTER 7

Game 1: Sept. 2, 2010 • 7:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

The football era began at Georgia State with a 41-7 victory over NAIA Shorter before a crowd of 30,237 fans at the Georgia Dome Thursday night. Quarterback Drew Little led the Panthers with a 13-of-17 performance and two touchdown passes, while running back Parris Lee scored twice on the ground.

The program's first-ever game capped a preparation period that began in April 2008, when it was first announced that the school would field a football team.

"I've never been more proud of a group of young men than I am of this group," said head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State (1-0) piled up 366 yards of total offense, including 212 yards rushing, and allowed the Shorter offense inside the red zone just once in the game. Safety Brandon Jones led the defense with six tackles on the night.

The Panthers jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter and never looked back, moving the ball 63 yards on 11 plays on the game's first possession and capping the drive with a 4-yard Lee touchdown run. A 15-yard completion by Little to wide receiver Danny Williams on third down put the ball inside the Shorter 10 and helped set up the opening score.

Georgia State scored three times in the second quarter on two Iain Vance field goals (from 22 and 18 yards out) and a touchdown drive of 30 yards after the Panthers recovered a Shorter fumble. Little found tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi for an 8-yard score and the Panthers' first-ever touchdown through the air.

Quarterback Kelton Hill piloted the offense for the first drive of the second half, which resulted in the first of the period's two field goals. Hill capped the scoring in the contest with a 24-yard touchdown run with eight seconds remaining in the game.

The second-half scoring for the Panthers began with Lee's second touchdown of the game, a 10-yard run into the corner of the end zone with 2:12 left in the third. Little found wide receiver Jordan Giles from 16 yards out for the Panthers' first score of the fourth quarter and his second passing touchdown of the night.

Shorter scored its first points of the game with 8:14 left in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Ben Williams, making the score 27-7. The Hawks had a chance to get on the scoreboard on their first possession of the second half, but David Guilford hooked the 51-yard field goal attempt wide left.

Georgia State finished the game with no turnovers; Shorter gave the ball up twice on the evening.

"When you don't turn the ball over and you get some turnovers you almost always win," added Curry. "That is an incredible coefficient of victory that we have hammered and preached so hard."

Official attendance for the game was announced at 30,237, with overflow into the mezzanine level of the Georgia Dome.

Georgia State takes the field for its inaugural game, played before 30,237 fans at the Georgia Dome.

LAMBUTH 23, GEORGIA STATE 14

Game 2: Sept. 11, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

After erasing a nine-point halftime deficit to take a lead late into the fourth quarter, Georgia State fell to NAIA Lambuth, 23-14, at the Georgia Dome. Two late interceptions — one of which was returned for a Lambuth touchdown — doomed the Panthers in their second game as a program.

"We did not sustain anything running the ball today," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "And we couldn't stop them when we needed to."

The Panthers trailed 9-0 at the half before coming alive on offense.

Georgia State (1-1) got on the scoreboard on its second drive of the second half, starting at its own 48-yard line after forcing a Lambuth punt. Quarterback Kelton Hill, in for starter Drew Little, took off out of the pocket on third-and-13 and broke free for a 53-yard gain down to the Lambuth 2-yard line. Two plays later, Travis Evans ran 2 yards for a Panthers touchdown, and Iain Vance hit the point after to cut it 9-7.

After penalties helped stop the ensuing Lambuth (1-1) drive, Georgia State struck again on a 77-yard drive that culminated in the Panthers' biggest pass play of the season so far. Hill, in again under center, pitched to Roosevelt Watson, who then found a wide-open Danny Williams for a 39-yard touchdown pass, putting GSU ahead, 14-9, with just six seconds remaining in the third quarter.

The Panthers' second touchdown drive was set up by a 14-yard pass from Little to Darren McCray and a 20-yard run from Evans.

"I was proud the guys fought back in the third quarter to get the lead," added Curry. "But Lambuth deserves the win today because they outplayed us."

A clock-eating Lambuth touchdown drive in the fourth quarter put the Eagles back on top 16-14 with 2:27 left in the game. Lambuth's game-winning drive covered 69 yards on 17 plays and lasted more than eight minutes, capped by B.A. Davis' four-yard touchdown run.

GSU's Demarius Matthews returned the ensuing kickoff to the 32-yard line, but Hill's pass was deflected up in the air and into the arms of Darius Buckley, who returned it 37 yards for the clinching score.

Lambuth, coached by former Temple head coach Ron Dickerson, used a possession passing game, combined with the running of Marquis Williams to take a 9-0 lead at the half. Williams, frequently taking direct snaps, rushed for 149 yards on 17 carries, including a 23-yard scoring run on the Eagles' first possession.

Linebacker Jake Muasau came up with two turnovers in the first half, getting an interception and a fumble recovery, and also had three sacks in the game. Olufemi Opanubi led the defense with nine total tackles.

Game 3: Sept. 18, 2010 • 1 p.m. (CSS-TV)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

In its first-ever contest against an NCAA Football Championship Subdivision opponent, Georgia State fell to No. 4 Jacksonville State, 34-27, in overtime at the Georgia Dome.

Needing a touchdown and extra point to prolong the extra period after giving up a score to JSU on the first possession, Georgia State quarterback Kelton Hill threw incomplete in the back of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the two-yard line. Tight end Arthur Williams came down with the tipped pass, but after one official signaled touchdown, he was ruled out of bounds.

Jacksonville State scored on four plays on the first possession of overtime, with quarterback Marques Ivory running four yards for a touchdown.

"We didn't come here to do well against good teams," said head coach Bill Curry. "We came here to beat them, and there were so many ways that we could have today, but we weren't ready to take that step just yet."

After falling behind 27-20 early in the fourth quarter, Georgia State scored with 3:57 left in regulation to tie the score 27-27 on a one-yard Drew Little quarterback sneak. The tying drive covered 75 yards on 13 plays, including third-down completions by Little to Sidney Haynes for 14 yards and Travis Evans for seven yards. Little hit Danny Williams for 16 yards down to the JSU one to set up the score.

Regulation ended in frantic fashion with Jacksonville State in possession of the ball in field goal range on the GSU 20-yard line. After completing a five-yard pass with time running down, Ivory took the snap rather than spiking the ball or calling timeout to stop the clock and bring up a potential game-winning field goal attempt. His pass was tipped and nearly intercepted by Brandon Jones to send the game into overtime.

After allowing a field goal to JSU on the first possession of the game, Georgia State struck quickly on its first drive with a scintillating 41-yard touchdown run by Darren McCray to take a 7-3 lead. On the play, McCray took a reverse handoff from Albert Wilson and streaked down the sideline, fighting off several Gamecock defenders to find the end zone.

JSU countered with a short touchdown pass by Ivory, who found Jamal Young for the four-yard scoring play on the first play of the second quarter to regain the lead, 10-7.

The score at halftime was 17-10 in the Gamecocks' favor as JSU mounted a late touchdown drive after an Iain Vance 39-yard field goal with 4:13 to go in the second.

The two teams traded field goals to begin the third quarter, with Vance again connecting on a 25-yard try.

Down 20-13 in the fourth quarter, Georgia State again struck quickly on offense. After moving the ball into JSU territory, Evans took a handoff up the middle and eluded several would-be tacklers to go 46 yards for the touchdown and tie the game at 20-20 with 13:26 to go in the contest.

The Panthers put up 339 yards of total offense in the game, with Little completing 25 of 38 passes for 227 yards. Receivers Danny Williams and Bo Schlechter were the main targets, with Williams catching seven passes for 78 yards and Schlechter, the former quarterback, bringing in five passes for 64 yards. Safety Brandon Jones led the defense with seven total tackles.

"Obviously, Drew Little was outstanding at quarterback," Curry added. "Obviously, Travis Evans is a force when he contains his enthusiasm. He is an amazing player. The offensive line took a giant step forward today from last week."

"I'm proud of our effort," said Curry. "We can go back on the field and improve again if we practice the way we did this week, and get ready for the next one, and the next one, until we play like we should virtually all the time."

2010 SEASON REVIEW

GEORGIA STATE 24, CAMPBELL 21

Game 4: Sept. 25, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Barker-Lane Stadium • Buies Creek, N.C.

Iain Vance booted a 30-yard field goal with just one second left to lift Georgia State to a 24-21 victory over Campbell Saturday afternoon at Barker-Lane Stadium, giving the Panthers (2-2) a win in their first-ever road game.

Vance's field goal capped a 10-play, 63-yard drive after Campbell (1-3) tied the game with a touchdown with 3:14 to play. GSU quarterback Drew Little completed three passes on the drive, including a 24-yard completion to tight end Arthur Williams to the Campbell 30, and then Rosevelt Watson got the Panthers into field goal range with runs of 15 and six yards down to the 24.

The Panthers ran two plays to run down the clock and get the ball into the middle of the field for Vance, the fifth-year senior from Duluth, Ga., who has not missed this season.

"We've put him under pressure in practice every single day since Aug. 11, 2009, just so that he would be ready for this," said GSU head coach Bill Curry.

Little's eight-yard touchdown pass to Danny Williams had put the Panthers ahead, 21-14, with 6:11 to play after a 13-play, 80-yard drive, but the Camels answered by moving 64 yards on just six plays. Quarterback Daniel Polk accounted for the game-tying score on a seven-yard run.

Little, the redshirt freshman from McDonough, Ga., completed 16 of 23 passes for 163 yards and two touchdowns on the day.

Rashaun Brown rushed for a career-high 133 yards on 19 carries for the Camels, who fell in the final seconds for the second straight game after allowing a touchdown to Davidson with 13 seconds left last week.

"I'm proud of my guys for one thing, which we've shown every day since we got here, and that is resilience," said Curry. "We will fight back every single time. We're 2-2 and we'll take that. Give credit to a very valiant Campbell team."

After a 14-all tie at the half, the Panthers' defense dodged two scoring threats in the second half as Campbell missed a pair of field goals, the second one coming early in the fourth quarter after third-down sack by GSU defensive tackle Christo Bilukidi.

From there, GSU took over at its own 20, and the Panthers moved down the field behind the combination of Little's passing and key runs by Travis Evans, who finished with 53 yards on 11 carries. Little started the drive with a 14-yard completion to Arthur Williams, then hit Parris Lee and Emmanuel Ogbuehi for short gains for a first down at the GSU 45. Then Evans carried three straight times, including a three-yard gain on third-and-two. On first down at the Campbell 44, Little hit Danny Williams for five yards, and then Evans ran 18 yards down to the 21. After an incompleting and a six-yard gain by Evans, Little converted on third down with a five-yard strike to Danny Williams to the 10. On second down, Little again found Williams, this time in the corner of the end zone for an eight-yard scoring pass and a 21-14 lead with 6:11 to go.

On the two fourth-quarter scoring drives, Little was 9-for-10 for 82 yards.

The Panthers won the toss and elected to receive, which proved to be a good decision when Darren McCray took the opening kickoff and raced 94 yards for the score, staking Georgia State to the early, 7-0 lead. Not only was McCray's jaunt a first in Georgia State history, but it was also the first surrendered by the Campbell program in its third year of existence.

Campbell also had an early scoring chance when the Camels recovered a fumbled punt at the GSU 17-yard line. Five plays later, quarterback Daniel Polk punched it in from the one to knot the score at 7-all with 9:47 to play in the first quarter.

Georgia State answered on its first offensive possession with a 10-play, 51-yard drive, capped by Little's five-yard touchdown pass to Sidney Haynes as the Panthers regained the lead, 14-7, with 4:06 left in the first quarter.

The Camels tied the game by grinding out a 13-play, 94-yard drive that lasted nearly eight minutes. Georgia State appeared to have the drive stopped, but a roughing the passer call gave Campbell a key third-down conversion. Polk finished the drive with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Harrison Jordan, knotting the score at 14-all just 1:31 before halftime.

GEORGIA STATE 37, MOREHEAD ST. 10

Game 5: Oct. 2, 2010 • 1 p.m. (CSS-TV)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by a stellar passing performance from Drew Little and tenacious defense, Georgia State cruised past Morehead State, 37-10, in the Georgia Dome on Saturday. The Panthers' first-ever Homecoming Game resulted in the program's second win over a fellow FCS opponent and third win overall on the season.

Georgia State (3-2) got 287 yards and four touchdowns on 21-of-29 passing from Little, who enjoyed his best game as a Panther. The defense held a previously prolific Morehead State (2-3) offense to just 280 total yards, giving up the only MSU touchdown early in the fourth quarter.

"Drew Little's performance today was just masterful," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "We are really proud of him. He also has some very good receivers who catch the ball well, even if he does not throw it exactly right sometimes. The o-line grew up today, and we played our most complete game. They got it together and came out and played about as well as we have played. The other key factor is that the defense came to play today in a way they have not this entire year."

Little gave credit to the entire offense.

"What I did today was because of the o-line, the wide-outs, the running backs," he said. "You have got to have the time to get it to the receivers and make a good play."

GSU jumped out to a 30-3 halftime lead, its best scoring output on the season for a single half.

The Panthers struck early with two scoring drives in the first quarter. After forcing a three-and-out on MSU's first possession, Little and company embarked on an eight-play, 56-yard drive that culminated in a 6-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Giles, who made his return after missing the last three games with injury. First-down passes to Sidney Haynes and Danny Williams helped set up the score.

On the Panthers' next possession, the offense struck in just over a minute with a three-play, 57-yard scoring drive. On the second play of the drive, Little hit Albert Wilson deep down the sideline for a 42-yard gain, putting the ball at the MSU 4-yard line and setting up Parris Lee's third rushing touchdown of the season on the next play.

Little found 6-foot-3, 270-pound Arthur Williams for his first of two touchdowns with 3:29 remaining in the second quarter. Williams caught the ball near the line of scrimmage at the MSU 11-yard line and dragged an Eagle defender nearly the whole way to the goal line for an impressive score.

Arthur Williams' second touchdown came on a play-action rollout from Little on fourth-and-1 from the MSU 2-yard line with 7:47 to go in the third quarter. Little hit him in stride for the Panthers' final score on the afternoon to make it 37-3. The two receiving scores for the junior college transfer from Miami, Fla., were his first at Georgia State.

Haynes scored his second receiving touchdown on the season with a 12-yard fade route into the end zone with just :17 remaining in the first half. Earlier in the drive, Little found Danny Williams on third-and-14 for an over-the-shoulder, 39-yard reception to the MSU 38-yard line. Danny Williams set career highs with eight catches and 101 yards.

2010 SEASON REVIEW

Iain Vance also set a personal best with a 49-yard field goal with 7:55 left in the second quarter. Coming into the game, Vance was perfect on both field goals (5-for-5) and extra points (13-for-13), but missed a 43-yard FG attempt and one extra point on the afternoon. The career-long kick was set up by an MSU fumble that was recovered at the Eagles' 35-yard line by Brandon Jones.

Travis Evans was the Panthers' leading rusher with 62 yards on eight carries.

The Panther defense turned in a great statistical performance in picking up four turnovers, a season high, and limiting Morehead State, known for its pass-heavy attack, to 280 yards of total offense, including just 98 yards in the first half.

GSU recovered two fumbles - one by Jones and another by Nate Anthony on a muffed MSU punt, both in the second quarter - and gathered in two interceptions. Linebacker Brad Chahoy picked off Lewis in the third quarter, and cornerback Demarius Matthews grabbed an errant MSU pass with 0:52 left in the game.

"Coach [John] Thompson, [Anthony] Midget, [Jason] French and [Chris] Ward spent many, many hours evaluating route systems and protections," Curry said. "I think they had such a marvelous plan.

"Our young defensive backs are growing up and our veteran defensive backs are redshirt freshmen."

The Eagles got a 27-yard field goal from Rainer Duzan in the first quarter, then found the end zone when Zach Lewis passed to Jaison Yoshimura for a 23-yard score with 11:20 left in the game.

Quarterback Star Jackson saw his first snaps of the season against Morehead State. The Alabama transfer, a 6-foot-3, 210-pound redshirt sophomore, had a rough game with two interceptions. Kelton Hill also directed the offense for a series late in the fourth quarter.

Georgia State held the ball for 32:25 in the game to win its first advantage in time of possession on the season.

GEORGIA STATE 55, SAVANNAH ST. 21

Game 6: Oct. 9, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State got four takeaways on defense and four touchdown passes from Drew Little to pick up its second consecutive blowout win, 55-21 over Savannah State on Saturday at the Georgia Dome. Georgia State (4-2) is now 3-1 this season against schools from the FCS division, and is on its first three-game win streak in school history.

"I'm very pleased with our men today because this is another first for us," said Panthers head coach Bill Curry. "(It is) the first time we have played two decent games in a row."

The Panthers scored a total of 17 points on drives after three of the four Savannah State (0-6) miscues, all of which happened in the first half. Linebacker Louie Muasau had an interception and a fumble recovery - both in the first quarter - to spark the Panthers' defense. Jamal Ransby added an interception and Brent McClendon picked up a fumble.

"We knew we couldn't get passive and take it easy, we just had to do what we're here to do," said McClendon of the Panther defense. "We just had to cause turnovers and try to intercept them and recover the ball"

The 55-point offensive outburst eclipsed the Panthers' next-highest total of 41 points against Shorter in the season-opening win.

Albert Wilson had two touchdown catches, one from 29 yards out in the second quarter and one from 28 yards out in the third, for his first scores of the season. Sam Burkhalter also had a two-touchdown day, catching a pass for the Panthers' first score and running for a 1-yard TD in the third quarter.

Drew Little finished 16-of-25 passing for 166 yards and four scores on the afternoon, going his third straight game without an interception. Iain Vance continued his superb senior season by going 2-for-2 on field goals (from 46 and 27 yards, both in the second quarter) and hitting all of his PATs. He is 8-of-9 on the year on field goals.

Three quarterbacks led the Panthers on scoring drives, with Star Jackson and Kelton Hill taking the team into the end zone in the fourth quarter. Hill totaled 95 yards rushing, including an 8-yard touchdown run inside the final minute of the game, with no pass attempts.

The first series of the game kicked off the parade of turnovers, with McClendon picking the ball off the turf after the first Tiger fumble and returning it nine yards to the Savannah State 23. But the Panthers gave the ball away themselves (their only turnover of the game) after Danny Williams fumbled on the SSU 11-yard line.

On the Panthers' next offensive series, however, they would capitalize on the second Savannah State turnover after Louie Muasau's interception of Tiger QB Antonio Bostick gave GSU the ball back at the SSU 19.

Four plays later, Parris Lee found the corner of the end zone from 4 yards out to give the Panthers a 7-0 advantage with 8:23 remaining in the first quarter. On the previous play, a third down and long, Bo Schlechter caught a 15-yard slant to give the Panthers the first and goal.

Savannah State's fumble on the first play of its next series - recovered by Jake Muasau at the Tiger 21 after a Fred Barnes sack - set up the next touchdown drive, as Burkhalter hauled in the 9-yard touchdown pass from Little to give the Panthers a 14-0 lead just eight minutes into the game.

GSU would add two more touchdowns before halftime. Danny Williams caught his third touchdown pass of the season from seven yards out to cap a 67-yard drive, and Wilson caught his first TD pass of the game with just :20 to go in the half to make it 34-7.

Wilson's second touchdown reception of the game finished off the opening drive of the second half, as Wilson caught a short pass on the sideline, shook off a tackler, and darted the rest of the way for the 28-yard score to give GSU the 41-7 advantage.

The Panthers are averaging 33 points a game on offense through their first six games of the season.

"We're getting better and better every day," said Wilson. "We just need to work on ball security and keep cutting down the turnovers on offense. We're doing more drills on ball security in practice. We're working on the small things and making sure we block our assignments at the right time."

The Panther defense gave up scoring drives of 53, 64 and 94 yards, with running back Sheldon Barnes going for two short touchdown runs and Bostick hitting wide receiver Bryan Lackey for a 38-yard scoring pass.

Fred Barnes led the defense with 6.5 total tackles, including a sack, forced fumble and two tackles for loss.

GEORGIA STATE 20, NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL 17 (OT)

Game 7: Oct. 16, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Iain Vance hit a 33-yard field goal in overtime to push Georgia State past North Carolina Central, 20-17, in the Georgia Dome. The victory moved the Panthers' overall record to 5-2 and extended their winning streak to four games.

The game-winner was Vance's second of the season. He hit a 30-yarder against Campbell with one second remaining to send the Panthers to a 24-21 victory three weeks ago.

"Every kick that you get like that, just like we do it every day in practice, obviously it helps," said the fifth-year senior. "The snapper, the holder and the kicker all need to be in sync."

After NCCU kicked the tying field goal with five seconds left in regulation, Georgia State won the coin toss heading into the extra period and elected to play defense first. Cornerback Jamal Ransby made a touchdown-saving pass breakup on a third-down play, and Frankie Cardelle's 45-yard field goal attempt sailed wide to turn the ball over to GSU.

It was the Panthers' second overtime contest of their inaugural season; they lost the first one to Jacksonville State, 34-27, on September 18 at home. It was also their first come-from-behind victory when trailing at the half, as Central led 7-3 at the break.

"Another routine Georgia State win," joked Panther head coach Bill Curry. "What a wonderful testament for our guys. In order to be a decent program, you have got to win these games."

For the second week in a row, the State defense picked up four turnovers. Brad Chahoy, Brent McClendon and Fred Barnes all intercepted passes from Central quarterback Keon Williams (all in the first half), and Jake Muasau recovered a Williams fumble caused by Christo Bilukidi on the first play of the fourth quarter.

The Panthers trailed 14-10 in the fourth period before mounting an eight-play, 66-yard scoring drive that culminated in a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Little to Danny Williams to take a 17-14 lead with 5:36 left in the game.

After Jake Muasau batted down a pass on a fourth-down fake-punt attempt, the Panthers took over possession on the Central 39-yard line with 2:54 remaining. Faced with a fourth-and-one three plays later, Little looked to sneak for a first down to ice the game but came up just short, giving the ball back to the Eagles with 50 seconds left.

Central took off on a torrid drive, with Williams completing three straight passes to move to the GSU 27. After two straight incompletions, Cardelle came on for the game-tying field-goal attempt with just :10 remaining in regulation.

Cardelle's attempt from 44 yards sailed wide left, but Panther head coach Bill Curry had called his final timeout just prior to the snap. On Cardelle's second try, the kick was good to send the game into overtime.

Little finished 16-of-29 passing for 205 yards and a touchdown. He also went his fourth straight game without an interception, a total of 18 error-free quarters. Danny Williams broke his own school record of 101 receiving yards, set two weeks ago against Morehead State, by going for 103 yards on five catches and a touchdown.

Quarterback Kelton Hill led the team in rushing with 71 yards, but lost two fumbles.

The Panther offense struggled for much of the game, mustering only 28 rushing yards in the first half. GSU got its first points of the game late in the second quarter on a 32-yard field goal from Vance, who went 2-for-3 on the day to make him 10-for-12 so far this season.

"We are just glad to come out 5-2," said Little. "We got a 'W' and that's all that matters. We didn't play as well as we would have liked to, but we came out on top."

The Panthers picked up their first lead of the game in the third quarter. They embarked on their longest drive of the season so far, an 85-yard march that resulted in a 25-yard touchdown scamper by Travis Evans, his third of the season, to make it 10-7 with 3:50 to go in the third quarter.

Central got a 29-yard touchdown run from Arthur Goforth in the first quarter and then took a 14-10 lead in the fourth quarter when Williams hit receiver Geovonie Irvine behind the defense for a 47-yard touchdown with 9:58 left in the game.

The Panther defense set a season-high with the three interceptions. Fred Barnes led the team in tackles with 7.5 stops in addition to his interception, and Bilukidi and Khiry Karriem came up with sacks.

Bo Schlechter continued his stellar play at both punter and wide receiver. Schlechter, who started the season as a quarterback, punted four times for a 51-yard average, including two inside the 20-yard line. He also caught one pass, a key 23-yard reception in the third quarter on third down to help set up Evans' touchdown run.

OLD DOMINION 34, GEORGIA STATE 20

Game 8: Oct. 23, 2010 • 3:30 p.m. (TV)
S.B. Ballard Stadium/Foreman Field • Norfolk, Va.

Playing just its second road game, the Georgia State football team fell at Old Dominion, 34-20, Saturday before 19,278 fans at S.B. Ballard Stadium, snapping the Panthers four-game winning streak.

Georgia State quarterback Drew Little passed for 414 yards and Danny Williams had another 100-yard receiving day, but the Panthers hurt themselves with four fumbles and several untimely penalties.

"Had we held onto the football and not committed so many stupid penalties, it might have been a different ballgame," said head coach Bill Curry. "You can't do that against a really good football team like Old Dominion, especially on the road, and expect to have a chance."

Georgia State led 6-0 at the end of the first quarter, but the Monarchs (4-3) closed the first half with 17 straight points to take a 17-6 lead into the intermission.

Trailing by just 11, the Panthers began the second half with the ball and drove into ODU territory before Parris Lee fumbled at the 29-yard line at the end of a 12-gain. The Monarchs took advantage with a 71-yard touchdown drive, capped by Colby Goodwyn's 23-yard scoring run, to take a 24-6 lead.

Georgia State then mounted another promising drive, getting a first down at the ODU 8, but Little's fourth-down pass fell incomplete. Still, GSU stopped the Monarchs and forced a punt, but Albert Wilson misplayed the ball and ODU recovered at the Panthers' nine-yard line. That led to a 29-yard field goal by Jarrod Brown and a 27-6 lead for the Monarchs.

Burkhalter, gave ODU possession at the GSU 29, setting up a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Thomas DeMarco, extending the Monarchs' lead to 34-6 late in the third quarter. DeMarco passed for 152 yards and one touchdown while rushing for 31 yards and a score.

The Panthers kept fighting and managed a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns on a 32-yard catch-and-run by Travis Evans and a three-yard plunge by Little. After Little's score made the score 34-20 with 3:18 to play, GSU attempted an onsidies kick but did not recover the ball.

Little finished 32-for-53 for 414 yards, easily the biggest numbers of his young career, with one touchdown pass. The redshirt freshman from McDonough, Ga., extended his interception-less streak to 187 passes.

Danny Williams caught a season-high 11 passes for 102 yards, and Sidney Haynes added six catches for 73 yards. The Panthers outgained ODU, 477 yards to 381, but GSU managed just 58 yards rushing, while ODU backs Mario Crawford and Colby Goodwyn combined for 163 of the Monarchs' 229 yards on the ground.

In the first quarter, the Panthers twice drove deep into ODU territory but had to settle for a pair of Vance field goals.

GSU moved down the field on its opening possession as a 30-yard run by Roosevelt Watson gave the Panthers first-and-goal at the ODU two. But three running plays netted minus-two yards, and GSU had to settle for Vance's 21-yard field goal.

The Panthers' next possession also resulted in a field goal as GSU drove from its own 20 to a first-down at the ODU 20 before Vance was good from 34 yards. He is now 12-of-14 on the season.

"One of our stated goals coming in was to score touchdowns when we got in the red zone, but we didn't do that today," said Curry. "When Old Dominion got in the red zone, they did score touchdowns.

"Congratulations to [ODU head coach] Bobby Wilder on a well-coached and well-prepared football team," continued Curry.

Old Dominion got on the scoreboard with an 80-yard drive in the second quarter, capped by a six-yard touchdown run by Mario Crawford, putting the Monarchs ahead, 7-6, with 7:03 remaining in the second quarter.

After forcing a three-and-out by GSU, ODU began its next possession at midfield and drove for an 18-yard touchdown pass from DeMarco to Marquel Thomas with 2:34 left in the first half.

Georgia State went to a hurry-up offense and was on the move until Danny Williams fumbled at the end of a 13-yard completion. Donald Smith recovered for the Monarchs, giving ODU the ball at the 46-yard line with 1:46 still remaining in the half. The Monarchs moved to the GSU 27 before settling for Brown's career-long 44-yard field goal.

SOUTH ALABAMA 39, GEORGIA STATE 34

Game 9: Oct. 30, 2010 • 5 p.m.
Ladd-Peebles Stadium • Mobile, Ala.

Georgia State rallied with 13 fourth-quarter points before falling at undefeated South Alabama, 39-34, Saturday at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Ala.

Drew Little threw two touchdown passes and rushed for two more for the Panthers (5-4), but South Alabama's Kendall Houston rushed for 175 yards, including the first down that enabled the Jaguars to run out the clock and improve to 8-0 on the season and 15-0 in their two-year history.

Jaguar quarterback C.J. Bennett threw three touchdown passes as South Alabama scored 24 straight points in the second quarter to turn a 14-6 deficit into a 30-14 halftime lead.

Trailing 33-14, the Panthers began their rally as Little hit Danny Williams for a 47-yard touchdown pass to move GSU within 33-21 with two minutes left in the third quarter.

After South Alabama's T.J. Glover returned the ensuing kickoff to the GSU 38-yard line, the Panthers held the Jaguars to a field goal and trailed 36-21 with 13:25 to play.

Little found Sidney Haynes for a 39-yard completion to USA 25, and Travis Evans picked up 20 yards down to the one on a swing pass from Kelton Hill. Little kept it for the one-yard touchdown, and after Iain Vance's PAT was blocked, the Panthers trailed 36-27 with 11:24 left.

South Alabama managed another field goal to extend their lead to 29-27. After Albert Wilson returned the kickoff out to the 44 to give the Panthers good field position, Little drove GSU to a first down at the USA 20, On fourth-and-six at the 16, he hit Emmanuel Ogbuehi for 11 yards to the five, and then Hill scored a on a five-yard keeper, pulling the Panthers within 39-34 with 3:57 on the clock.

South Alabama took over at its own 26-yard line and managed to run out the clock. On third-and-four, Bennett found Courtney Smith for a six-yard gain and a crucial first down. Out of timeouts, Georgia State still had a chance after forcing a third-and-two with 1:28 to play, but Houston gained nine yards to seal the win.

"This team always fights back, and I'm proud of that," said head coach Bill Curry. "We have wonderful, tough, smart young men, but we're not mature and we're not consistent, and that is the head coach's responsibility. We will become a consistent football team. My job is to get that done this week."

The Jaguars rushed for 293 yards on the day, often breaking tackles after backs appeared to be stopped.

"You've got to tackle," said Curry. "We've work on that every single day in practice, but we didn't get it done today. [Houston] is a heck of a back and he kept fighting, but a lot of that was poor tackling."

For the second straight game, the Panthers took the lead in the first quarter. Georgia State opened the game with an impressive scoring drive, moving 60 yards in 10 plays, with Little hitting Sidney Haynes for a two-yard scoring strike and an early 7-0 advantage.

Georgia State took a 14-6 lead on Little's one-yard scoring run, which was set up when Kail Singleton recovered a fumbled punt at the South Alabama 14-yard line. That put the Panthers ahead by eight points with 11 minutes to play in the second quarter.

That marked the largest deficit that the Jaguars have faced in their two-year history, but it did not last long.

Bennett threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Bryant Lavender to put South Alabama within 14-13 with nine minutes to play in the second quarter.

On the Panthers' next offensive play, Little's pass was tipped and intercepted by Tim Harvey at the GSU 39-yard line. Not only did that snap Little's streak of consecutive passes without an interception at 202, but it set up Bennett's nine-yard scoring pass to Kevin Helms. That gave the Jaguars a 20-14 lead with seven minutes still left in the second quarter.

After forcing a GSU punt, South Alabama put together an 80-yard scoring drive, capped by Bennett's three-yard scoring pass to Jereme Jones, extending the Jaguars advantage to 27-14 with 41 seconds left in the half.

Starting with good field position at the GSU 45, Little hit Danny Williams for a 13-yard gain to the South Alabama 42, but his next pass was intercepted, again by Harvey, who broke several tackles to return the ball all the way to the Panther 18, setting up Lawson McGlon's 35-yard field goal with just three seconds left.

2010 SEASON REVIEW

Little completed 20 of 34 passes on the day for 234 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, along with his two rushing touchdowns. Danny Williams caught five passes for 82 yards and a touchdown, and Sidney Haynes added four catches for 50 yards and a score.

Georgia State played without standout Bo Schlechter and starting linebacker Olufemi Opanubi, who each sustained knee injuries in practice this week

Game 10: Nov. 6, 2010 • 1 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State rallied with a two-yard touchdown catch by tight end Arthur Williams and then held off a last-minute Lamar drive to defeat the visiting Cardinals, 23-17, at the Georgia Dome on Saturday, ensuring a winning record in the Panthers' inaugural season.

Arthur Williams' touchdown catch on a tipped ball gave GSU a come-from-behind victory over Lamar to clinch the Panthers' winning season.

Georgia State fell behind, 17-13, in the fourth quarter before rallying on the touchdown pass from Drew Little to Williams with five minutes to play, and then Iain Vance added his third field goal of the day to put the Panthers ahead, 23-17, with 1:39 left.

Doug Prewitt's last two desperation heaves from the GSU 39-yard line with under 10 seconds to play fell incomplete, with both attempts batted down by wide receiver Danny Williams, who was in on the plays as a safety.

"We have a lot to work on, but the bottom line is this, we have a winning record for the year and we have a winning record at home," said Panthers head coach Bill Curry.

Georgia State led Lamar, 13-3, to begin the fourth quarter, but a Cardinal touchdown with 9:50 left to play cut the deficit to three points. Prewitt, playing for injured starter Andre Bevil, hit J.J. Hayes for a 13-yard score to cap an impressive 99-yard drive after the Panthers had downed a punt inside the Lamar 1-yard line.

Just 14 seconds later, the Panther crowd was shocked into silence. On the first play from scrimmage after the Lamar kickoff, Little threw an interception to Ryan Clark, who returned it 54 yards for a touchdown to give the Cardinals a 17-13 lead.

But the Panther offense would come alive after struggling for much of the game, storming down the field on a 71-yard drive to retake the lead with 4:52 remaining. Arthur Williams, the junior from Miami, Fla., caught a tip-drill touchdown from two yards out, plucking the Little pass out of the air amidst several Cardinal defenders after it was tipped by a Lamar lineman.

The play was reminiscent of the final snap of the Panthers' overtime meeting with Jacksonville State, in which Williams caught a tipped pass but was ruled to be out of the end zone to hand Georgia State its second loss of the year.

"We went through [the play] in practice, and it was the exact same play as what happened in the Jacksonville State game (in the overtime)," Williams said. "So, I just told myself, 'not twice, not in one year.' As I released, the ball was coming right to me, and the defensive lineman slapped it. I just kept my focus on the ball and made the catch."

Little was 5-of-6 on the drive that put the Panthers ahead for good.

"You put your team down, but then again, you have to take your team back on your shoulders and let them look at you for leadership," Little said. "You have to show them that you shook it off, that it's a new drive, and they can follow you and you're going to lead them down the field for six."

Running back Travis Evans was instrumental in the go-ahead scoring march, gaining two first downs on rushes of 17 and 13 yards, the second of which set the Panthers up on the Lamar four-yard line.

The Panthers would tack on three more points thanks to Jamal Ransby's interception of Prewitt on Lamar's next possession. Ransby picked a Prewitt pass off his shoe tops on the first Cardinal series after State's go-ahead touchdown, returning it 20 yards to the Lamar 31.

Iain Vance would knock through a 29-yard field goal several plays later, giving the Panthers the six-point advantage with just 1:39 remaining.

"We didn't mean to make it this type of game," Curry said. "Nonetheless, we did and we still found a way to come back and win in spite of giving up a 99-yard touchdown drive, in spite of giving up a touchdown on an interception.

"In spite of the things we did, we managed to find ways to win the game."

In addition to the timely interception from Ransby, the Panthers got three sacks on Prewitt. The last sack by Allen McKay, his first of the season, pushed the Cardinals back nine yards to the 39-yard line and set up the two incomplete pass attempts to end the game. Safety Fred Barnes led the team with eight total tackles.

The Panthers got off to another fast start, going up 10-0 on Lamar in the first quarter to push the team's first-quarter scoring advantage to 79-25 on the season.

GSU opened the scoring on the first drive of the game on a 33-yard field goal from Iain Vance, his first of three on the day. The drive started with a 62-yard run on a handoff to wide receiver Sidney Haynes, the longest rushing play of the Panthers' short history.

After forcing a three-and-out on the next series, the Panthers experienced another first for their young program when Jordan Giles — a wide receiver used on special teams coverage — blocked a Lamar punt, which was recovered by Justin Hughes at the Cardinal 6. Three plays later, Little hit Haynes in the back of the end zone for the receiver's fourth scoring reception of the year.

Vance moved the Panther advantage to 13-3 with a 47-yard field goal, just 2 yards shy of his season best, with 5:57 remaining in the third quarter.

Little finished the game 22-of-35 passing for 189 yards, two touchdowns and an interception, giving him 18 passing TDs on the season to just seven picks. Arthur Williams led the team in receiving with 66 yards on five catches, and Danny Williams netted 61 yards on six grabs.

Five seniors were honored before the game for Senior Day, including Vance and Brandon Lupo, the holder on field goals and extra points. Defensive back Hubert Davis, linebacker Trey Ennis and wide receiver Charles Borowsky were also recognized before kickoff.

Attendance was 14,689 for Saturday's game, bringing the home average to 16,750.

ALABAMA 63, GEORGIA STATE 7

Game 11: Nov. 18, 2010 • 7:30 p.m. ET (ESPN)
Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Georgia State's inaugural football season concluded with a 63-7 loss to 10th-ranked Alabama in a Thursday night, nationally-televised contest before 101,821 fans at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Albert Wilson's 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Alabama was easily one of the most memorable plays of Georgia State's inaugural season.

Despite the tough loss to the powerful Crimson Tide (8-2), head coach Bill Curry and the Panthers (6-5), already assured of a winning season, reveled in the rare opportunity for a first-year program to take on the defending national champions and receive unprecedented exposure on ESPN.

"I told them before the game, I'm going to be proud of you regardless of the outcome, and I am," said Curry. "We're a better football team right now than we were before the game because of what we learned. I'm grateful to our administration for making this happen, and I'm grateful to Alabama."

Highlights for Georgia State included Albert Wilson's 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and a 55-yard pass completion from Drew Little to tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi for the Panthers' longest pass play of the season.

Wilson's return was the second kickoff return for touchdown for Georgia State in its inaugural season, following Darren McCray's 96-yard against Campbell this season. Not only was that the first surrendered by Alabama this season, but the previous long return against the Crimson Tide was 37 yards.

The Little-to-Ogbuehi came on the Panthers' first play from scrimmage and moved the Panthers to the Alabama 30-yard line. But two penalties pushed GSU back, and then the drive ended on an interception.

The Panthers trailed 14-0 at the end of the first quarter before the Tide exploded for 28 second-quarter points, including an interception return for a touchdown and a blocked punt for a score, to take a 42-7 lead into the intermission.

The Alabama defense, which leads the nation in interceptions, picked off four against the Panthers, including one that C.J. Mosley returned 41 yards for a touchdown.

"Alabama is a great football team," said Curry. "We worked hard to not be overwhelmed by the whole scene, but we were. Alabama really took the wind out of our sails."
